A motion was made by Mr. KEPHART and Mr. STEVENSON.

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination of Darrell W. Smiley, as a Member of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I do not at this time want to register the attitude of any other members of the Senate. However, notwithstanding the fact that the nomination of Mr. Smiley, who happens to be a resident of my county, was submitted on the floor of the Senate yesterday, I believe that the procedure in the Senate should be that the Senator from the county in which a nominee resides should be contacted for at least personal approval of the nomination.

I have nothing against Mr. Smiley and I intend to vote for his confirmation. However, I am just calling attention to the fact that the committee chairman has not contacted me nor any other members of this side of the Senate.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

A motion was made by Mr. KEPHART and Mr. GELTZ, That the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination of Leo Abernathy, as a Member of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, at this time I would like to state my reasons for voting "no" on this nomination of the Governor. I, in my whole history of politics, never believed in rewarding people for political treason.

This certain gentleman, Mr. Abernathy—I am not speaking now of his personal life; I am speaking about his political life—was rewarded by the then Governor James to this position as a member of the State Labor Relations Board for committing political treason to the party which a year previous had selected him as their candidate for sheriff in the county of Allegheny. I think the man is eminently unqualified for the position we are about to vote on.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I am sorry that my colleague from Allegheny county made the statement he did, which I think is an unfair statement; he complains, wrongly in my opinion, because he seems to think that the Democratic party has a copyright or a patent or something on anybody who might be interested in the labor movement which, of course, is not so. But that happened some time ago. Mr. Abernathy has been a member of the Labor Board and I have heard no complaint in the whole time he has been serving on that Board as to the way in which he has done that work and I think that is the important thing to be considered; if he handles his position properly, as he has done, I think he should be rewarded by re-appointment.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I only take the floor to correct the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Geltz, who has given the impression that we members of the Democratic party believe that every man who works for labor ought to stay in the Democratic ranks. That is not true, Mr. President, but we do believe this: we believe that the criterion ought not to be a man whose political maneuvering is a qualifying factor in his being appointed to an important state job. There are many men in Western Pennsylvania of both political faiths that uphold the beliefs of their political parties through thick and thin. I have little or no regard for men or women who change from one party to another for personal gain. The question of whether Mr. Abernathy did that, or not, is one that, of course, is only a matter of opinion. We know that no matter what any Democrat may say about Mr. Abernathy, it never could be as critical or as derogatory as what the Republicans themselves said about Mr. Abernathy when he was the Democratic candidate for sheriff.

However, I am that type of person—and I hope I always will be that type—that can see justice in some things. To my mind, Mr. Abernathy has done a good job in the job that he has been appointed to, but I do not condone the method by which he received his job.

I am voting to day for the confirmation of this man because it is my personal belief that after he was appointed he has performed his job well. I do not, however, under any circumstances want my vote to be considered as a stamp of approval upon any person who, during a political campaign, changes his or her allegiance in order to throw whatever support he may have politically against persons who have been his friends, because they may have within their knowledge certain records or certain information that may destroy their friends in a political campaign, and so I vote for Mr. Abernathy because of the job he has done and not because of the method which was employed for him to get the job.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I only wish I had known the gentleman from Allegheny county, Senator Geltz, was going to speak, as I would then have had here a record from the newspapers of things said about Mr. Abernathy by Mr. Geltz's political colleague, the Republican county chairman of Allegheny county, at the time when Mr. Abernathy was candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket. Immediately upon his divorce from the Democratic party, I wish to put into the record that the Pittsburgh Central Labor Union removed Mr. Abernathy as the President of the Central Labor Union because they felt, and rightly so, that he had betrayed their movement in the county in which I reside.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to make a brief statement with regard to House Bill No. 50, which just passed.

House Bill 50 provides that in a general election year, an even numbered year, you must change your address fifty days previous to the election. As one who has been interested in politics most of his life, I have found you can not get the public excited fifty days previous to an election. Heretofor it has always been thirty days and I think this change is rather unfair. I have always thought our system of government was to get more people to vote and this will preclude a number of people from being allowed to vote.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I again want to call to the attention of the members of the Senate that they are again passing a bill which is going to stop a lot of people from voting, by making the change of address card be signed fifty days before an election. I have heard members of the Republican party from the platform urge that everybody register and vote. This bill makes it far more difficult to vote and I ask the members on my side of the Senate to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I want to suggest to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, that this series of bills, of which there are four on the calendar today, is no move on the part of the Republican party to deprive anyone of any opportunity to vote. On the other hand, Mr. President, these bills, the entire series of them, became necessary in order that the law may be in conformity with the bills, which are now law, which were passed earlier in this session, to change the date of the primary election, and that is the sole purpose of these bills, so that the entire law may be in conformity with those bills which already have been passed and which are now law.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not like to disagree with the gentleman from Lehigh but he has an entirely erroneous conception of this bill—whoever told him that misinformed him—in part of his statement he is correct—but this provision, requiring a change of address card to be made fifty days previous to election in an even numbered year, is not needed to conform with the law passed earlier in this session.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. KEPHART offered the following amendment:

Amend sec. 5, page 3, line 16, by striking out the words "constructions built after the lifting of federal controls" and inserting in lieu thereof "dwelling units built after March first, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I am in favor of federal rent control. However, I am very much afraid it does not meet the requirements of the law.

And furthermore, Mr. President, I understand it is unconstitutional because it is not specific concerning an emergency and without an emergency any price control has been declared by the Supreme Court of the United States as being unconstitutional. Furthermore, Mr. President, it does not set up any administrative body to carry out the provisions of the bill.

Further, Mr. President it does not protect tenants against evictions where there are not sufficient housing accommodations and, above all, it permits a general increase in rents and in many cases where they are not hardship cases.

For those reasons, Mr. President, I am going to vote against this bill.

However, I will say this much at this time, that I am in favor of Senator Wood's bill which is on the second reading calendar.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The sixth section and title were read and agreed to.

In the House of Representatives, June 10th, 1947

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEES TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. BOWER asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Labor Relations to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. COOK asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Counties to meet during the session of the House.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a statement at this time, and as I have just seen the band coming in I thought perhaps they would want to play some music when I got through.

Today's issue of the Pittsburgh Post Gazette carried an editorial which refers to House Bill 551, entitled "A Sensible Plan." The article goes on to say:

"Between $16 and $25 millions—that's what Allegheny County taxpayers are expected to save if the Senate in Harrisburg follows the House's suit in approving a pay-as-you-go plan for the district Sanitary Authority.

"Under the House measure, which passed 163 to 30, the Authority can begin collecting charges while building its sewers and treatment works. To cut down clerical expenses, which means a further saving to taxpayers, the Authority may use private and municipal companies to collect the charges; and a householder may have his water shut off if he fails to pay his sanitary fee.

"There is nothing compulsory about this enabling legislation. County municipalities may or may not elect to go along with the Authority. The only compulsion is that 102 cities, townships, and boroughs and 90 manufacturers in Allegheny County must cease pollution of the streams of the Commonwealth.

"To date, however, 98 of the affected communities have joined the Authority, and it is expected that the others will, from a standpoint of efficiency and economy, come in when the $80 million program really gets under way.

"As the Authority itself was the intelligent answer to the State's enjoiner to clean up the county's streams, so the pay-as-you-go principle is the sensible way for the Authority to do its job. If revenue is provided before the projects are completed, a good part of interest charges on bonds to be amortized over a 40-year period can be saved.

"That's all there is to the Authority's financing plan. And anyone who opposes it would saddle district taxpayers with an unnecessary burden."

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. HALL asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Highways to meet during the session of the House.

Trout.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Mr. YESTER offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 11, 1947.

The fame of greatness sometimes travels slowly and it is only when we review the life of an individual that we discover we have had a great and distinguished person in our midst;

Such a discovery is to be made when we review the life history of Helen Richey, the "First Lady of the Air" of Western Pennsylvania, who was born November 21, 1909, in McKeesport, the daughter of James B. Richey and Amy Winter, and who died in New York on January 7, 1947.

In the thirty-seven years of her life, she spent all the years other than those spent in school (having graduated from McKeesport High School in 1928 and one term at Carnegie Tech), in the field of aviation as a flyer.

She began flying shortly after leaving Carnegie Tech and after six hours training, she made her first solo hop in April, 1930. Thus she became Allegheny County's first girl to win a pilot's license. She soon owned her own plane and after a few months became the first woman to hold a limited commercial pilot's license, authorizing her to carry passengers.

Between 1931 and 1933 she won first place in an air acrobatic contest at Baltimore. Then she captured trophies at meets in Lynchburg, Virginia, and Niagara Falls, New York. On December 30, 1933, she combined with the late Mrs. Frances Harrell Marsalis of New York City, to establish the women's endurance record of 237 hours and 42 minutes. Later the two women established another endurance record at Miami, Florida, by remaining in the air more than eight days.

Mrs. Marsalis was killed in a crash during an air race at Vandalia, Ohio, Miss Richey finished second in the same race.

During this interim Miss Richey had been awarded a transport pilot's license. She became the world's first woman air mail pilot and in 1934 became the first of her sex to be a co-pilot on a regular air transport route. She flew the mail for Pennsylvania Central Airlines between Washington, D. C. and Detroit from December 1934 to October 1935.

She later set an international women's speed record for light planes early in 1936 covering 100 kilometers in 55 minutes. During the same year she participated in the Bendix Trophy Race from Los Angeles to Cleveland as co-pilot for Amelia Earhart. During the same year she established a women's world altitude record for light craft by reaching 18,000 feet.

According to an article appearing in the Daily News of McKeesport, dated January 8, 1947, she was the first woman in the United States to receive an aviation inspector's license from the Civil Aeronautics Commission and "the first American flier to place her skill on the side of the Allies in World War II with her enrollment in Great Britain's Women Air Transport Auxiliary and the first woman from the United States to be entrusted with the piloting of a British Hurricane fighter plane."

She later became a pilot with the United States on joining the Women's Air Service Pilots, commonly known as the WASPs and remained with that organization until its dissolution; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania hereby wishes to proudly record this brief history of one of its most outstanding citizens as a pioneer in the field of aviation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House send a copy of this resolution to her father, James B. Richey, McKeesport, Pa.

SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 80, Printer's No. 273, on page 25 of today's callendar, bills on third reading, be made a special order of business immediately.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER)

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 80, as follows:

An Act declaring and adopting the song "Pennsylvania" by a Pennsylvanian Gertrude Martin Rohrer as the State song of the Commonwealth

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The song "Pennsylvania" the melody and words thereof copyrighted in one thousand nine hundred thirty-one by a Pennsylvanian Gertrude Martin Rohrer the composer of the music and words is hereby adopted as the State song of Pennsylvania and shall be the official song for all public purposes

The words of said song are as follows

Verse I

Pennsylvania my native state to you we pledge our devotion

Pennsylvania our loyalty is boundless as the ocean

Verse II

Pennsylvania we thrill with pride to be your loyal descendants

Pennsylvania all hail to you the foundation of independence

Refrain

Pennsylvania Pennsylvania strong and true

Pennsylvania Pennsylvania hear our song to you

There is beauty in your mountains

There is peace upon your hills

And where-e'er I roam my only home is Pennsylvania

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair will fulfill its agreement of the other day to have this song played for the Members of the House before final action is taken. By arrangements with the people interested in this bill we have a band, representing one of the high schools of Harrisburg, who are here to play the song "Pennsylvania." The Chair hears no objection.

The Chair recognizes the leader of the band, and if he is prepared he will now take over.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Speaker, we have arranged to pass out to the Members copies of this song, which I would like to have the page boys distribute to the Members of the House.

The SPEAKER. The pages will distribute to the Members of the House mimeographed copies of the song.

Mr. WATKINS. We have on the calendar on third reading this afternoon, Senate Bill 80, "An Act declaring and adopting an official State song," namely "Pennsylvania." In connection with this particular bill I might say that this song was composed by Gertrude Martin Rohrer, a Pennsylvania musician, appreciative of Pennsylvania's heritage and beauty. Mrs. Rohrer is a native of Wilkesburg, a qualified and distinguished composer of songs for the people. She was delegated to write this song of the Pennsylvania Federation of Music Clubs. Fifteen picked players of the John Harris High School Band of Harrisburg, under the direction of Mr. Goodall, and student director, Wayne English Jr., will give the Members of the House for their approval a rendition of this song.

Mrs. James W. Minick of Camp Hill, who is Legislative Chairmen of the Pennsylvania Federation of Music Clubs, and an accomplished singer, has kindly consented to sing the song for the House.

(Mrs. James W. Minick sang "Pennsylvania" accompanied by the band.)

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the band and the singer, Mrs. Minick for their presentation of "Pennsylvania."

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, we have unfortunately a program of legislation where we have a bill before us, and we have to make up our opinion from the words on it that appear on the page, without being able to be certain that we are taking the right step.

In this particular connection we go a little bit farther. We have here a tune which I have never heard until three or four minutes ago. I want to compliment the band and wish also to compliment Mrs. Minick for her presentation, but I do not like, as I said before, to feel as a Legislator that I could thereby be stampeded into doing something in a hurry when it is not necessary.

I say that a song, Mr. Speaker, is something that should establish itself over a period of years before we adopt it as an anthem of our great Commonwealth. The Star Spangled Banner, I believe was sung for about one hundred years before it was adopted by our Congress as our national anthem. The Marseillaise of France was sung for over a century before it was adopted as the national anthem of France. God Save the King was sung for year and years in England before it became the national anthem by fiat.

I do not say that I dislike the song, I am not speaking against the song. My only objection to it is that every time the word "Pennsylvania" occurs in the refrain, it is an exact duplication of the refrain of "Wisconsin."

Mr. Speaker, we do not have to act in a hurry. Let this song establish itself and let it be adopted later on when it has become so popular all over the state that my children when they come home from school will hum the song, and when my wife is doing her household duties she will also be humming the song. When it is on the lips of all Pennsylvanians, then it is time enough to adopt it as our Commonwealth anthem.

I do not believe, Mr. Speaker, despite the beautiful rendition, that this Legislature should be stampeded into voting for something when it is strictly not necessary. Let the song be approved over fifty, sixty or one hundred years if it takes that long to do so. If the song is so good that it establishes itself all over the state in two years, then let it do it. As I understand, this song has been written for about fifteen years, although I have never heard the song before. I think there is no sense in our at this time adopting a song on behalf of those who are interested in adopting it as the Commonwealth anthem. Not that I am against the song, Mr. Speaker, but because it is an unnecessary gesture at this time. I honestly solicit all Members to think carefully before we place on our statute books and our State Manual and all our State circulars and State advertising this song merely because we have heard it once. Let the time prove the song.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I am glad of something. If I had not opposed this song we would never even have heard the music. We would never have had any copies of the music placed on our desks and we wouldn't know anything about the song. Therefore I believe Mr. Speaker, I have accomplished something.

It has been said that music hath charms to soothe the savage breast, but I hope that the charms of the singer and the rendition of the song by the band have not had the effect of charming the Members of the House into making this the official song of Pennsylvania.

Yesterday I introduced a resolution which would delay the adoption of this song for one or two years. In the meantime if those people who are sponsoring this song will go out on the highways and byways of Pennsylvania and sell the idea to the people to the extent that my colleague has just said, so that the people would be humming the song and singing the song, I would have no objection to it. I think we are making a great mistake if we are pressured or even charmed into adopting an official song, one that very few people have heard, and one that until recently but a small percentage of the members of the House were acquainted with.

Mr. Speaker, I am not opposing this song as a song, but I am opposing it because I do not think it has become sufficiently popular, sufficiently well known and recognized in the State of Pennsylvania to be adopted as an official song. We have had in the past seven years various songs brought into the House. We had a very good song at one time called "Rolling Hills of Pennsylvania." It rolled out of the House into the Senate, and the Senate turned that song down, if I recall aright.

This resolution that I have introduced would give the Joint State Government Commission the power to investigate the various songs of Pennsylvania, and if they saw fit, to conduct a newspaper song writing contest, to secure songs from all over Pennsylvania and then to have a committee of judges' of high literary ability, high musical ability pass upon the songs. The song by Mrs. Rohrer, of course, should be included in that list, and if it is the song that comes out on top, I assure you I will support it wholeheartedly, but I think we are making a serious mistake if we adopt an official song when we have heard it once in the hall of this House.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I assure you that I had no intention of standing before you when this measure came up for consideration. However, I think in view of the fact that two members of this body felt that they had sufficient reason for postponing consideration on Senate Bill 80, that I should add what I can in support of the measure, not against it.

The gentleman from Cambria suggests that a song to be worthy of adoption by this State must be one which his children will come home singing. May I assure this body, of which I am proud to be a Member, that some three weeks ago I got a telegram from a person that I consider to be the finest lobbyist in the state of Pennsylvania. The telegram was addressed to me and stated, "Kindly support Senate Bill 80 which establishes a new State Song," and it was signed "Mother." I for one will be one son who perhaps next week will go home and sing this new State song.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from that particular borough, I have forgotten which, instead of singing the song to his Mother, will sing the song to the House, I will vote for the bill.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to concur with what the gentleman from Cambria said, that if the gentleman from Montgomery will sing this song before the final vote, I will vote for the song; otherwise I will not.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I arose on this floor to support a bill that I sincerely and really believe in. I do not want my physical shortcomings to operate against the measure, and as the song is so beautiful, I don't think that any one who has qualifications such as I have, vocally inefficient, should be allowed to try to portray this song to this august body.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, may I suggest that we vote for this bill today, and if two years hence the children of Mr. Rose, the gentleman from Cambria, are not then humming the song, that we come back and repeal it.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, in connection with what Mr. Rose has said, insisting that a song in order to be a state song must establish itself over a period of years before we adopt it, I might suggest, Mr. Speaker, that we sing "Roll Out the Barrel."

Mr. McCULLOUGH. Mr. Speaker, possibly some of my brothers and sisters may have the last word in this connection, but I have been supervisor in public schools for thirty-five years. I feel at home meeting that band, but, gentleman, I do not see why we have to go to Wisconsin to get music or words.

There is a gentleman, a Pennsylvania Dutchman by the name of Yoder, if he would come here and lead the singing of his song "Pennsylvania," and give his song the same show that we gave this other song, I am sure we would be carried away with it, because he is a teacher. He has been going up and down this whole state of Pennsylvania before Teachers' Institutes, before clubs, and he always sings that song. If it does not warm the cockles in your heart, I will eat my shirt. It is plenty good, I think you would agree if Professor Yoder would get an opportunity to sing his song against this song. Again I repeat I don't know why we should go to Wisconsin to get the music and the beautiful words for the song "Pennsylvania."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader, the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, before I interrogate the gentleman I would like it to be known that I am not trying to do anything that is against the veterans, because I have two boys that are veterans themselves, and I am very much in favor of veterans' legislation, but there are just a couple of questions that are not clear in my mind on this particular bill.

On page 3, under this section, if a man returns from the armed service and has never been in the public employ before,—suppose we take the State Liquor Store for an example, and he starts to work there after he comes back, and he has had five years of service in the armed service. Another man has been in the store for six months or a year before he went into the service, and came back with two years of service. Would the man who came back on the job after he came back with five years of service supersede the man with two years of service in seniority?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that that is not the intention of the bill.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, that is the thing I wanted to get clear in my mind. I thank the gentleman.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will return to page 4 of today's calendar. The Chair hears none.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1150, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board to issue special temporary permits for the retail sale of malt or brewed beverages at baseball parks under certain circumstances

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. NEFF. Mr. Speaker, for years we have had in our ball parks peanuts and pop corn and pop bottles. They haven't had beer bottles, and because we believe that the people of this Commonwealth do not like to have beer bottles thrown around in the ball parks, I move that we recommit House Bill 1150 to the Committee on Liquor Control for further consideration.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, I object to this motion to recommit. In all of the other ball parks, either the National, American League, outside of Shibe Park in Philadelphia and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, they sell beer. They do not sell it in bottles; they sell it in paper containers. I believe if Mr. Neff would go to any one of these other ball parks he would see it himself.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to concur with Mr. Neff in the fact that beer or and alcoholic beverage does not go along with American sport. I myself have played football, baseball, basketball and hockey. I have played on Sundays and I will continue to play on Sundays if I so desire, and all other days, but I absolutely cannot see having beer in the ball parks in Pennsylvania. What other states do in that matter is their own business, but beer absolutely does not go along with the American form of sport of baseball as played in the ball parks, and I ask the Members of the House to vote to recommit this bill.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. LAYER.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAYER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, did the gentleman from Delaware ever play baseball in the big leagues?

Mr. LAYER. No, Mr. Speaker. I never got that high in the profession. I have attended and still do attend many games in the big league ball parks.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman ever been to a ball park outside of the State of Pennsylvania where they sell beer?

Mr. LAYER. No, I have not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman ever been to a ball park outside of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Mr. LAYER. Yes I have, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. VERONA. Mr. Speaker, has the gentleman ever seen them selling beer there?

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, only root beer.

Mr. VERONA. Ah, now, root beer! That is all.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state that this bill is in no sense a party measure.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Verona and Mr. Schuster and were as follows:

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I understand the gentleman is fully aware of the litigation in Allegheny County now concerning an article of agreement which was executed about sixteen years ago and which now is being litigated in the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County?

Mr. COOPER. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman tell me whether or not that agreement was an agreement which needed the authorization of the Court of Common Pleas?

Mr. COOPER. In answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, I could say that if an order of court under the Act of 1887 is required for validating or for buyers to transfer property by deed, it is also required in connection with agreements.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I further ask the gentleman whether or not in his own opinion if this Act is passed as it now is drawn, he would say that the only question that can be raised in this litigation now pending in Allegheny County is the question of laches?

Mr. COOPER. I would not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me what other defense could be raised if this bill is passed other than the question of laches.

Mr. COOPER. Mr. Speaker, I cannot answer that question, because I am not that familiar with the case.

Mr. BROWN. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, this bill, House Bill 1286, Printer's No. 892, presents one of the most serious matters that we have had confronting us in our constitutional form of government. The question here is whether or not the legislative branch of government shall utilize its plenary powers by encroaching upon the powers of the judiciary. I believe it is axiomatic and one of the fundamental principles of our constitutional government, that the legislative powers should not transgress upon the powers of the judiciary. If we deviate from that policy we are tearing down fundamental constitutional principles. While I agree with the gentleman and am in sympathy with his desire to validate this agreement, I believe in connection with this matter now before the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, that this Legislature should not encroach upon the powers of the judiciary. On that ground I think that this bill should be defeated.

Mr. COOPER. Mr. Speaker, in validating agreements without the necessity of procuring an order of court, this bill does not nullify the agreement which is in litigation. It merely says that the order of court is not necessary. I believe it is good legislation and absolutely constitutional, and I ask the members of the House to support the bill.

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, in order to clarify the record and also to answer the constitutional question injected by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, I want to point out to the Members of the House that there is really no constitutional question involved here. This is purely a validating act. Under the Act of 1887 the Poor Districts could sell real estate and could enter into agreements for the sale of real estate. Down in Allegheny county they did so, with the result that in one section of the city of Pittsburgh we had 60 some homes built on land, title to which came through the Poor Board. It has now developed under the Act of 1887 that the Poor Board should have gotten court approval. As a matter of fact our county of Allegheny procured title in the real estate transaction some years ago without getting this court approval, so consequently the legislation covered by this bill is merely designed to take care of that formal objection and defect, namely court approval after the agreement of sale was entered into in good faith, and consideration passed by the Poor Board.

So far as this legislation is concerned in Pittsburgh at the present time the result of the passage of this bill will have no effect whatever insofar as robbing the courts of this powers to try a case for breach of contract, and whether or not there has been substantial performance or whether or not there has been laches is a matter that will be determined by the courts, regardless of what this legislation does. This bill merely validates an act which was entered into, or any deed that was entered into by the Poor District, and in no way involves a constitutional problem. I urge the Members of the House to support the bill.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Allegheny misunderstood me. I am not attacking this question on any constitutional grounds. I know that the gentleman is schooled in law enough to know that when the Legislature utilizes plenary powers and moves to encroach upon the judiciary or the executive, it has a perfect right to do so. Therefore, I want him to understand that I am not attacking the question of a lack of power in this General Assembly to pass this legislation. I am only attacking the question of policy, as to whether or not our plenary power should be used, so far as it encroaches upon the powers of the judiciary.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman says that there are other questions that could be raised. I should like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haller, if after this bill becomes law, whether there would be any question before the court other than the question of laches.

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question interjected by my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, I would say that any question which might arise before the court in any suit for the performance or non-performance of a contract would arise, whatever that may be, under the rules or laws. The gentleman knows that there are hundreds of clauses that can come up in connection with a contract, but so far as looking into the future is concerned, and guessing what that may be, the only thing I can say is that any number of questions can be raised before the court. The only question to be determined in this bill is whether we have a valid contract and whether or not a very simple formal defect could not be cured by this legislation.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I agree with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haller, that there is no infringement upon the powers of the courts by passing this legislation. I simply would like to call to the attention of the House the fact that we have on a number of occasions passed validating acts where matters were in litigation before the courts. The question before the court was determined, and the matter in issue was determined in accordance with the law. We make the law, and that is no infringement upon the powers of the court.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. RAGOT. Mr. Speaker, I request that the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, on House Bill 1001 and 1076, insofar as the Senate amendments are concerned, we take a purely parliamentary position. We were opposed to these bills in the beginning. They were bad bills when they went to the Senate. They may have been slightly improved in the Senate but they are still bad bills. The only way that these bills could fall would be to refuse to concur with the Senate and have the bills fall in Conference Committee, and because our opposition to these bills is continuous we are inclined to nonconcur and will be satisfied with a party vote.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, in the present moment in which we find ourselves, we are voting very hurriedly on bills. On this bill now before the House I feel that it is my duty to call the attention of the Members of the House to the fact that while this bill says it is placing the expense for the enforcement and administration of this act upon insurance carriers writing policies of automobile insurance in this Commonwealth, that is not so, and that actually when the Members of the House vote for this bill, they are voting for the placing of an increased tax upon the persons of Pennsylvania who have in the past and are at present protecting their property by carrying policies of insurance on their automobile. This bill that we now have before us says that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania can levy assessments upon insurance carriers. We know, of course, that the insurance carriers are to pay for the cost of the enforcement of the responsibility act, and necessarily increased charges will naturally result to the people of Pennsylvania who are carrying automobile insurance, and that therefore, inasmuch as the financial responsibility act was placed in effect two years ago by this Legislature for the benefit of all the people of Pennsylvania, it is in my humble opinion a matter of cost that should be borne by all the people of Pennsylvania instead of those people who do now carry insurance or who will have to buy insurance on their automobiles. I desire to call this matter to the attention of the House. I realize, or have been informed, that the financial responsibility law was to go into effect July 1, 1947 by a Senate bill now on our calendar. The effective date, however, has been postponed until 1948, February 1st, and in that case the necessary funds for the enforcement of this act must be found somewhere in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. But I say to you, that I believe the cost of this enforcement should be placed elsewhere than on the people of Pennsylvania who are now carrying automobile insurance or who will carry automobile insurance, because that is where the cost of enforcement will ultimately fall.

Mr. KURTZ. Mr. Speaker, may I request that only those answering to their names be recorded by the Clerk?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I just want to be sure that I understood the issue in this bill. As I understand from the gentleman from Somerset, the question at issue is whether the cost of the enforcement should be paid out of general taxation or whether the cost of enforcement should rest upon those who carry the insurance. That is the issue involved in this bill, is it not?

Mr. WAGNER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the ayes and nays were taken and were as follows:

Ragot,

Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1200, as follows:

An Act to provide for the establishment of a State frequency-modulation radio network to be licensed by the Federal Communications Commission for non-commercial educational service exclusively authorizing the survey of broadcasting sites and the purchase of necessary sites and equipment providing for the construction of a master station and subsidiary stations as needed for state-wide coverage creating within the Department of Public Instruction a Division of Radio and Audio-Visual Education establishing within such division a lending library of recordings scripts films and slides conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Superintendent and Department of Public Instruction and appropriating funds for such developments

Whereas Education by radio has been successfully carried on through AM channels by thirty colleges universities and other institutions for many years but has been retarded in development because of the lack of an adequate number of channels and

Whereas Recent development of frequency modulation (FM) broadcasting has eliminated all static interference of reception in the higher frequency brackets and

Whereas The Federal Communications Commissions has set aside twenty FM channels for the exclusive use of educational institutions from which commercial advertising is barred and

Whereas The Federal Communications Commission now requires in the interest of a proper coordination of FM educational broadcasting that the issuance of such licenses in each state shall be subject to the approval of its State Education Department and

Whereas Twenty-one states are now definitely setting up such state-wide educational networks and

Whereas Six great educational centers Chicago Cleveland Lexington (Ky) New York San Francisco and Urbana (Ill) are already making extensive use of FM broadcasting in their local school systems and

Whereas The educational experience of the Armed Forces has shown conclusively the inestimable instructional value of both auditory and visual aids in teaching and

Whereas A proper coordination of the development of FM educational broadcasting within this Commonwealth requires that as a first step licenses be secured by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pre-empting the wave-lengths necessary for a State FM educational network planned for state-wide coverage of all urban and rural public schools and

Whereas By federal regulation FM educational broadcasting licenses allocating definite wave lengths cannot be secured until proper evidence has been submitted showing the actual appropriation of funds necessary to construct the FM educational broadcasting station or network contemplated

Section 1 For the purpose of establishing a coordinated state-wide system of radio education broadcasting by the Commonwealth the Superintendent of Public Instruction is hereby authorized and directed to make application to the Federal Communications Commission for a "New Non-Commercial Construction Permit" authorizing the Commonwealth to establish such an educational broadcasting system The Superintendent is further authorized and directed to retain or employ a radio engineer consulting firm for the purpose of making a survey of the technical requirements necessary to the establishment of such a state-wide coordinated system including the determination of the technical requirements for a state master station the number of booster or subsidiary stations necessary to achieve state-wide coverage and the requirements necessary to the establishment of other educational broadcasting stations that will not interfere with one another or the proposed state network

Section 2 For the purpose of directing and coordinating the development the state-wide educational radio system herein authorized and for the purpose of operating the same when so established there is hereby established within the Department of Public Instruction a Division of Radio and Audio-Visual Education Such division shall in addition to its foregoing duties

(a) Assist local school districts or county school organizations in establishing in-service training programs for principals and teachers so as to promote the most efficient system of education possible through the use of radio programs and other auditory aids to instruction of pupils

(d) Provide to the several schools districts of the Commonwealth and other educational institutions and organizations information and bulletins pertinent to the development and utilization of education by radio and audio-visual aids in the field of education

Section 3 Upon obtaining the necessary licenses and permits from the Federal Communications Commission the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall cause to be prepared and submitted to the Governor such plans estimates and other information as may be essential to the construction of the state-wide system hereby authorized to be established and upon approval by the Governor shall undertake to establish such system

Section 4 The Department of Public Instruction is hereby authorized to acquire by lease purchase or condemnation such land and buildings and to cause to be erected such buildings structures and facilities as may be necessary for the establishment of a state master station and such additional booster or subsidiary stations as may be necessary for adequate state-wide coverage

Section 5 The sum of seven hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($775,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction to effectuate the purposes of this act Of such sum twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be used for the purpose of employing or retaining a reputable or retaining radio engineering firm to make the necessary surveys and plans necessary to establish such a statewide educational radio system and the balance of the appropriation or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be used for the construction of such system including the cost of purchasing land the construction improvement or alteration of buildings and the purchase and erection of such equipment and facilities as, may be necessary and all other expenses incidental thereto

Section 6 The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction for the establishment and maintenance for the fiscal biennium beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven of the Division of Radio and Audio-Visual Education within such department

Mr. DAVID P. REESE asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Workmen's Compensation to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. FLEMING asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Cities and County—Second Class to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. LEE asked and obtained permission for the Committee on City and County—First Class to meet during the session of the House.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHERVENAK asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, a few days ago this House adopted a resolution congratulating Mrs. Chervenak and myself and my son, Larry. In the few remarks I made I took the liberty of saying a few words about my other children. In those remarks I mentioned my daughter, Marcella, who is now in the University of Hawaii as a research chemist. Last month my daughter Marcella attended the closing day of the session of the Legislature in Honolulu. I might say that it is evident from the information that I have received that the Legislature of Hawaii closes its session with a fan-fare on adjournment, by having hula-dances, in which some of the Legislators participate. I had written to my daughter that we were about to adjourn the Legislature and on Monday she decided she would like to favor her Daddy with some flowers. She mailed out of Honolulu a package which just arrived at the post office a few minutes ago which contains these beautiful flowers, namely Birds of Paradise. In this package she enclosed this note: "Dear Dad, I am hoping the Legislature postpones adjournment until these flowers have arrived, we call them "Birds of Paradise." I know that she would be glad to be here and see her father and mother again, and I also know she would like that I would present these flowers to the Speaker, so at this time it gives me the greatest pleasure to send to the Speaker's desk these flowers sent from Honolulu and which arrived in Harrisburg a few minutes ago.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to thank the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Chervenak for these beautiful flowers which have been sent by his daughter from Hawaii. The Chair is more than honored to receive these flowers from the gentleman from Cambria.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. MINTESS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, one of America's outstanding writers, Herbert Agar, said:

"If promises are broken too often, civilization dies, no matter how rich it may be or how mechanically clever. Hope and faith depend on promises; if hope and faith go, everything goes."

"Men of little minds and narrow intellect are so wrapped up by their own conceit that it is impossible for them to grasp the eternal truths wrapped up in the above quotation. They think only of today, concerned only with the present and the immediate future.

"America became the greatest country in the world because there have been men who were controlled by high principles, rather than by expediency."

Pennsylvania has the good fortune of having a man for its Governor who believes that promises made as the result of high principles, should be kept, even political promises. Governor James H. Duff realizes that "if promises are broken too often, no matter how rich it may be or how mechanically clever, civilization dies." He understands that hope and faith depend on promises; if hope and faith go, everything goes.

The Republican Party made a set of promises during the last election. The fact that the hope and faith of hundreds of thousands of our fellow citizens have been dashed to earth means absolutely nothing to these men who have obtained high political office through the power and influence of a great political party. They pay lip service to the party, but when the demands of that party require them to give up their pet prejudices, so that the party can keep its promises and maintain its self respect, they refuse to do so.

It is shown that no appeal changed the attitude of some members of the House on FEPC legislation. Perhaps the hope and faith of thousands of citizens will be destroyed because of their narrow minds.

If these things continue to exist, they will be largely responsible because they heeded the advice of stupid politicians rather than the appeal of Pennsylvania's great Governor.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. UPSHUR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, on yesterday we saw a spectacle that should make us hide our faces in shame. We saw constitutional government in the hands of a few selfish people made a mockery when the Committee on Labor of this House convened at the call of its Chairman and without discussing the merits or de-merits of FEPC bills, voted against FEPC bills being reported to the floor of the House.

As a Member of the Majority Party, I tried from the very beginning of the Session to see that our party platform, the pledge we made to the people, would be enacted into law. FEPC was a part of that pledge and House Bill 1093 was introduced as a part of the program of the Majority. This legislation has the support of thousands of people in all walks of life in our Commonwealth, people representing all races and all creeds. It had the solid support of our Governor. However, the hidden powers have from the beginning worked hand in hand with the selfish, reactionary forces led by the Chairman of the Committee in order to kill this legislation. They have been successful and the report now given to the people has been recorded. My people who have served the Republican Party cannot afford to overlook this assault upon their hopes.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude and appreciation to the Members of the Committee who voted for the bill and also to the Members and the Chairman of the Philadelphia delegation, and David W. Harris, Republican leader of the City and County of Philadelphia, and our great Governor, who so courageously used the power of his office at his command and tried to bring to the floor of this House House Bill 1093 for their approval.

I also wish to thank all the various organizations and especially the Council of Equal Job Opportunity, who have worked so diligently for the passage of this measure. I wish to thank all of the various newspapers of the State which have editorially supported the measure, and I finally wish to thank all the Members of the General Assembly who have helped in any manner in the cause of House Bill No. 1093, known as the FEPC bill.

Mr. Speaker, I would also like to speak as a leader of one of the largest wards in the city of Philadelphia, which is composed of from 28 to 30 thousand people. I also would like to say that I shall use my energies and power to work hand in hand and side by side with that great Governor of ours in order to help bring about his campaign pledges and high ideals and to carry out the platform that he submitted to the Republican party in the last election.

Mr. RAY L. RILEY IN THE CHAIR

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CLARENCE M. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, as a Minister of the Gospel—one of the functions of my office is to preside over services marking the final tribute of love and devotion to those who have passed on to their eternal reward and rest. The occasion is always sad, baby-Mother-Father-benefactor of people—none so sad as when a friend is mourned whose demise has been occasioned by the hand of false friends who gather about the funeral couch to shed crocodile tears and seek by such action to join with sincere friends and relatives in love's real expression of sorrow.

On the Penna. Legislative Directory, 1947-1948, P. 214, is a list of 30 honored gentlemen members of the Committee on Labor Relations. Eight of them shall go down in history as the unsung and unknown friends of social legislation. The protective arm of minority groups, 17 of them have yielded to the murderous powers of vested interests and have become active and honorary pallbearers at the funeral services of all FEPC legislation of which House Bill 1093 is but a lamented symbol. The obituary notice of this death appeared in yesterday's papers and today we pause to inter, for this session, this noble and ambitious legislative gesture. The five sponsors of this bill are joined by a great host of sincere sympathizers throughout the length and breadth of this great commonwealth foremost among whom are the State Committee on FEPC, the Council of Equal Job Opportunity, the NAACP, the Press and countless others. Social, fraternal, civic, political and religious groups all wear the band of mourning today as we bury FEPC, Pennsylvania's chief surgeon, the Honorable James H. Duff, Governor of the Commonwealth who has felt the pulse of our vast population and who has sensed that the eyes of the world were turned our way has stood by its death bed and battled with great skill and manly fortitude for its life—all in vain, as vested interests and secret posers that dared not to come into the open willed its sure death. We pause to pay tribute to his honesty, so seldom found among politicians; to express our thanks for his efforts; and to pledge our undying loyalty to men of his caliber, and by the same token, in the language of the Bible belt, we profess that we have been wounded in the house of our friends, seventeen of them, who even now profess their lack of understanding as to how and why FEPC died. May their deeds rise up to haunt their peaceful sleep and may their complacency send them to a similar political fate. Our post mortem reviews often reveal the cause of death hidden while life lasts; but the obvious means employed to kill FEPC,—the arbitrary action of the committee guided by the non-cooperative leadership of the chairman; the heinous powers of mercenary minded industrialists, the vitriolic services rendered by the Penna. Chamber of Commerce; the lip service rendered by demagogues of political expediency, are the chief and contributing causes of this unfortunate demise and so a post mortem is unnecessary. But Mr. Speaker and members of this House for sponsoring this legislation the five gentlemen from Phila.—Mr. Mintess, Thompson, Upshur, Henry, and Smith have been charged with seeking to effect class legislation and legislation designed to produce social equality whose most repulsive feature has been obliged to be the matter of inter-racial marriages. How this feature ever got into the argument is beyond me. The loyal Hebrew remembers his Biblical standard for marriage and the Negro has a veritable flower garden, for we are the only race possessing all colors, shades, and types, from which we may choose and if any of us wander into an inter racial marriage, it's because love is blind. Opposition to this legislation has centered about two minority groups in Pennsylvania, the Negro and the Jew. As a member of the first group mentioned I profess a pride in my membership. The product of the only race in America by invitation. Every other race came here by choice but they sent after my forebearers and brought them here where they have labored, without disloyalty to either friends or government, and have produced a Frederick Douglas, Apostle of freedom, a Booker T. Washington, Leader in Education, a George Washington Carver, Scientist without peer, a Joe Louis, Chief of Pugilism and worthy example of clean living, a Marion Anderson, Singer of this generation, a Jesse Owens, Fleet-footer mercury of the cinder path, a Homer S. Brown, constitutional authority and character of judicial stature, a Col. Benjamin O. Davis, military strategist who taught Negroes to drive anything from a mule in Georgia to a B29 over enemy territory in an Army that knew no discrimination as to work and death. Time fails me to increase this list of benefactors to our culture who are but a symbol of the gift of minorities to our great state and nation.

Mr. Speaker, I am loathe to close this eulogy for instead of opening the door of opportunity to all, it closes, bars, and bolts the door and gives sanction to prejudice, discrimination and arbitrary action. But as a minister, I believe in the doctrine of the Resurrection and so in closing, my friends of this Assembly, I remind you that "Truth crushed to earth shall rise again—the eternal years of God are hers."

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. COOK asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Counties to meet during the session of the House.

THE SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter) IN THE CHAIR.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. THOMPSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to add the names of Messrs. HENRY, MINTESS, UPSHUR and CLARENCE M. SMITH to a resolution he was about to present.

RESOLUTION

FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE COMMISSION BILL

Messrs. THOMPSON, HENRY, MINTESS, UPSHUR and CLARENCE M. SMITH offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent that it be read for the information of the House.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 11th, 1947.

Whereas, the Fair Employment Practice Commission Bill, House P. No. 1093 is still in the Committee on Labor Relations; and

Whereas, The Governor of Pennsylvania has insisted this bill be enacted into law, in accordance with a pledge made in the Pennsylvania Republican Party Platform of 1946; and

Whereas, The Committee on Labor Relations, has refused to report this bill out of committee for the consideration of the General Assembly, notwithstanding the insistence of the Governor that the committee do so and in disregard of the pledge in the Pennsylvania Republican Party Platform; and

Whereas, The Labor Relations Committee has had this bill in its possession for consideration since March 26, 1947, the said committee has not reported said bill for the consideration of the House of Representatives; and

Whereas, The newspapers of Pennsylvania, particularly the newspapers of Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh have carried editorials supporting the measure; and

Whereas, Many leading organizations and citizens have at public hearings and meetings supported said bill; and

Whereas, The State organization for Fair Employment Practice Commission and the various county and city organizations for Fair Employment Practice Commission have done everything in their power to urge the passage of this bill, nevertheless it remains within the Labor Relations Committee; and

Whereas, The sponsors of Fair Employment Practice Commission—House Bill No. 1093, have done everything within their power to advance this bill to the floor of the House of Representatives, they have not succeeded in their purpose; therefore the sponsors of said bill, namely Representatives Mintees, Uushur, Henry Clarence H. Smith and Thompson wish to take this opportunity to thank Governor Duff for his staunch support of this measure and to thank all the Republican leaders who insisted that a Fair Employment Practice Commission bill be incorporated in their platform and to thank all the various organizations which have worked so diligently for the passage of this measure and to thank the various newspapers of the State which have editorially supported the measure and finally to thank all the members of the General Assembly who have helped in any manner the cause of Fair Employment Practice Commission.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSOR

Mr. FLACK asked and obtained unanimous consent to add the name of Mr. WACHHAUS as an additional sponsor to House Bill No. 1353.

BILL ON THIRD READING

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will return to bills on third reading, House Bill No. 1114, on page 34 of today's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1114, as follows:

An Act to amend clause (e) of section three hundred two and section four hundred seventeen of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" further regulating the issuance of watcher's certificates and the compensation of watchers

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise with reluctance to oppose this bill because it is sponsored by one of my colleagues and also because of the lateness of the hour, when we are trying to finish today's session. This bill provides that the county commissioners shall at a primary election issue to every candidate two watcher's certificates for every precinct in the county, and in the general election shall issue three watcher's certificates.

The bill also provides that the county commissioners shall issue these certificates in blank, that the name of the watcher is not inserted by the county commissioners as is the practice at the present time, but that they shall be issued in blank. It seems to me that my colleague, while I can appreciate that he may have a desire to facilitate the elections, nevertheless I am certain that he has not looked ahead and seen the consequences that can happen in a measure of this kind. This bill, I am certain, would promote the buying of elections, that it would promote fraud in elections, because if the county commissioners, for instance, in a county such as ours, with pretty nearly five hundred precincts where they issue to each candidate two watchers certificates in blank for each precinct, it would mean that a candidate could walk in and get one thousand blanks, or watchers certificates without any name and if there were eight or ten candidates or more on the ticket you can see that there would be then eight or ten thousand watchers' certificates issued in blank to any political party or to any political group. That would mean that the county commissioners, who as the election board are charged with the responsibility of conducting elections, would be responsible for the watchers and yet they would have no knowledge as to whom these watchers certificates have been issued.

In the second place, if there were any difficulties at the polls, or if there were any disorders and frauds, it would be difficult to check up because it would be very simple for the person holding a watcher's certificate to destroy it and no one would ever know whether it was ever issued. I think we are all familiar enough with elections to know that watchers are paid at the polls, and what that would mean in an election, let us say where it would be possible to have maybe eight or ten thousand blank watchers' certificates issued and in the hands of any group, I am sure you can realize that the opportunity for fraud is extremely great. As I said before, I am certain that my colleague did not see the length to which this may go or I do not believe that he would have sponsored the bill. I ask the House to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, it does me honor to have a gentleman such as my colleague from Delaware, Mr. Turner, opposing me on this measure. The gentleman from Delaware made a very fine talk on this particular bill but I would like to tell the Members of the House that there are amendments prepared and to save a legislative day everything will be amended out of this bill with the exceptions of standardizing the watchers, the amount of money that is paid to the watchers.

Mr. Speaker, as the present law stands to-day, the watcher's fee is ten dollars in each city and five dollars in counties, and when the returns are made after the elections are over, there is a great deal of confusion. This bill will standardize the watcher's fee and make it ten dollars throughout the state, and I do ask you to support this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, when and where will the bill be amended?

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the Members of the House that an agreement has been made that the bill will be amended in the Senate.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have known the Senate these many years. If the gentleman from Delaware can name some names over there from whom he has definite commitments, and will outline his amendments and read them to the House, I will be very glad to commit the matter to the Senate, but without knowing from whom he has received assurances and without having the amendments he proposes to insert in the Senate and without having the amendments read to the House, it is a little difficult to agree with his bargain.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the Members of this House that the Honorable Senator Lord will amend this bill. I would also like to inform the gentleman from Cambria that if the bill is not amended I will ask that we do not concur when the bill does come back. This is a rather unusual thing. I said the bill will be amended to take out everything but the ten dollar fee, and Mr. Speaker, that is what I meant.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I do not feel that I want to get in any quarrel with anybody, but let's be fair about this thing. I cannot vote for a bill that has all this stuff in it with the expectation that anybody is going to take it out. I cannot vote for the bill in the first place. So unless we can tear a lot of leaves out of the bill before we vote upon it, I certainly cannot vote for this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I have no question in my own mind that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Layer, is perfectly sincere. I would have the utmost confidence in his integrity to carry out the program which he has stated. But the difficulty and the only thing in which my colleague was in error was that if by any chance the Senate failed to amend this bill and to pass it, he would have no chance to non-concur, because the bill would come back in exactly the form in which it now is.

Mr. Speaker, I would be willing and very glad to agree and ask the House to agree to give unanimous consent to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Layer, to introduce amendments and have them inserted in the bill at this time but I have some hesitancy, as much as I certainly would like to accommodate the gentleman from Delaware, I have some hesitancy in the late days of the session in sending the bill to the Senate with the undoubted agreement both between the gentleman from Delaware and the Senator from Philadelphia, Senator Lord, whom I know and whom I also respect and who I know would attempt to carry out any part of the agreement, but I would have some hesitancy in agreeing to pass this bill in that way to the Senate.

If the gentleman will ask for unanimous consent to introduce amendments, I would certainly ask this House to grant him unanimous consent, as I do not in any way desire to prevent the carrying out of the promise on the part of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. LAYER.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker, if the House will be kind enough to give me about three minutes time on those amendments, I will ask unanimous consent to have those amendments inserted.

BILL PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection. The bill is temporarily passed over.

RESOLUTION No. 59

Mr. DAVISON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Resolution No. 59 on page 36 of today's calendar.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 3, 1947.

Whereas The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania since the birth of the Nation has been a leader among the industrial states of the United States and

Whereas Because of its wealth of natural resources its force of skilled and able workmen its heavy population its access to the commercial markets through its location with access to the Atlantic Ocean the Great Lakes the Mississippi Valley and nation wide rail transportation facilities and the basic industries located within its borders it offers to industry in general fundamental and important advantages which few if any other states can duplicate and

Whereas In order to maintain this position as an industrial leader it is incumbent that a study and investigation be made of the causes behind the decreasing number of new industries being established in the Commonwealth and the reasons for the failure of established industries to expand and modernize their plants in this State while they carry on such programs in their plants in other states and

Whereas although there have been many conflicting reasons advanced for this problem no comprehensive study of causes therefor has been made nor has any legislative program or other plan been presented to combat this trend therefore be it

Resolved That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby requested to make a comprehensive and thorough study and investigation into the cause and reasons for this movement of industry from the Commonwealth and the decrease in the number of new industries being established in the Commonwealth and to evolve from such study and investigation recommendations of a legislative program designed to attract the retention expansion and growth of industry already located in the Commonwealth and the establishment of new industries therein which recommendation shall be presented to the General Assembly at its next regular session

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, is this resolution No. 59?

The SPEAKER. That is right.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the resolution, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Davison?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVISON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman have any knowledge of the number of factories that are moving out of the state of Pennsylvania or the number that are refusing to come into the state of Pennsylvania for some unknown reason?

Mr. DAVISON. Mr. Speaker, we have a case in western Pennsylvania today where the United States Steel is moving a factory out of Ellwood City, and we cannot have many Ellwood Cities in western Pennsylvania without seriously affecting our economy.

Mr. LOVETT. Does the gentleman have any knowledge why they are moving out?

Mr. DAVISON. Mr. Speaker, the mill, as I understand, is an old mill and they do not want to rebuild it. It is an antiquated mill.

Mr. LOVETT. The gentleman knows of no other cases in Pennsylvania, is that right?

Mr. DAVISON. Mr. Speaker, there are a good many cases similar to that. We are losing a lot of new construction in mills. I could give you the Copperweld in Glassport. It is a new plant, The United States Steel Corporation is building a new plant in New Jersey. We could just as well have it built in Pennsylvania where we have better port facilities in Philadelphia than they have in New Jersey.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman have any figures from the Department of Commerce in Pennsylvania in regard to the number of factories that for some unknown reason are not building in Pennsylvania or are leaving Pennsylvania?

Mr. DAVISON. Mr. Speaker, my belief is that the gentleman from Westmoreland will find that the purpose of this resolution is to make a complete investigation of that situation.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, at this particular time the gentleman has no knowledge or no figures to substantiate the resolution, is that right?

Mr. DAVISON. Mr. Speaker, I believe the entire purpose of my resolution is to make that investigation. We know in Western Pennsylvania that the steel mills are not being modernized. We are not getting new ones. They are moving to the midwest.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not know that the Department of Commerce is very much interested, and that they are continuously making such investigations?

Mr. DAVISON. That is right, but we haven't had a program on the floor and perhaps we have neglected certain things that these companies object to.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I do not entirely oppose the idea back of this, but I do oppose and have always opposed the idea that due to our tax structure and our labor laws our factories leave Pennsylvania or do not build their plants in Pennsylvania for that reason. I know and you know that any manufacturer who has any large plant in the state of Pennsylvania, who may find that one of our neighboring states has a lower rate of taxation on industry that that manufacturer would be very foolish to move his factory out of the state of Pennsylvania, when the Legislature in that particular state that he moves into, at the next session of the Legislature may change the picture entirely and he might want to move back into Pennsylvania.

The wording of this resolution, "an investigation as to the causes and reasons for the moving of industry from the Commonwealth" to me is not very good. I say that in most cases this idea that our factories are going to move out of the State of Pennsylvania or are not building factories in the State of Pennsylvania is brought about by the corporations themselves. They think that if they can get the Members of the Legislature interested in studies and so on and so forth, they will relieve some of the taxation in Pennsylvania.

I do not think that Pennsylvania over taxes its industries. I have listened to that story under the Democratic administration that the factories were moving out of the state of Pennsylvania. Now I am listening to the same story under a Republican administration. I say to you that the corporations in the state of Pennsylvania owe something to the people of Pennsylvania who make such corporations great, and if we assess taxes in the state of Pennsylvania for the betterment of our aged, for our infirm, which in many cases come out of these factories, I say that those factories should be ashamed to even state that they are moving out of the state of Pennsylvania for those reasons. I only want to make that statement to the Members of the House because I feel it is unfair to even allow the sentiment to creep in that we are being unfair in the state of Pennsylvania in regard to taxation.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that anything in this resolution even hints that we are over taxing our industries in Pennsylvania. However, an investigation will bring to light whether or not we are. There are many and various reasons why our industries might be leaving, and it would take a comprehensive investigation to find out just what the causes are. I therefore ask this House to support this resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RESOLUTION No. 62

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Resolution No. 62 on page 36 of today's calendar.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, June 5, 1947

Whereas The several counties of the Commonwealth in recognition of the service and devotion of the men and women of the county who served the Nation in the armed forces during the first and second World Wars propose to establish permanent records and mementos to them and Thou who art wonderful, counselor, the mighty God, he everlasting Father, Prince of Peace! We bow head and heart before Thy Holy Presence in deep and abiding humility. We are fully aware of the tremendous responsibility which has been resting upon the shoulders of Thy servants, here in this Legislative Chamber these past months. Be pleased to bless, to the good of the citizenry of our state, the just decisions rendered, from time to time, and forgive us if we have come short, at times, of the highest and best of which we were capable. Grant, O Lord, that peace and harmony may prevail throughout our state and nation. Be pleased to make us partakers of the sacrament of unity and light, sharing the mystic secret of the very soul of things moral and spiritual. In the closing days of this Legislative Session, steady us with the assurance that our labor has not been in vain; and that we have been good stewards of Thy time, and faithful servants of the Commonwealth. The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. JASPAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, it is indeed regrettable that Senate Bill 792, introduced by Senator Heyburn and myself, was today doomed to extinction by the House Committee on Judiciary General. The House committee, by so acting, gave the green light to unscrupulous and gyp automobile dealers to further ply their nefarious trade.

As I said on the floor of the Senate a few weeks ago the pressure by the lobbyists, both on behalf of the manufacturers and the dealers, was terrific, and apparently they successfully accomplished their purpose.

May I now state for the record that yesterday I was informed by a stranger interested in this bill that he had word from the chairman of the House Judiciary Committee that the bill had little chance of coming out of committee, and obviously this gentleman knew whereof he spoke. Such is the way of legislation and sometimes of legislators—the public-be-damned attitude seems to be the popular slogan today. Here is a bill which was prepared, approved and encouraged by our own Attorney General Chidsey, and yet he is defied and ignored by certain members of the House.

I, however, thank the newspapers throughout the state for their courage and honesty in exposing the machinations and black-jacking of the public by unscrupulous car dealers.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR HEYBURN

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, we have arrived at that period of the legislative session when there are always motions to discharge committees and also, under the heading of pleasant duties to be performed, is that of expression of appreciation to certain people who have made our stay in Harrisburg and our legislative duties a little easier, a little more pleasant, and the results which we have accomplished on a little higher plane.

At the beginning of the 1947 session we had the opportunity of having as our President pro tempore of the Senate one of the finest public representatives who ever sat in this distinguished body.

Mr. President, during the time that our present distinguished President pro tempore was physically indisposed and could not be with us, the very distinguished gentleman from Delaware, Senator Heyburn, acted as President pro tempore and did so with honor, with dignity and with efficiency. He has been a member of this body for a good many years; he has been President pro tempore of the Senate and he has been the Republican floor leader.

I do not know of any man in this Chamber who has friends on both sides of the aisle or whose ability and judgment wins higher respect, and I want to say to Senator Heyburn that especially his colleagues on the Republican side of the aisle deeply appreciate his patience, his kindness, his unstinting cooperation and his ability to do the right thing at the right time in order to make our jobs a little easier.

Weldon, your smile has helped us a whole lot during these trying six months. There is nothing we can do or say to express to you the deep gratitude we feel, but on behalf of your Republican colleagues I would like to give you this slight token of our very deep appreciation of your very fine efforts in our behalf, and in behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during this period of time and so, in behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and its citizenry, and especially on behalf of the Republican side of this Senate, I present to you this slight token of their deep appreciation.

Mr. HEYBURN. Senator Walker, colleagues and friends, this indeed comes as a complete surprise. The last two times I got presents from this body I sort of expected them. Today Senator Walker came around to see me and he said "Give me five bucks, we are going to give you a fellow a present." I don not know whether my five dollars is in this present or not.

I want you to know, Mr. President, that it is a very touching thing to have these gifts to take home. When you go home to the farm you can show them to the boys down there and really prove that there is some reason for you to come to the session and that you have accomplished something. As long as I have been in the Senate, every session I become more and more convinced that this is the finest body of legislators in the country—maybe this is not the time to say that, when we are trying to work out some agreement between the House and Senate—but nevertheless, Mr. President, I am sincere in that and I want you to know I appreciate this gift very much, this little token from the members of the Senate. Whether or not I have contributed myself, I do not know, but nevertheless it makes me awfully happy and I thank you all very much.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR TALLMAN, MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I feel very gratified in joining in this happy occasion this afternoon in complimenting our leaders here on the Republican side of the Senate.

When we met at the beginning of the session, Mr. President, we selected a floor leader and in selecting Senator Tallman we felt that we had a man who would carry us through this session and lead us on the floor and whose ability and industry would be a credit to our caucus. That confidence, Mr. President, and I know I speak for my colleagues, was certainly not misplaced.

Mr. President, in the past, it has been the custom, at least on some occasions, to select gifts for the various men which could be taken home and there they would see the last of them because they were only appropriate for their wives. However, this time, Mr. President, the committee thought the men were entitled to get a break and in selecting the gifts consideration was given to that thought.

Mr. President, I feel deeply honored, speaking on behalf of all my colleagues here, to present at this time to our floor leader, Senator O. J. Tallman, this small token of our appreciation.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I certainly first of all want to say that I appreciate the thoughtfulness of my colleagues in making this presentation. In view of what Senator Berger has said about past years—and I was one man who was fortunate enough to be honored by my colleagues—in all probability Mrs. Tallman shall be greatly disappointed.

And then I have some question too, which I am quite confident is shared by my colleague, Senator Dent, on this floor leadership matter, and there is some serious debate in my mind from time to time as to whether a floor leader is a leader or whether he is led, but that is something we both overcome, I think, as best we can.

Mr. President, I can only say, very sincerely, that I am greatly appreciative of this very fine token of esteem which my colleagues have presented to me and I appreciate even more than the gift the affectionate regard with which I know it came to me. I want to say to them that every bit of their affection, every bit of warmth, with which I receive this, they have from me in turn to them.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR BECKER, MAJORITY WHIP

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, we have in our caucus a parliamentarian par excellence; he puts the Lieutenant-Governor and Senator Walker, when presiding over the Senate, to shame; he conducts the caucus with fairness and impartiality; he never shows any bias whatsoever with respect to any bill he calls for a vote on. One of his colleagues gave him a gavel and a little stone on which to bang it, but the decorum of our caucus is so well preserved it is wholly unnecessary for him to use that gavel; he rules the caucus with a velvet hand, just tapping gently every now and then for order, no prompting from the sidelines, and everybody is completely quiet.

Unfortunately, Mr. President, he only has a two-dollar fountain pen and half the time it is either lost or out of ink. In appreciation of his services to the Republican caucus, we thought we ought to do something about that, and in our appreciation and our esteem for him, and in appreciation of the services he has rendered us, we are presenting him with this little token that will take care of that situation.

Senator BECKER. Mr. President, this is my seventh session in the Senate of Pennsylvania, four regular and three special. Heretofore I have been able to control my speaking on the floor because it was entirely within my own volition. My experiences during the sessions to which I have referred have been quite enobling. I should say, but I have not had any more pleasant session than the one which is just coming to a close.

When it became my responsibility to maintain order, if you please, among you whom I have affectionately my boys, it is true that once in a while, feeling heavy breath on both sides of me from those who were attempting to control legislation, and the finger on the shoulder, it has been necessary to wield the gavel rather heftily but at the conclusion of our meetings we have some away in one accord, sometimes in such an accord that it was to the dismay of our friends on the other side, but it was an accord that comes out of real cordiality between the thirty-four Republican members of the Senate.

I am the caboose, I think, of the train this afternoon and I certainly shall not do more talking than those who preceded me.

I certainly appreciate the gift from my colleagues. Thank you.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR TAYLOR,
PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I recall a few years back, during the very trying days of the war, when we had in Harrisburg a visitor from one of our allied countries who stated that science had made the world a great neighborhood but we as men are having difficulty living as neighbors.

I repeat that on this occasion, Mr. President and my colleagues, because it is my pleasant duty to make a little award in appreciation of the very fine services of the President pro tempore. The concern with which we were all visited—and when I say all, I mean certainly not only members of the Republican side of this Senate, because the inquiries coming from the opposite side indicated their interest in the welfare and in the health of this gentleman to whom it is my privilege and pleasure to present this small token of esteem.

I remember the story a little boy in school to whom the teacher had tried to explain the word recuperate without very much success, until in desperation finally the teacher said, well, your father, after a long day of toil comes home at night and what does he do, and the little boy said, that is what mother has been trying to find out for years.

I merely use that illustration to remind you, my colleagues, that Senator Taylor spares no time or effort to make Harrisburg a neighborhood and, as state chairman of the Republican party, to make Pennsylvania a great neighborhood and his efforts, his untiring efforts on the part of all—because I know that those from the opposing side come to him and want this or that and if it is within his province or power or good politics, he grants it without exception.

Mr. President, in these closing days of the session, when we are touched to a certain extent with a feeling, because of the fine friendships we make here and because of the constitution of every single member of this Senate, we can not help but think of our parting with a little bit of sadness and, perhaps, to use the words of the poet when he said:

"Let fate do her worst, there are relics of joy;
Bright dreams of the past, which she can not destroy;
Which come, in the night-time of sorrow and care,
And bring back the features that joy used to wear.
"Long, long may my heart with such memories be filled!
Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled—
You may break, you may shatter the vase, if you will,
But the sweet perfume of the roses will linger there still."

And so, on behalf of the Republican Senators and your friends in the Senate, Senator Taylor, it is my unusual pleasure and privilege to present to you this token, but before I do so I want to remind Mrs. Becker, who is here, and I am sorry Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Tallman and Mrs. Heyburn are not here, that these pen and pencil sets can be used by women as well as men and that their disappointment may not be so because with a little diplomacy on their part I am sure they will be privileged to carry these, what we believe to be useful and beautiful pen and pencil sets.

And to you, Senator Taylor, with the confidence and esteem of your colleagues and friends, I am privileged to make this presentation.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I remember when George was just a politician—now he is a statesman. If I were only as glib with words as he is I could find a way of thanking you.

But I knew something was coming because I saw a wholesaler jeweler come in the office an hour or so ago and I thought maybe they were getting them wholesale. I knew there was going to be something but of course I did not know it was going to be anything like this.

And I want to say to you that I am very happy to be alive; I would not give up the position of being Senator for anything in the world. Really I want to make a confession here. Ed Martin four years ago said "Don't run again, I am going to give you a nice place and you get a nice pension and need not worry any more." I said, "Well, Governor, I would rather be in the Senate than accept anything you have to offer," and I mean that. The only thing that annoys me is that they asked me for five dollars, so maybe I have a dollar and a quarter in it, but that is all right.

I just want to thank you but I do not know how to say thank you.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR DENT MINORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and members of the Senate, it is my extreme pleasure and duty to speak on behalf of a gentleman I admire and I think everybody in the Senate admires very much—I known the gentleman on the other side sometimes do not agree but I still think they have the utmost respect for our floor leader, Johnny Dent. In my opinion he is a dynamic leader and a man that we love to follow, he is gifted with a world of vitality and has never asked anyone to do a thing that he will not help them do.

We figured he had worked pretty hard this year and we figured with the bad bills passed this year we would have to build him up, because we think we are coming back here three years hence and run the state administration. So therefore, Mr. President—and we got these wholesale also, with the help of the Republican State Chairman—I took Senator Dent down to a sporting goods place today and let him pick his correct weight and we purchased for him a full set of matched irons and a full set of matched woods. I have sent down to the basement for them and soon as they get here I will present them to our leader.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and my colleagues, needless to say I am pleased that in a busy session, towards the end of it, when everything is more or less upset and men are more anxious to get special legislation through and bills they are especially interested in through the various committees, that they can find time, on both sides of the Senate, to again return to that human quality of saying kind words to each other.

All of us work hard in whatever capacity we may find ourselves employed. Whether we are the spokesman for the majority party in the legislative body or whether we are the spokesman for the minority party, each of us has our job to do, and I believe that we all try to do it as honestly and as capably as we are endowed with the gifts to so perform.

I want to thank my colleagues for getting me a new set of golf clubs because when the war started I felt, due to certain personal considerations, I was not going to indulge in the game of golf until after hostilities ceased, and so, having a little farm on Chestnut Ridge, I put my golf clubs over on Chestnut Ridge and the mice did not know they were mine and ate the wrappings off them. The boys did not know that but it was very nice of them to replace them. You know, the last time they gave me a traveling bag and this time I was a little bit suspicious they were going to give me a railroad ticket.

However, since they have decided they want me to play a little—in the day time—I want to challenge the golfers on the other side of the Senate and perhaps, during hours when we are waiting for bills to be printed, we will have a foursome appointed by a committee and decide upon the golf links which is the majority party in Pennsylvania. I am not a very good golfer but I work doggone hard at it, I can take longer and go through more motions to do what somebody else can do with less effort than anybody you have ever seen on a golf course. Of course, that is because I have difficulty in determining which end of the caddy to hit the club with and I do not know exactly which club to use at the right moment but Joe tells me the clubs are guaranteed against bad temper and distemper, so I am going to allow my friend, Jaspan, to play with them. Thank you.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair calls to the rostrum the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Taylor, to preside.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President and gentleman of the Senate, this is a sad thing I have to say—I thought this was a happy occasion. As I told you, I contributed five dollars and I have $1.25 invested in this and when I opened it up here is what I find, not even a five dollar pen in it, so I would like to meet with the gift committee when we have a recess and at least get my $1.25 back.

Well, at this time, since I am so embarrassed and Johnny Walker did not get any present, I am going to call him to the rostrum to preside. I think it is not the intrinsic value of the gift, it is the honor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (John M. Walker) in the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair wishes to advise the President pro tempore that the only reason we collected five bucks from the people that got the gifts was that we tried to have a surprise party.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO VISIT STATE INSTITUTIONS, TO CONSIDER PROPOSED LEGISLATION AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS

Mr. CARR. Mr. President, on behalf of the Committee on Public Health and Welfare, I submit report of the Joint House and Senate Committee which by resolution, was directed to visit the mental hospitals in the state, pursuant to Senate Resolution Serial No. 25 introduced by Senator Jacob Carr on February 11, 1947 and adopted by the Senate February 17, 1947, and House Resolution Serial No. 29 introduced by the Hon. Furman H. Gyger on March 12, 1947 and adopted by the House of Representatives March 19, 1947, to wit:

"Resolved,

"That the Members of the Senate Committee on Public Health and Welfare, together with any other Senators who may be interested in accompanying them, shall visit the State Institutions under the supervision of the Department of Welfare, in order more easily to consider and appreciate proposed legislation relating to such institutions and to make to the Senate such recommendations as they deem advisable."

We have placed copies of the statistical report on the desk of each Senator and member of the House and made copies available to the press and to the executive department of our Commonwealth.

These are accompanied by some general recommendations, which read as follows:

"General Recommendations:

"At the earliest possible moment the following action is indicated:

"Adequate and competent personnel should be obtained at the earliest possible time available. Increased compensation should be granted where recommended by the management.

"Consideration should be given to increasing the compensation of the heads of the various institutions either by an increased salary schedule or by elimination of the $200.00 per month rental charged the Superintendents, and a corresponding adjustment for the personnel residing within the institutions, and in the allowance for housing for those residing outside.

"In many cases equipment and personnel for therapeutic use is entirely inadequate and equipment and qualified personnel to operate same should be provided.

"From the standpoint of bed space alone these institutions without exception are greatly overcrowded. However, this is not the worst feature of overcrowding since in every institution there seems to be dire need of day rooms where the patients for about sixteen hours each day are crowded into entirely inadequate rooms. In the construction of new facilities the need for adequate space for daytime rest and recreation should be given consideration.

"The need for new construction is apparent and should be taken care of at the earliest feasible time.

"Insufficient attention seems to have been given heretofore to clinical investigation and discovery of new cases before they have reached the incurable stage or the stage requiring long periods of time for cure. Some means should be found to make the discovery of mental illness a primary part of the system of control so that a large percentage of the afflicted may not require lifelong institutional care. Neglect of this feature in the past has been largely responsible for the present overcrowded conditions.

"Consideration should be given to setting up a system of closer co-operation between the State and the School

Administrations, hospitals and other public welfare organizations to the end that discovery of mental illness may be made at the earliest possible time.

"Doctors and others should be encouraged to disclose to the proper authorities evidences of mental illness whenever and wherever it appears.

"Segregation of patients with communicable disease is recommended immediately, particularly in respect to tuberculosis.

"As part of this report there are attached statements giving factual information as to individual institution which should be of value to the Department of Welfare in deciding the needs of each."

As you will recall, perhaps, there was allotted to the two committees, House and Senate, the total sum of $3,000 for the making of this investigation. Of this amount there was allotted to the Senate committee $1,250 and to the House committee $1,750. My grandfather coming from North Ireland and being of Scotch-Irish descent, it is with real pride that I say to you that the Senate Committee, out of its $1,250 allotted has spent $453.70, with a few outstanding bills, which will make the total expenditure for this work by the Senate committee less than $500. I want to express my sincere appreciation to the members of my committee, who gave their time and their energy to make these visits—we visited six different institutions—and in the preparation of the report which has come out of these visits. There has been a responsibility, and some of it has not been pleasurable, to look upon those poor unfortunate souls who have to be confined within these institutions, and to realize that perhaps in the past we have not done everything that we should have done for the alleviation of their condition, but there is a ray of hope in the fact that this Legislature has appropriated funds to be used for the purpose of doing things that need to be done and we are hopeful, as a result of what we have done, and as a result of what the Department of Welfare and the Executive Department of our state intend to do, that it will not be long until, at least within the state of Pennsylvania, we shall have a system of caring for the mentally unfortunate that shall surpass that of any other state in the union, and we look forward to the time when that shall be a reality.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The remarks of the gentleman from Butler will be spread upon the Legislative Journal, and the report in full will be reproduced in the Appendix.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, throughout this session our two floor leaders, the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Tallman, and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, have been very lenient and very cooperative. Throughout the session many of us have gone home and we have been recorded as voting for or against a bill. But now, to expedite this session which is coming to an end, not including the session this afternoon, I want to serve warning that I shall challenge any vote that may be recorded unless that Senator answers to the roll call.

I say again the two floor leaders have cooperated, they have done a good job, but if they continue rising in place and wishing to be recorded, we will be here for a long time. I for one want to get home and if we attend to our duties we will not get home this week. So I say after today's session any member whose name is called and is recorded must be in his seat to answer that roll call, be he Democrat or Republican; otherwise I shall be compelled to challenge that vote.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I have no objection at all to the remarks of the gentleman from Cambria concerning the presence of Senators for roll calls. I should merely like, however, to suggest to him that the difficult work of these closing days will be terribly impeded if he will not make some exception to the rule he has made and I merely request that he be good enough to be a little bit lenient with regard to those men who will of necessity be serving on conference committees so that the work may be done.

I merely request that respectfully of him and suggest that if he does not do that, then, of course, we may be obliged to stay here a great deal longer.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I certainly agree with the gentleman from Lehigh, and any member who is serving on a conference committee, or any other committee, who is absent, if his name is presented to the Chair to be recorded as he wishes, I have no objection. I am referring to those members who are lobbying the House and outside and still they are recorded, so I again say that I agree with the gentleman from Lehigh that if the members are serving on committees they may be recorded, but otherwise they shall be challenged.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

L. 487) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs towns and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the House to the foregoing bill.

Mr. CRIDER. Mr. President, I second the motion. On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, when are we going to be allowed to know what these amendments are? These are most important bills and you are having us vote blindly without even knowing what amendments were put in by the House.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. These were Senate amendments placed in the bill by the Senate, and the House refused to concur in the amendments and the motion now before the Senate is that the Senate insist upon its own Senate amendments.

Mr. BARR. I want to be recorded as voting "no." I do not care whether the amendments were put in by the Senate, I want to know what they are. I am not going to stand here like a blind acorn.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendments were inserted in the bill by the Senate.

Mr. BARR. That is all right but if you are going to try to railroad these amendments through I am going to insist that the bill be read. I am very serious.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. If the gentleman from Allegheny desires to refer to the action on the bill or on the adoption of the amendments, the Chair suggests to the gentleman in all seriousness that nothing is being attempted to be railroaded; the amendments were made in the Senate.

Does the gentleman from Allegheny desire to have repeated the motion just made by the gentleman from Lehigh?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am even going back to the motion made before that on House Bill 926; by the time I got back to find what the bill was, the motion had passed and that is nonsense and I am not going to stand here and have it done. I want to know what I am voting on.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Any time the gentleman from Allegheny desires to have the proceedings in this Chamber held up until he can check what is going on, all he has to do is so advise the Chair.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may we be at ease for a moment?

(The Senate was at ease).

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I withdraw my objection.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, this bill I am going to vote in favor of only with the greatest reluctance.

The insistence of the gentlemen from Philadelphia on the passage of a bill that is very incomplete in its wording and from various analyses is unconstitutional, and from other analyses is vicious in form, made us decide that we could do no other than vote for this bill, if such a bill was going to be foisted upon the people of the city of Pittsburgh.

With the greatest reluctance we vote for this bill but we are placed in the position where we can do nothing else. I am going to vote for it and ask my colleagues to do likewise.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am going to take the opposite position from that taken by my colleague from Allegheny county on Senate Bill No. 800.

Senate Bill No. 800, which provides for the separation of the two first class districts of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, but leaving Philadelphia a school district of first class and Pittsburgh a school district of first class "A", is an objectionable bill.

For thirty-five years, the two districts of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia have been together. They have faced and solved common school problems, and before the Legislature they have been considered as a unit. The plan that has been operating for thirty-five years has proved satisfactory to both districts. Neither of the districts want this separation. Those who do want to separate the two districts take this position because of political considerations rather than any consideration of educational efficiency.

We all know that the 2,543 school districts of Pennsylvania, which are now divided into four classes of school districts, cause a cumbersome inefficient system of school administration for this state. To increase the number of classifications of school districts would only serve to add to the confusion that already exists.

Upon reading this bill, I find that the only sections of the school code which are amended are those which deal with creating and providing for a board of public education. If this bill were enacted into law, the school district of Pittsburgh would find itself in the position of having a board of education with no authority whatever. Under terms of the present school code, school districts of the first class levy school taxes under Sections 523 and 524 of the school code. This proposed bill, which provides nothing beyond the creating of a board of school directors, would leave Pittsburgh without even the authority to levy a real estate tax.

Therefore, gentlemen of the Senate, in the interest of good education and sound administration for the two school districts of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, the logical thing to do is to keep the two districts within the same classification. The only purpose which separating the districts could serve is that of political expediency. Therefore, I ask the members of the Senate to reject this bill.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I want to take just a minute because the more speeches that are made in connection with this bill the more it will be delayed in getting over to the House, where action is necessary.

But in connection with this bill, Mr. President, I do want to say I think my colleagues on this side of the Senate feel the same way as my colleagues on the left side of the Senate, that is, none of us want to do this, that is, pass Senate Bill No. 800 and separate the school districts, except that we are doing it now because it has become anecessity, we feel, in order to save this school program and in order that the school district will be able to get the necessary revenue to carry on their program.

We feel we have got to send this bill over to the House, where it is to be amended to take care of objections raised by Senator Holland. The reason it was not amended here was for the purpose of saving time, because we have so few legislative days remaining, and they want to get this bill over there in the House with the other bills, so it can all be worked out as one coordinated program.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I am a little concerned about this criticism, because if a person will look at a history of the Senate he will find this bill was introduced back in May, long before our program was introduced, our tax program for Philadelphia. Senate Bill 800 is for the purpose of divorcing Philadelphia and Pittsburgh as school districts. It was put in without any solicitation from Philadelphia, for the purpose of enabling the Pittsburgh school district to raise funds as they saw fit and proper and also so that Philadelphia could raise funds as they saw fit and proper. There is no political contingency or political expediency involved in this proposed legislation.

Philadelphia in the first instance had what might be called a mercantile tax and an added four mill personal property tax. After very mature consideration we finally reached the conclusion that the four mill additional personal property tax might raise no additional revenue but take from the city of Philadelphia $1,500,000 or $2,000,000 to give to the school district, which meant that we had to find other money in the city of Philadelphia. Therefore we broadened the base of the mercantile tax and called it a business tax, giving added revenue, to save added taxation in Philadelphia, and that is the crux of the criticism. Now the criticism is being cured by taking this step and the action which was proposed by Pittsburgh before Philadelphia ever thought of it.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I want to quote a letter I received from the Superintendent of Public Schools of Pittsburgh and signed also by the Secretary and Business Manager, as follows:

"With reference to the present legislative situation as it affects the School District of Pittsburgh, it became apparent during the last week that a conference with Philadelphia school representatives was necessary to come to an agreement on a program of new taxation for school financial support. Political leaders in Philadelphia over the week-end of May 24 to May 26 repudiated the one and one-half mill increase in real estate tax and the per capita tax which had been agreed upon by Pittsburgh and Philadelphia school district representatives in conference with Governor Duff on Wednesday, May 21. A mercantile tax and a personal property tax were proposed by the Philadelphia County Republican Chairman as a broadened tax base which would meet the Philadelphia schools' financial problem. Along with these two forms of tax, the Philadelphia leader's plan involved separation of the two first class districts.

"Upon learning of the shift in Philadelphia's position, members of the Pittsburgh Board of Public Education were consulted and the Superintendent of Schools and the Secretary and Business Manager were instructed to work with Philadelphia representatives against separating the two districts and for a tax program mutually agreeable to both. Subsequently during the week of May 26 to May 29 representatives of the two districts conferred in Harrisburg and the following plan was agreed upon:

"1. Opposition to Senate Bill 800, introduced by Senator James A. Geltz of Allegheny County, which would separate the two school districts by classifying Pittsburgh as a school district of Class 1A.

"2. Support of a mercantile tax for both districts providing.

"a. A levy of $2 license on each retail establishment plus a levy of 1 mill on the establishment's gross receipts. This tax is estimated to yield approximately $400,000 in Pittsburgh.

"b. A levy of a $3 license on each wholesale establishment plus a levy of one-half mill on the establishment's gross receipts. This tax is estimated to yield approximately $400,000 in Pittsburgh.

"3. Support of a personal property tax for both districts of from 2 to 4 mills. The state already levies a 4 mill tax on personal property for county purposes. This would mean an additional tax and the relocation of the site of declaration of personal property would have to be considered in estimating the yield. The best figures obtainable indicate an estimated yield of $900,000 on the basis of the levy of a maximum of 4 mills.

"4. Support of a per capita tax for the School District of Pittsburgh only. Senate Bill 742, introduced by Senator James A. Geltz, would provide a levy of from $1 to $5 on each resident over 21 years of age. At seventy per cent collection of the maximum $5 levy, $1,500,000 is the estimated yield for Pittsburgh. In drafting the amendments to exclude Philadelphia from the provisions of Senate Bill 742, the constitutionality of making it applicable to Pittsburgh alone must be considered. A savings clause in the amendments is planned to provide that, if excluding Philadelphia is held to be unconstitutional, both districts would then be permitted to levy the tax.

"The minimum subsidies proposed by the state administration of $700 per teaching unit for 1947-48 and of $800 for 1948-49 are totally inadequate and completely inequitable. Therefore, we should continue to press for a higher minimum subsidy. However, the difficulty of receiving any appreciable increase in state subsidies is apparent. Since the Pittsburgh Public Schools need $5,000,000 additional revenue to operate the present school program for the 1947-49 biennium, it is absolutely necessary, therefore, to support the tax proposals outlined above in order to insure adequate financial resources.

"We earnestly request, therefore, that members of the General Assembly and civic groups will lend wholehearted support to the proposals outlined above.

Sincerely yours,

Earl A. Dimmick
Superintendent of Schools

H. H. Rothrock
Secretary and Business Manager"

Therefore, Mr. President, we agreed upon that. Senator Geltz agreed upon it with the members of the Pittsburgh School Board and the members of the Philadelphia School Board, but late here on Tuesday evening, I think it was, a set of amendments were offered on this floor which ripped out the mercantile tax and put in a gross receipts tax, which the people of Pittsburgh do not want, and consequently we were forced to call a meeting of the Committee on Education and bring out Senate Bill 800, which Senator Geltz at no time was going to press until this situation was brought about by Philadelphia running out on their agreement.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I want to correct the impression about anybody running out.

Prior to the introduction of 827, having to do with the mercantile tax, which was introduced by me on June 2, I had the privilege and honor of conferring with the Governor and we agreed upon a program, which was that Philadelphia and Pittsburgh should be divorced insofar as the school districts were concerned, and that Philadelphia's program would be Philadelphia's problem. I left Harrisburg with that understanding and came back the next Monday and found that the school districts of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh had run out on their agreement—I did not run out, they ran out, and they dissolved the divorce and kept the wedding in effect. I went to the Governor and said I would be no party to such an arrangement without the Governor sanctioning it. He said what the school districts wanted was agreeable to him.

The city of Philadelphia has to take care of itself, as well as the school district. We are sincere in our feeling that the Board of Education shall have this money but they shall not have it at the expense of us and the school districts of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. But this program has to be carried out, and I did not run out on it.

Mr. RAHAUSER. I just want to say this, that I cited for the record two decisions, both of them declaring similar acts, as proposed by the gentleman from Philadelphia unconstitutional, both as to the Federal Constitution and as to the State Constitution, as violating both the clauses prohibiting taxation of imposts and violating the clause on undue restraint of interstate commerce. Neither of those clauses have been taken into consideration.

We are therefore forced to vote for Senate Bill 800 much against our will."

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section four of article XVI of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 581) entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth" hereby amended to read as follows

Section 4 Each councilman shall receive a salary of [five thousand dollars ($5000)] seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7500) per annum

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President. in explanation of my vote on this bill I want to say that I am voting for salary raises that come somewhere near that figure set up by the precedent of county raises given to various county officials of the other counties, but this has reached a point over that, this amounts to a fifty per cent increase in salary and I think at this time it is an exorbitant figure when the city of Philadelphia came in and demanded a broader tax base, in a way, I might say, crying the blues about not being able to pay the school teachers an appreciable increase in salaries, and now you are voting a fifty per cent increase for a man receiving $5,000 a year. I believe the increase is exorbitant and not in line with the policies set up by the various agencies and by the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. CARR. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 819, on third reading, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article three, section four of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, requiring bills to be considered on three different days in each House.

be recommended to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CARR. Mr. President, I bowed my head to the inevitable as I made the motion to recommit Senate Bill 819.

Before presenting this bill I consulted with all the members throughout the Chamber, with but one exception, and found them almost unanimously in favor of legislation of this kind, which was designed for the purpose of stopping the thing called a filibuster by eliminating the provision which requires the reading at length of all bills on three separate occasions, which has been a club used in the hands of certain individuals from time to time for the purpose of clubbing the majority into doing what they wanted done, but that same threat was used again and the majority again have bowed their heads in humble submission to the cudgeling of one individual because they want to get out of here, they want to get on home, they are tired of being here, and so I have to concur in an action which was requested by a majority of my colleagues here. In honor of the occasion and as a requiem to the bill for this session I have composed a little bit of verse, which reads as follows:

Samson Lives Again

In days of old there lived a man
Of mighty strength of arm,
Who did a lot of mighty deeds
And also lots of harm.
This Samson killed the Philistines
With the jawbone of an ass,
And, strange as it may seem to be,
It now has come to pass;
We struggle and we labor
And we do the best we can,
But we kill this legislation
With the jawbone of a man.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I just want to say that sometimes in haste we may do things we will regret later and I believe the passage of any legislation because of any inconvenience that it may cause us may destroy the purposes that were in the minds of those who set up this legislative action. When you consider that the reading of bills upon three separate occasions has as its basis the whole idea that by the time the bills are presented and read the news can get out to the citizens of the Commonwealth and legislation that may affect the common welfare can be recognized by the citizenry and therefor the safeguard is contained within the Constitution to keep some legislative group from taking undue advantage and passing legislation in haste that may destroy some of the freedoms that people enjoy.

And so the only reason that we oppose this resolution at this time is because we feel that the majority may have their tempers shortened a little by recent incidents in the Senate and therefore have not thought out the full consequences of their action in presenting this type of legislation.

The use of this weapon—it has been called a weapon—in times when a majority may seek to steamroller a minority, gives a double protection to the people that this type of government can operate and function for the general welfare, because the minority in all instances, regardless of what party happens to be in the minority, is always acting as a brake upon the railroading of legislation by an enthusiastic majority and therefore, in complete harmony with the suggestion of the gentleman from Butler, we ask that this bill go back to committee and rest in peace, or pieces.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?
The motion was agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have asked that House Bill 852 go over in its order because there are certain examinations to be made of its contents and I do not want to take the time of the Senate at this time to reveal what there is wrong with it.

An Act to further amend section two of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 866, on third reading, entitled:

An Act relating to the regulation control and stabilization of rents in housing accommodations during an emergency creating a temporary state housing rent commission prescribing its powers and duties and making an appropriation be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I think maybe, if the gentleman from Butler wants a long speech, I will not accommodate him. When I do things, make statements, they are not made in anger but I think a statement should certainly be made with respect to this constitutional provision.

To get back to this bill, Mr. President, when we have constitutional provisions, I believe we should follow the mandate of the people, which we did with respect to the bill which was just recommitted to committee.

However, Mr. President, I wish to say that we have failed to follow the mandate of the people with respect to two other provisions of the Constitution, one being with respect to congressional reapportionment and I think the other—I have forgotten it offhand—legislative and senatorial re-apportionment bills and also with respect to—I just thought of it—with respect to city charters.

Article 15 of the Constitution of the state of Pennsylvania was a mandate that the people enacted in 1922, giving the people the right to declare for themselves what government they wanted. We have also ignored that. If not failing to obey the mandate of the Constitution, we are doing the wrong thing, I say we are definitely doing the wrong thing. When I ask that these provisions be carried out I am doing my duty as a citizen and I am certainly doing my duty as a Senator of the state of Pennsylvania, representing my group. We have definitely failed our people in three respects, in violating the Constitution as I have mentioned, in those three instances, and hereafter I intend to carry out the provisions of the Constitution, with the exception of the particular provision that the gentleman from Butler attempted to eliminate. However, Mr. President, I will not go any further with respect to that but with respect to the bill on rent control, I believe yesterday a motion was made to re-commit that bill. I am very sorry, Mr. President and gentleman of the Senate, that is being done. We can appreciate what is taking place today in our states and I say if rent control is left up to Congress, I anticipate chaos, disorder and possible revolution. I predict by our failure to act we will have the blood of many people on our hands. I take it that Governor Duff has made the declaration that he is in favor of rent control but apparently his declaration or proposal means next to nothing and our people undoubtedly mean less to us because we are not doing their bidding notwithstanding that we have been elected to do it.

Gentlemen, I say in all sincerity you will be called back into extra session, at a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars, to enact rent control legislation.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BARR and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30

Becker,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Wade,

And said bill having been read at length the third time,
On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment to the Chair to be read for the information of the Members of the Senate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Section 1 (Sec. 2518) page 8, lines 2, and 3, by placing a bracket before the word "whose" in line 2, and after the word "diminished" in line 3.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, I move the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President and members of the Senate, House Bill 933 becomes, in its present form, a very suspicious piece of legislation; it comes from the House with six pages of reasonable material and all six pages have been stricken out, word for word, none of them now remain, and in lieu thereof there is a very simple amendment added, depriving taxables of any notice of assessment in cases where the last previous assessment has not been increased or decreased.

Mr. President, there are many times when taxables have a right to appeal, even though there has been no increase or decrease in the last previous assessment. It is entirely conceivable, and it happens every day of our lives, that the real estate values in the various municipalities of the state change; it happens every day that the valuation on rent or occupations change but not on the assessment, where in neither of those instances would it ever appear that there had been an increase or decrease in assessment, and therefore the taxable is not going to get notice of his assessment and he is not going to be able to avail himself of the right to appeal.

This is a very vicious piece of legislation in its present form. It is not conceivable to me that the Governor will ever sign such a bill and I therefore am going on record as voting against it.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, as the amendments are read I would like Mr. Homsher to explain the amendments. This is a very important bill and it would be very difficult to follow the amendments unless the Senator tells us what the amendments do.

(The Clerk started reading the amendments.)

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, it seems to me it is going to be impossible for us to follow these amendments unless Senator Homsher will explain them to us section by section.

The PRESIDENT. The Clerk will read the amendments to Section 2 and after he has finished then the gentleman from Allegheny will be in order with his request.

Mr. HOMSHER offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1218), page 5, line 5, by striking out the word "one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175)" and inserting in lieu thereof "two hundred dollars ($200)"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1218), page 6, line 13, by striking out the word "principals" and inserting in lieu thereof "Principals"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1218), page 6, line 19, by striking out the word "eight (8)" and inserting in lieu thereof "seven (7)"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1219), page 13, line 4, by striking out the word "five (5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(six (6))"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1219), page 13, line 9, by striking out the word "five (5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "six (6)"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1228), page 19, line 17, by striking out the word "than"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1228), page 20, line 9, by striking out the word "dollars ($4000)" and inserting in lieu thereof "five hundred dollars ($4,500)"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1228), page 20, line 11, by striking out the word "dollars ($4000)" and inserting in lieu thereof "five hundred dollars ($4,500)"; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1228), page 20, line 13, by striking out the word "dollars ($4000)" and inserting in lieu thereof "five hundred dollars ($4,500)".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The PRESIDENT. Senator Homsher, which is correct? At the bottom of the first page of amendments the figures show $4,500 and the printed figure shows $500. Should that be $4,500?

Mr. HOMSHER. It is all right in this copy of the amendment, I think; it is $4,500. The correct amount is $4,500.

The PRESIDENT. Senator Homsher, the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, has requested that you explain in your own words just what this amendment does.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, the first amendment, Section 2, Section 1218, Page 4, Line 5, changes the five increments to holders of standard certificates in first-class districts; it changes the amount of increment from $175 to $200.

The second amendment, amending Principals, Page 6, Line 13, is a corrective amendment.

The amendment to Section 2, Page 6, Line 19, strikes out "8" and inserts "7", which is a corrective amendment as "8" is a mistake in the printing.

Amend Section 2, Page 13, Line 4, by striking out "5" and inserting "6"—that increases the increment by one.

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1219), Page 13, Line 9, by striking out the word "five (5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "six", which increases the increment by one.

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1228), Page 19, Line 17, by striking out the word "than", which is a corrective amendment.

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1228), Page 20, Line 9, by striking out the word "dollars ($4,000)", and inserting in lieu thereof "five hundred dollars ($4,500)"; the amendment is correct because the $4,000 is in the previous line. That pertains to salaries of county superintendents and changes the salary from $4,000 to $4,500.

The next amendment changes the salary of county supervisors.

The next amendment changes the salary of county supervisors of special education from $4,000 to $4,500.

The next amendment changes the salary of county supervisors of ariculture from $4,000 to $4,500. That is the minimum salary.

The amendment on page 26, Line 9, is a corrective amendment.

The amendments on Page 39, Lines 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, are to correct an error in the wording of the bill.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may I ask that the amendments be read.

The PRESIDENT. We would first like to act on the amendments to Section 2.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am asking that the corrective amendment be read.

The PRESIDENT. That is with regard to Section 3. Does the gentleman have any remarks as to Section 2?

We will dispose of Section 2.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOMSHER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. In view of the passage of Senate Bill 800 how will these increments affect the Pittsburgh School District?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I do not understand the gentleman's question.

Mr. HOLLAND. In passing Senate Bill 800, which create a new district in Pittsburgh, how will these increments affect Pittsburgh, since this district is not in the bill?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I think that is provided in Senate Bill 800. That is provided in Senate Bill 800, which states that while it applies to first-class districts, that it shall apply if the district is split up, in Senate Bill 800.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HOMSHER offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 3 (Sec. 1241), page 26, line 9, by striking out the words "provided further that" and inserting in lieu thereof "Provided further, That."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lancaster explain that amendment?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, that is the same wording.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, it is a capital letter and means it starts a new sentence instead of continuing in one sentence.

The PRESIDENT. That is a grammatical correction.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The fourth and fifth sections were read and agreed to.

The sixth section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HOMSHER offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 6 (Sec. 1257), page 39, lines 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, by striking out the words "who does not hold a" in line 11, all of lines 12, 13, 14, 15 and the words "gency or temporary certificates" in line 16, and inserting in lieu thereof "who holds only an emergency certificate for any grade or subject which he teaches, or for a period of two successive years employs in the same position teachers who holds only an emergency certificate for any grades or subjects which they teach."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may we be at ease for a minute? We would like to look over that amendment.

(The Senate was at sease.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The seventh, eighth and ninth sections and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I desire to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, in view of the fact that the amendments were quite lengthy, perhaps a word of explanation would be in order at this time.

The amendments raise the increments now provided by House Bill 417 by two. In other words, for a standard certificate, the maximum would be raised from $2,700 to $3,000, and for a bachelor's degree from $30,200 to $3,500 and for a master's degree from $3,400 to $3,700.

Mr. President, this is a far cry from the expectations of the teachers of the Commonwealth during the last four months. The hue and cry has gone out all over the state for a decent salary schedule for teachers in this Commonwealth, and here at the tail end of the session we are faced with tonight getting through a bill on second reading which is at least going to live up to some—and I should say very few—of the expectations of the teachers.

Mr. President, there are fifty-nine thousand teachers in the Commonwealth and, as we are well aware, only three thousand teachers are going to receive this large increase we have heard so much about. The average wage in the Commonwealth in this school year is $2,100. Here we are offering about twenty thousand teachers an increase ranging from $250 up to somewhere near $600. In the second and third-class districts, under House Bill 417 as it is now written, we are offering approximately $150.

Thinking of my own county of Fayette, in which we have a greater number of third-class districts than any other kind, I note, Mr. President, that if House Bill 417 is not amended to take care of a couple more increments, it might be that a good number of schools in my county will not open this fall because the teachers are not going to go back with a $150 increase. No teacher in the Commonwealth thought they would be offered from nothing to $150 increase when this session of the Legislature started.

I am not going to go into politics nor to accuse either side of the House. I think that the teachers of the Commonwealth known wherein their troubles lie. We have had a good number of persons come along and say if you give the teachers a couple of hundred dollars a month you can not keep them out of the classrooms. Mr. President, that is far from true because the School Board Journal of the week, which is the official publication of the Boards of Education, compares Pennsylvania salaries, and those which would be received under House Bill 1417 as now written, with those of Denver, with a maximum salary of $4,450; Detroit, $4,500; Newark, New Jersey, $5,000; St. Louis, $4,500; San Francisco, $5,380; Baltimore, $5,000.

Yet we, who promised so much to our teachers in both party platforms, are offering a maximum for a standard certificate of $2,700; for a bachelor's degree, $3,000 and for a master's degree, $3,400. I dare say that there is no profession in the United States, and I am certain no profession in Pennsylvania, which is so underpaid for the amount of work which must be done. There is an old old story—and I am not going to annoy the members of the Senate by repeating it, but if you will accept the amendments just offered, the first-class school districts may get an increase in the amount of the amendments, but as an actual fact, Mr. President, it can not be refuted that under House Bill 417 at the present time, if the school boards will follow the mandate of the law, it will be possible to cut salaries. I know the answer may be that there is a section in this law which says salaries are frozen but that is a very weak section, because you can not say on the one hand that salaries are mandated and then say on the other hand that salaries are frozen.

I am not satisfied even with my own amendments, Mr. President, but I think they are a step in the right direction and I ask for a roll call.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I have especially requested the Chairman of our Education Committee, Senator Homsher, to permit me to oppose these suggested amendments, and I do that because I think each member of this Senate knows where I stand on teachers' salaries and that I have been one of those who has worked diligently for many sessions to increase them as high as we can. Therefore I am the one, I think, who should point out the limitations of these proposed amendments.

The gentleman from Fayette calls attention to the fact that if they do not get additional increments they will have to do without a lot of teachers in their schools next fall. I assume the gentleman from Fayette understands that in these increments which he has suggested, he is making no financial provision for them, so that the people of Fayette county and the other counties will have to supply the money for those additional increments.

I can not trace his figures for the various parts of the country, because every day we seem to get figures from different points. He is going to Denver now and he has been in San Francisco during the last several minutes.

I have heard for months from my own teachers, over and over again, the fact that we should attempt to do for our teachers what New York has done, and I did try to accumulate figures for New York, and I find that the New York salary bill is inferior to the salaries established in House Bill 417.

Our teachers do not want promotional increments; as you know, the promotional increments have been stricken out. New York does not mandate as high a salary for their teachers generally as we do here in Pennsylvania under House Bill 417. They take about seventy-five per cent of the burden from the pockets of the taxables in the state of New York. I can not vouch for the truth of this, but it has been stated that recent legislation puts them back educationally somewhere between seventy-five and one hundred years, but I do think that I should point this out to the gentleman.

Let us not talk in terms of increments, but of the appropriations we make for our schools. In 1937 we appropriated seventy and one-third million dollars for our schools and, in 1949 we project that to $190,882,000. During the period from 1941 to 1951 we will have increased school appropriations in this state, including retirement appropriations for teachers, $201,000,000.

I say to the gentleman from Fayette, and I do not care to make this political nor do I care to make it a personal issue, because I know he is sincere, in that he wants to help the teachers as do we gentlemen on this side of the Senate, but you can not increase teachers' salaries without burdening the local taxpayers unless you increase your state subsidies proportionately. The situation has been thoroughly examined, it has been checked and double-checked at all hours of the day and night for the last month, and it is pretty generally agreed that the additional moneys this year for school purposes are to be $48,000,000 plus, I believe, about $5,000,000 for the retirement fund as a protection to the teachers. This is $48,000,000 or more out of $144,000,000 of new tax money and I think, Senator, that we were a bit remiss when we did not tell those bottlers who were here some time ago that at least a part of that money that we were taxing them was for school teachers' salaries.

I think we, too, were a bit remiss when we answered our friends in the labor unions. I wrote letter after letter replying to their requests that we raise teachers' salaries, and I congratulated them and I told them we were in the same corner, that that was what I was seeking, and then I got a letter, it may have been special delivery or just ordinary mail, a couple of minutes before we voted on the soft drink tax—telling me those people had definitely and unanimously gone on record against that tax, because it would add one cent to the cost of the drink the working man stops to take to refresh himself during his arduous day. We just can not do these things on a one track basis. You have got to go and you have got to come back.

I would ask the gentleman on both sides of the Senate, out of deference to their own school districts, which have been clamoring for years that they could not carry any more of the load, to vote down these proposed amendments, lest they endanger either the whole bill or the local tax structure.

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the arguments of my friend and colleague on the other side and it seems to me that the old hue and cry is again going out as to cost.

My friend from Schuylkill has referred to the fact that I had gone to Denver and San Francisco and all over the country to get some figures, and then he immediately went over to New York state. I am not proud of anything much that has happened in New York state. It seems to me, Mr. President, that after the public employes' strike bill that this Senate passed just last week, which is an exact copy of the New York bill—and I guess if Mr. Dewey runs for President from New York, and he thinks he can get by with a bill like that, we in Pennsylvania think we can get by with the same kind of bill.

The gentleman from Schuylkill brought up the question of increased cost to the local school districts. We have amendments prepared that will increase the amount of contribution by the state. I know, Mr. President, that always brings up the question and always goes back to the argument that Pennsylvania is now paying a certain percentage of educational cost, but they are again just figures, and it has become more and more, and it will become more and more, the duty of the state to furnish more and more money for education in the Commonwealth.

The gentleman from Schuylkill brought up the fact that a certain number of years ago we appropriated a specific amount of money for education and then he said that we had doubled it. Well, Mr. President, the value of the dollar and the buying power of the dollar of the teacher has greatly reduced itself in that same length of time. I wish to bring to the attention of the gentlemen on the other side—I do not like to repeat this over and over again because it seems every time I get up on the floor it is brought out that I have served some time as a teacher in the Commonwealth, and after the nineteen years I have taught I will again under House Bill 417, receive the magnificent sum of $2,300. That is what is going to happen all over the Commonwealth in the third-class districts. There may be some other change that will be necessary in the bill. I am not against those persons working for $1,400 who will now get $2,000, an increase of $600, nor do I find fault with those persons receiving $1,700 or $1,800 going up at least to the bottom of the scale.

However, I again say, in its present form, House Bill 417 will not give to at least one-third of the teachers of this Commonwealth any increase in wages and I respectfully ask that the members on both sides vote for the amendments, and I ask for a roll call on the question of the amendments.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this, except that we keep talking about these minimum mandates as though they were top salaries teachers could get. This is the minimum possible salary you can pay teachers in the various categories, as required by the state, but from there we can go on as far as our appreciation of our taxpayers permits us to go.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TARR and were as follows, viz:

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, I desire to offer amendments at this time, and ask that they be read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objections? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 24, line 20 by striking out the word "six", and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 1, by striking out the figure "6" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 5, by striking out the word "six" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 5, by striking out the figure "6", and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 10, by striking out the word "six" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 10, by striking out the figure "6" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 14, by striking out the word "six" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 14, by striking out the figure "6" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 19, by striking out the word "six" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five"; Amend section 3 (Sec. 1241) page 25, line 19, by striking out the figure "6" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, the purpose of this amendment is to carry out our contention that it is incumbent upon the state to bear the cost of education. We disagree that the cost of education should be returned to the local school districts. We believe that the General Assembly, as the Constitution has said, shall provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and efficient system of public schools, wherein all the children of the Commonwealth, beginning at the age of six years, may be educated, and we take that to mean that it is the burden of the state itself to lend financial support for the education of our children.

Mr. President, to change back to five mills would reimburse in most districts considerably more money than what the present bill provides. In case of maximum subsidy the old bill provided $1,800 and the present bill provides for $2,200. Consequently most districts think they are getting an increased subsidy of some $400 but due to the change in the fraction, caused by the advance from five mills to six, they are not receiving that full $400.

For instance, Mr. President, in West Newton, where the anticipated increase would be approximately $400, they would actually receive $325. In the borough of Greensburg, instead of receiving approximately $400 increase, they would receive $250. In the district of Southwest Greensburg, in place of receiving approximately $400 they would receive $310. In the third-class district of Monessen, in place of receiving $400 increase they would actually receive $260. And so it is throughout Allegheny county, where this would be much more pronounced. It is the contention of this side of the Senate that at least the state should maintain the same five mills as was provided in the previous bill.

I have other amendments to offer but first I should like to have this one acted upon.

Mr. WAGNER. I just wish to state, Mr. President, that this is part of the package of school law adjustments that step up the five mills to six, as it steps up the subsidy by a hundred.

The Senator read off a number of districts like Greensburg, West Newton Township, I believe, and so forth which, he stated, instead of getting $400 more will get $350 or $300, and I would like to remind the gentleman from Allegheny that we get them off to a wonderful start, because that additional subsidy starts as of the school year now ended, so that instead of getting $50 less than $400, they are getting $350 more reimbursement for the school year just ending than they had expected to get.

If you do not keep the system in proportion, considering the additional dollars from the state, with a slight increase in the millage locally, you will throw the whole business out of mesh under the budget, and under the money allowable, if you consider that five million additional dollars are being provided for them over and above what is called for in the current school term, I think we can not, without doing irreparable damage to the whole school program set up, do anything but vote "no" on these amendments.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. WAGNER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, has it been decided by the Republican caucus that all amendments will be turned down as offered by the Democratic minority.

Mr. WAGNER. I very frankly state, Mr. President, that the Republican caucus, not only tonight but for many weeks, at different times, has struggled with this school program to squeeze out of the budget every last dollar we can to be helpful to the teachers in the schools and we feel, Senator Dent, that this is it, and under those circumstances we can only sustain our judgment by voting down the amendments.

Mr. DENT. Am I to assume then from the answer given by the gentleman from Schuylkill that all amendments, regardless of their merit, are to be turned down by the Republican majority.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman is making his own assumption.

Mr. DENT. I am not making any assumption; I am only asking. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be further interrogated.

Mr. WAGNER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Then I am to assume from the Senator's answer, regardless of what amendments are offered, regardless of their merit or demerit, the Republican majority has assumed their program is the program for the school teachers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and therefore all amendments offered by this side will be turned down.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, if I may be permitted, I would like to put it in slightly different words.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the gentleman can put it in any words he likes; I will understad the answer.

Mr. WAGNER. I think you will, Senator. Mr. President, I want to make it plain that the Republican majority will vote down any amendments that come up.

This is a delicate financial program that has been established, after very arduous and lengthy conferences with the best political and educational minds we have available participating. If the gentleman can think of amendments that will not disturb that set-up I, for one, will ask my colleagues to vote for them.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, this is the first time in my young life I have ever known that anybody would assume that the Republican majority had all the fine minds in Pennsylvania. I believe that we, too, have some semblance of intelligence but we never have been consulted as to the school program for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We therefore submit to you that our amendments are well thought out, well planned, and are an integral part of a program designed to give to the teachers of Pennsylvania a part of the benefits promised last year by the Republican platform.

If any person on the other side can show wherein any one of the amendments we offer are not part and parcel of the program sponsored by the Republican party last year, then, Mr. President, I submit to the majority that we are not capable of offering amendments in an intelligent manner. However, if the Republican majority has taken the position that, regardless of what we offer, their caucus will turn them down then, Mr. President, we will be forced into the position of making a full dress review of the entire school program of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I think we all want to keep the record straight. I do not believe I said that the Republicans had all the best political brains—I do not think the gentleman from Westmoreland can read my mind. What I think, my words conveyed, Mr. President, was that some of the best political and some of the best educational brains were employed in this educational design. The Senator well knows that I have never even tried to make statements of that kind, and the gentleman well knows that some of his colleagues have rather depended upon me to make certain changes in this bill, on which their best brains and my feeble brains agreed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I hate to do this but I have a proven theory that when I am misquoted I have definitely made up my mind that I will not try to convince people I have been misquoted unless the record is read. Therefore, Mr. President, I would like the reporter to read back to the Senate wherein at any time I said that the Republicans were endowed with the best political brains in the Senate of Pennsylvania. So if the reporter will kindly indulge, I would like him to read the record as I stated it.

(The reporter repeated Senator Dent's previous remarks as follows: "Mr. President, this is the first time in my young life I have ever known that anybody would assume that the Republican majority had all the fine minds in Pennsylvania.")

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it is quite apparent from the discussion which just occurred that none of the amendments we have to offer will be adopted in House Bill 417 which, as we all know, is a very important bill. I want to point out, if I may, the importance of considering some of the amendments.

Mr. President, let us go back a few years when you,

Mr. President, and other of our colleagues were away fighting the war, and the school teachers were called upon first and last to take part in sugar rationing, selling bonds, paper gathering, gasoline rationing, without any compensation whatsoever. They did their part loyally. Many of them could have left their jobs and gone into industry and received twice as much but, being loyal to their profession, they stayed in the schoolhouse.

Now, Mr. President, we find that most of our school teachers are compelled throughout the vacation period to be barmaids, work in five and dime stores, go down to the shore and try to procure a job of some kind, to be able to be clothed properly and take their places in society because they can not earn sufficient funds in their profession.

Mr. President, I am not a Drew Pearson and I am not going to try to copy his style but I want to make a remark here and now—it will be a prediction. I predict tonight that despite the fact that we have passed an anti-strike bill, come September first you will find many thousands of our school rooms lacking in school teachers and I will suggest now, before we agree to adjourn sine die, that this session recess, to be prepared to come back into a special session, and save the Commonwealth many thousands of dollars, because we shall come back to enact some type of legislation or we shall find our schoolrooms empty. That is a prediction, gentlemen, and you will find those words to be true; anti-strike bill or no anti-strike bill, they have a right to quit and if I know school teachers they are not going back to the class rooms come September first.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BARR, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

Donlan,	Hare,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, I wish to offer another set of amendments and ask that they be read and then I would like to explain their purpose.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Section 2, page 18, by inserting after line 20, the following: "Providing further, That any teacher, supervisor, principal or supervising principal who has been employed continuously since September 1940 shall be given one additional increment on the applicable schedule commencing with school year 1947-48 in addition to increments provided herein."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, the purpose of this particular amendment is to provide an additional increment not only for those teachers who have been continuously employed during the period of the emergency of the war but also to provide an increment to those teachers who were on the payroll of some school district, went into the service, and who were considered continuously employed during that period of time: It is believed that those people who have given continuous service are not properly taken care of in the present House Bill 417 and I ask that this particular feature be considered and adopted.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President and gentleman of the Senate, the idea behind this amendment is commendable. I can appreciate it because the gentleman from Allegheny is now getting into my family relations, several of whom would benefit by this increment.

The only thing I can say for or against it is what I have said on the other amendments—you will either distort the budget, or, if you do not increase the subsidy, you will have to pay it back home.

My sincere recommendation to Senator Rahauser is that he in his town, and I in my town, try to get our school districts to give this recognition to returned servicemen, but I can not agree with the amendment.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President and members of the Senate, on these amendments, the purpose of them is clear and they are in accordance with the suggestion which I rather carelessly made on Tuesday of this week on this floor.

It seems to me that some very careful and serious consideration ought to be given to those stalwart members of the teaching profession who saw fit to stay at their posts when the high prices of the lush war earnings made it very attractive to leave the less glamorous callings of life. Our teachers did, to a large extent, a very extended percentage, remain at their posts, not for any personal gain, certainly not for any personal glory, and I think the Legislature of 1947 is manifestly unfair if no consideration is given to their faithful services.

In making these remarks, Mr. President, I am mindful of the spirit and the purpose of the amendments as presented and passed and adopted—those amendments presented by the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Homsher. I notice that his amendments, other than increasing first-class district increments from $175 to $200, do virtually nothing for the great band of many thousand of teachers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

They do, however, increase very substantially the increments and the salaries to school administrators in the state of Pennsylvania. Mr. President, it seems reminiscent of the old adage that he who has gets and he who has nothing shall have taken away even that which he has. That is too bad, Mr. President, because the administrators have not done too badly throughout the years. It is not the administrators of the schools that need the help in this day and age, it is the school teachers, and if our school system is to stand as a proper system in the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, we ought to consider the administrators less and the great band of teachers more, and it seems to me here in the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Rahauser, we have an opportunity to do a very little bit, not very much, for that great band of teachers.

In answer to my good friend and colleague, the gentleman from Schuylkill, my able and learned colleague, Senator Wagner, the budgetary requirements for these amendments are small, there is enough in the bottom of the barrel, just the gleanings will take care of this amendment, which would be a token of reward for services during the emergency period.

It seems to me the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Rahauser, ought to be adopted.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask, for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BARR, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

So the question was determined in the negative.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will state his point of order.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, in the two last prior roll calls I noticed that two members of the Senate were recorded as voting "present" and I would like to have a ruling by the Chair on the point of order whether it is permissible under the rules of the Senate to be recorded as voting "present".

The PRESIDENT. If a member has an interest in it he may be so recorded.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, as I understand, the President has stated "the yeas and nays shall be taken" and in accordance with that I find no place for voting "present".

The PRESIDENT. If a Senator has some kind of interest in a subject before the Senate he has a right not to declare himself either "aye" or "no", and can vote "present" and the Chair so rules.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, under what rule does the Chair so state? If a Senator has an interest he certainly can vote "no".

The PRESIDENT. What is the question of the gentleman from Cambria?

Mr. HALUSKA. Under what rule, Mr. President, does the Chair base that decision?

The PRESIDENT. The Constitution permits a Senator to do that.

Mr. HALUSKA. It does not, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Constitution of Pennsylvania so provides.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, under the Constitution it says that the "ayes" and "nays" shall be taken.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has ruled that a Senator may vote "present" if he has an interest. However, if the gentleman from Cambria desires to take an appeal from the ruling by the Chair, that is his privilege.

Mr. HALUSKA. I will not take an appeal, Mr. President, but I think the ruling by the Chair is wrong.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, I offer another set of amendments and ask that they be read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 1229), page 21, lines 16, 17 and 18, by striking out all of said lines.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, the purpose of this amendment is to give some recognition to the beginning teacher. Under the present act, as I understand it, there are no increments permitted during the probationary period. It has been my personal experience with those teachers that all through the probationary period, when some increase can either make or break their spirit, they do not get any, and from the standpoint of giving some incentive to those teachers who are beginning to teach school at the present time I am offering this amendment and ask that it be considered.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, the lines that the gentleman would delete are lines that would provide that a school district does not give a service increment to a teacher during her probationary period. Under the bill which we are going to pass in this session, any teacher who gets a position to teach school will get at least $2,000; if she does a satisfactory job for two years we say to her that she can keep her job for her lifetime, under good behavior. If we are going to start a teacher at $2,000 just fresh out of school and, after two years, give that teacher tenure and a lifetime job, it seems no more than reasonable to hold off the increments until those two years have been served to prove the teacher's worth.

Again I say this provision can not be fitted into this structure, so I ask the gentlemen of the Senate to vote "no."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

2 PRESENT

Donlan,

Hare,

So the question was determined in the negative.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise on a point of inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, with reference to the remarks I made recently with regard to a member voting "present" I want to quote from Article 3, Section 33 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania: "A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the General Assembly shall disclose the fact to the House of which he is a member, and shall not vote thereon."

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria is correct in his reading of the section of the Constitution, and the Chair has so ruled. The two Senators voting "present" indicated by such statement that they have an interest in the bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, did they disclose to the General Assembly here their interest?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Cambria repeat his interrogation?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, have they disclosed their interest in open Senate?

The PRESIDENT. Yes.

Mr. HALUSKA. When did they do it, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. By their very method of not voting, showing they have an interest in the bill, they have so indicated.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, under the Constitution it is certainly clear that they must declare to the Senate their personal interest.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has ruled.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I believe in all fairness that the point the Senator from Cambria has brought up is logical and fair but I believe he should also be receptive to the answer.

The gentlemen have indicated that they have an interest in the particular matter before the House and therefore they are voting "present."

What is the use of wasting time with all this talk.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair so rules.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I do not care what the gentleman from Philadelphia states. I am a member of this body and if I am taking up his time it is just too bad for him. I have a right to be heard, whether he likes it or not.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, during the past few days I have been subjected to the utmost discomfort.

I have not minded the heat nor the long hours of waiting for the Republican caucus to make up its mind, nor even at times the lengthy speeches which have emanated from my side of the house. But when one of the Capitol pigeons decides to roost directly above my seat and then periodically insult my dignity as a Senator I think things have gone too far.

Would it not be possible for the Senate to give me some protection—perhaps a large umbrella. I appeal to my friends on both sides of the Senate to come to my aid. I thank you.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will take particular judicial notice of what the gentleman from Philadelphia has said because the Chair has had a narrow escape himself.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to say this, if a gentleman in the Senate desires to not be recorded that is entirely his prerogative. However, Mr. President, there comes a time when we all must stand and face issues as they are presented. If every member of this Senate who is a member of the law profession would not vote on any bill that deals with law, there would be very few votes on many bills here; if every medical member of the Senate would not vote on bills dealing with the medical profession, and if every member of other professions would not vote on bills dealing with their professions, then there would be very few votes on those occasions.

I am not so particularly disturbed over whether a man has a personal interest. All the insurance bills that were introduced in this session were introduced by a man who is interested in the insurance business, and that is proper, because he knows the insurance business; I have no objection to that. I personally have introduced many bills dealing with labor because I feel I know the labor question. However, Mr. President, I do not hide behind that when a vote is cast on the Senate floor.

I am not disturbed whether these men vote or not, but the gentleman from Cambria certainly has a right, a right reserved to a member of the Senate, to ask the question that he has asked. Many members of this Senate could not vote on many bills if all personal interests were divulged. All of us are living citizens of this community, the state of Pennsylvania, and as such we are interested in many of the bills presented on the Senate floor, so we will let alone the subject of whether a man votes or not; whether he votes or not determines his character and nothing else.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DONLON. Mr. President, I rise on a matter of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. DONLAN. Mr. President, I should like to make a brief statement in view of the remarks of the Senator from Westmoreland. I was one of those Senators who asked to be voted "present". The reason I asked to be voted as "present" is that I am a teacher on leave of absence and did not want to appear greedy.

Mr. President, I have worked as hard for the teachers as any man in this Senate. As far as my character is concerned, I just returned from the service, I have been wounded four times in action, I have lost a leg in action, and I feel I contributed as much to my country as any man.

I am also a school teacher, and my profession for the rest of my life will be teaching school, and I resent the remarks made by the gentleman from Westmoreland.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, some of us have not had the privilege of being wounded by the enemy.

However, sir, the characterization that I gave was not personal. There can be no other description of any person who desires to set his vote aside. Every vote on the Senate floor has a personal character about it. There is nothing in what I said that would make any remark that I made anything of a personal nature. I have been here too long, sir, to ever have any man get the express opinion that I would ever, under any circumstances, cast a personal reflection upon any individual.

What I said, sir, I still mean and that is, whether a man desires to vote or not on any question—there are men on this side too who are school teachers; there are men on this side too who are interested in the school problem; there are men on this side who are solicitors for their school districts; there are men on this side who, at times refuse to vote on many bills, and that is their prerogative, if they so desire, but it still only shows the character of the man; if he wants to get out from under by not casting a vote, that is his privilege. It does not take away from any of his record as a man and he has a right to get up on this floor and say "I do not desire to be registered as a voter on this matter because I have a personal interest."

The gentleman certainly has fought the battles for all of us and we respect him for that—there is not a man on this side who does not respect him for what he has done for all of us, for men like him have made it possible for us to be here. But just like he bared his breast and came back amongst us, some of us have some who did not come back.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, I wish to offer my final amendments and ask that they be read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Sec. 2 (Section 1220), page 15, lines 7, by inserting after the word "Education" the following: "Provided, however, that teachers of industrial arts in the senior and junior high schools and teachers of industrial subjects in the vocational schools who have had six years of trade experience and shall be the holders of a State Vocational Certificate shall be deemed to have the qualifications equivalent to a Bachelor's Degree and entitled to the salary and increments prescribed in the schedule for teachers holding a Bachelor's Degree."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, the purpose of this amendment is to create a wider interest in vocational teaching. It has recently been brought to the attention of the Senate by the Chamber of Commerce that the State Educational Department should take an increased interest in vocational education. The great trouble in vocational education is the acquisition of those teachers who are capable of teaching those subjects, as it not only takes a person who knows something about trades but also a person who can teach.

This amendment is designed to encourage people to enter the vocational teaching field, where there is a great need. It would provide for those people who have six years of shop experience, or practical experience, that their compensation would be the same as that of a teacher holding a Bachelor's Degree, and I ask that this amendment be given serious consideration because there is indeed a great need for this type of legislation, it is essential in every place in Allegheny county, and I believe what is true in Allegheny county is true throughout the state.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I fully appreciate that there is considerable merit in the gentleman's objective in offering this amendment, but I do not know whether or not this is the correct way to do it.

There is a provision in this bill that the State Council of Education, which is the group of educators who interpret the rules of this game and establish the rules under the broad laws we make, should determine the equivalent of a degree and I should like to ascertain whether that does not give the State Council of Education some latitude in setting up what might be the equivalent of a Bachelor's Degree or a Master's Degree in this field; I should like to know about how many of these men are affected and what the cost of this amendment might be. I am sincere about that because, frankly, I have no idea.

My suggestion would be, and I think I can make this proposal, that the chairman and the vice-chairman of the Senate Committee on Education will sincerely study the full potentialities of this amendment, and if it can be worked into this pattern, we would endeavor to have it adopted by the conference committee which will have to be appointed on this bill, inasmuch as we are changing a House bill.

I am perfectly willing that anybody else in the Senate express himself, but I would say for the present we had better vote this amendment down, but leave room to work it in if it is found to have all the merits claimed by the gentleman from Allegheny and will not change the picture materially.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. RAHAUSER, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

Barr,	Holland,	Leader,	Ruth,

PRESENT—2

Donlan,

Hare,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have three sets of amendments to offer at this time. I will ask that the first one be read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1241 (4), page 23, line 7, by striking out the words "seven hundred", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "one thousand"; Amend Section 1241 (4), page 23, line 8, by striking out the figures ($700), and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "($1000)"; Further amend line 8, by striking out the words "eight hundred", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "eleven hundred"; Amend Section 1241 (4), page 23, line 9, by striking out the figure ($800) and inserting in lieu thereof, the following: "($1100)".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. BARR. Seeing the Republican juggernaut working as it tonight, I will not ask for a roll call on the amendment, but I will ask that a voice vote be taken.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to offer additional amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1241, page 23, line 7, by striking out the words "seven hundred", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "nine hundred"; Amend Section 1241 (4), page 23, line 8, by striking out the figures ($700), and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "nine hundred"; Further amend line 8, by striking out the words "eight hundred", and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "one thousand"; Amend Section 1241 (4), page 23, line 9 by striking out the figure ($800), and inserting in lieu thereof, the following: "($1000)".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask that a voice vote be taken because the juggernaut is still working.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to offer additional amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 3, (Section 1241 (4)), page 23, line 7, by striking out after the word "be" and before the word "hundred" the word "seven" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "eight"; Amend Section 3, (Section 1241 (4)), page 23, line 8, by striking out after the word "dollars" and before the word "and" the figures "($700)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "($800)"; Amend Section 3, (Section 1241 (4)), page 23, line 8, by striking out after the word "thereafter" and before the word "hundred" the word "eight" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "nine"; Amend Section 3, (Section 1241 (4)), page 23, line 9, by striking out after the word "dollars" the figures "($800)" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "($900)".

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, it seems to me a pity in the state of Pennsylvania that the Republican majority would not even have the courtesy, on an important bill such as this, to send to the Chair and even read the amendments offered by the minority, but we have learned to expect, that in this session of the Legislature. So, just to enlighten the gentleman on the other side, I will tell him briefly what is contained in the three amendments I have just offered.

This session of the Legislature has appropriated the sum of $48,000,000 for educational purposes—I should say an additional $48,000,000 to what has been appropriated in past bienniums.

Mr. President, I happen to represent a first-class school district, namely, the city of Pittsburgh. Under the bill which is before us tonight, on second reading, the subsidy provision provides for the first-class school districts the total sum of $755,000.

Mr. President, I would like the Republican State Chairman for a change this evening to listen to something about this educational program, because he has not listened to one amendment that has been offered by our side this evening; Mr. Kephart has taken most of his time this evening by buzzing his ear, and I have paid particular attention to that because I know what was contained in the Republican platform.

Mr. President, the city of Pittsburgh, which I represent, and speaking now as a first-class school district, pays to the state one-sixth of the taxes which go to the state. By simple arithmetic we would expect a return from this $48,000,000 extra appropriation for educational purposes this year, the sum of $8,000,000. Instead of that the city of Pittsburgh school district is receiving the paltry sum of $755,000.

Mr. President, the first amendment that I offered, which was not adopted, would have appropriated back to the first-class school districts in the matter of subsidies $2,565,000, which is far less than one-sixth of $48,000,000, which is $8,000,000.

The second amendment which I proposed would have appropriated back to the first-class school districts $1,795,000, which is certainly much less than the $8,000,000 paid into the state funds by the people of the city of Pittsburgh. The third amendment which I offered would add $755,000.

The gentleman on the other side, Mr. Wagner, as he arose when the first amendment was offered tonight, said "gentlemen, you know there are limitations to what can be done."

Mr. President, I have seen no bill introduced by the gentleman from Schuylkill, Senator Wagner, or by any other gentleman from any other county, where the people in their districts are going to be taxed by this Legislature, as will the bills we have passed, the personal property tax, the mercantile tax, the per capita tax, and so forth, which will have to be paid by the people of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh to pay some of the freight under this bill.

I do not like to appear, or try to appear, I should say, Mr. President, as a hero for the first class school districts; I would far rather Mr. Geltz or Mr. Walker had gotten up and offered these amendments, which in my opinion they should have done, and I also think either Mr. Kephart, Mr. Farrell or Mr. Frazier, or any of the other gentlemen from Philadelphia, should have presented the same type of amendments, if they are ringing true to the people who reside in the first class school districts.

I also watched, as these bills went through, Mr. Wagner, Mr. Hare and the rest of the gentleman interested in education, and they were very loud and lusty with their "ayes" in voting for the taxes placed on the people in the first-class school districts.

Mr. President, I just wonder how long the people in the first-class school districts are going to have to put up with the type of legislation that has been put through here in 1945 and now again in 1947, that is with regard to educational legislation for the school teachers.

There are two things to be considered in this bill. One, Mr. President, is the need for the school teacher, and secondly, Mr. President, is the need for the poor soul that has to pay his way. I very well know the provisions of the Constitution, wherein education is the problem of the state. Mr. President, I submit that it should not be a problem which is saddled on the tax payer in the first-class school districts.

I have heard, by figures, when this $48,000,000 is appropriated to all the school districts in the state, that the Governor's office has said "now we are paying forty-two per cent of the educational cost of the state." Thank God, Mr. President, that we pay something to some of the communities in some places, because the figures that I have show that Pennsylvania ranks thirty-sixth out of the forty-eight states in what the state gives back to the local communities. In other words, Mr. President, of the money taken in by the state from taxes, Pennsylvania returns to the local communities a measly figure of 14.9 per cent. I submit to you, Mr. President, that we shall have more to say on this subject tomorrow.

However, there is one other subject I want to bring up. There is a gentleman on the other side who made a statement; whether he did it out of his own mind or whether he was persuaded by the debate that was going on this evening, to make that statement he made, in my opinion it was in poor taste—he may have misconstrued the words of my fine friend, my sincere friend, Senator Dent. But I will never forget two years ago—and Senator Heyburn well remembers this—when I happened to live in Room 1804 of the Harrisburger Hotel and Senator Dent lived in 1704. As usual, after dinner we went up to our rooms to refresh ourselves, when we were going to have an evening session, and I said "Johnny, I will come down and stop for you and we will go up to the Hill together." As I got to his door I heard a loud burst of tears; just at that moment he had heard of the death of his brother, who had served in the China-India-Burma theater of war. As Senator Heyburn well remembers, we came up and spoke to him—told no one else in the Senate—and asked whether that evening we could call up first the unemployment compensation bills and the workmen's compensation bills, and we told Senator Heyburn just what had happened. Mr. President, I have never in my life ever seen a more courageous job done under such circumstances as Senator Dent did that evening, and I know that the gentleman on the other side who were made aware of that after the occasion had occurred well remember it also.

But, Mr. President, going back to the bill before us, I ask the gentleman on the other side who have so graciously now voted to tax the people in Pittsburgh a per capita tax, a personal property tax and a mercantile tax, and God save us if we get that monstrosity of Senator Frazier's, a gross receipts tax back home, to just allow us a wee bit—in other words, Mr. President, we are asking for an additional $755,000 out of $48,000,000. If you are not gracious enough to do that, it is a message back to the people in the first-class districts that the political bosses, and I do not mean the Education Board in Philadelphia, but I do accuse right on this floor at this moment Dave Harris, the Republican leader of Philadelphia, of selling out the people of Philadelphia and at the same time trying to sell out the citizens of Pittsburgh.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, inasmuch as this probably will be the last move on this bill tonight, I trust I may have indulgence to just say a few words about this Pittsburgh and Philadelphia situation.

A gentleman in England during the war promised his people nothing but blood and sweat and tears. Well, we did not quite have bloodshed but, for the information of the Senator from Allegheny, I think it is only fair to state that we had sweat and tears on the part of the Allegheny and Philadelphia county Republican Senators in their desperate efforts to do exactly what has been proposed in these amendments.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Schuylkill yield for a moment? I notice he said Philadelphia and Allegheny Republican Senators, and that is the point at issue in this whole bill, that never to my mind has anyone from a first-class district been called in on any of those conferences with the exception of one day, up in Room 402, when Representative Costa of the city of Philadelphia was allowed, as a representative of a first-class district, to sit in at a meeting of the combined committees of education of the House and Senate to discuss what was needed in the first-class districts.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I do not care to debate the personalities of it—I had no part in the appointing of the committee, I sat in with them by invitation. But I repeat to the gentleman who just spoke that he could not fight more valiantly where it counts for Pittsburgh and Philadelphia than have the Republican Senators from those counties. More of us than they might think are very fond of Philadelphia and very fond of Pittsburgh. I go to Philadelphia frequently and have a nice time; my family will probably hitch-hike down there today to hear the Music Festival. I teach a Sunday School lesson about life once in a while and talk about the Pittsburgh smoke that I saw in traveling through Western Pennsylvania, and also recall some pleasant experiences there.

However, Mr. President, I think it is only fair that we examine the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh situation so that some of those very grand school people whom I have learned to know well in the last six year, who have spent considerable of their time here in the interests of their schools, their subsidies and their salaries, will understand there is no discrimination or prejudice against them.

The state of Pennsylvania decided to do something about what educators have asked for for generations, something about seeking equalization of educational opportunity, and two years ago the state of Pennsylvania did just that. We set up a figure of $1,800 as the least amount of money that ought to be spent for any group of twenty-two pupils in a high school, or thirty-two in an elementary school and in order to guarantee equalization of opportunity, the state said, "that is $1,800 for each group of children, whether it be in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh or Cranberry Junction" and the state also said "We want you to raise locally just five mill of this, based upon your local assessed valuation as used for county purposes." Pennsylvania did not tell them what figure to use. Pennsylvania did not determine the real estate values in Allegheny county or in Philadelphia county. We said "You tell us, according to your valuations and the riches back home, how much you can pay on a five mill basis." We said the same to Pittsburgh as we said to Tamaqua, and when they gave us that figure we provided the difference between that and $1,800 in the outlying rural districts. But we did something more in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. We found they were richer than we thought and when their figure came in to show what they could pay, they were far under this $600 minimum subsidy which had been set by the state.

As a matter of fact, I say to the Senator from Allegheny, Senator Barr, that where my school district only gets the actual difference between their five mill local rate and $1,800, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia get far more than they would be entitled to on that basis. Under Act 403, if it were not for the minimum subsidy which was set up, Pittsburgh would have been entitled to $78 per teaching unit. Pittsburgh is over-paid to the extent of approximately $1,500,000 per year, and Philadelphia, on the same ability-to-pay basis, is over-paid $2,611,000 per year. These were the rules and they are favoring nobody.

The government says to me, if I make $10,000 a year, that I shall pay a tax according to the government's rules; if another gentleman makes $20,000 a year, he must also pay according to his capacity to pay, to help the government, and that is why Pennsylvania set up subsidies to run its school system.

If the gentleman from Allegheny is right that they are abused, then it must be true that our subsidy system in Pennsylvania is wrong, and yet the National Educational Association, whose decisions and whose pronouncements are accepted almost as biblical for educators, said that the system set up in Pennsylvania in 1945 made it the number one state in the union in fairness of distribution of school funds, and that is a matter of record.

What happens in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh is something like this: the two counties, Allegheny and Philadelphia, account for forty per cent of the total capital investment in manufacturing industries in the state; thirty-nine per cent of the value of products manufactured in Pennsylvania, and forty per cent of the value added by the manufacturing industry in all of Pennsylvania, are found in those two counties.

You have either got to keep the rule in balance, you have either got to follow our schedules, which have been rated number one in the country, or, like Paul Bunyan, you have got to pull something out of the hat in an arbitrary manner and give something to one district and not to another.

I ask the Senate to vote "no" on these amendments to keep the subsidies in proportion.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I am somewhat concerned and annoyed at the scolding that the distinguished Senator from Allegheny has given me, but I am more concerned and annoyed at his charge that Dave Harris has sold out Philadelphia.

Mr. President, I think this young gentleman should realize that it has always been the obligation of the rich to take care of the poor. In the great state of Pennsylvania the rules have been set up and we must all play the game according to the rule; the rule that provides that the wealth of Philadelphia and the wealth of Pittsburgh must take care of some of the poorer parts of the state. The same provision provides nationally, where the rich states along the eastern coast contribute to the poorer and less successful states in the western part of the United States.

But when we, in our desire to raise $6,000,000 to help this program along and we created a plan which was approved by the Governor, and then, when by distinguished, friend, Dave Harris, is charged with selling out Philadelphia, I think that is a calumny that ought not be allowed and permitted and I will not stand for it.

I believe that this monstrosity that I have created was created with a great deal of wisdom and a great deal of thought, and if the distinguished Senator from Allegheny had the brains I thought he had, he would grasp the opportunity to take this monstrosity, because it would permit them, probably to avoid this head tax, which is no more than an exaggerated poll tax, which we outlawed years ago.

It is only regretful to me that the situation has been created, not from my making, but because the democratic Board of Education of Allegheny county tried to play ball with Philadelphia.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Philadelphia yield for a moment?

Mr. FRAZIER. No, Mr. President, I would like to finish what I have to say.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a Point of Order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the gentleman from Philadelphia has made a gross misstatement about the Board of Education of Allegheny county.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will not interrupt. The Senator from Philadelphia has the floor. The point of order of the gentleman from Allegheny is not well taken.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I will state the facts and the members of this Senate can determine where the error was and where the politics lay.

Two weeks ago, in a conference with the Governor of the state of Pennsylvania, I sat with Mr. Harris from Philadelphia and we determined upon a program, a program that was going to permit us to go on with the bill Senator Geltz had introduced, divorcing Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and which was introduced a week before this conference.

At that conference, Mr. President, it was agreed that we in Philadelphia would have our own plan, which was to be a mercantile tax and a personal property tax, and Allegheny county was to have a head tax, because they thought it might be wise, and an added real estate tax, but what they proposed to do there was no concern of mine.

The Governor shook hands with us and agreed that we in Philadelphia would carry out our program.

To my amazement, when I came back the following Monday, the program was scrapped, the divorce was not to take place, and the Board of Education in Allegheny county, which I understand is democratic, and the Board of Education in Philadelphia, had decided that they would stay married—I do not know why—and in order that they stay married they would take my mercantile tax.

I also found out that the $3,000,000 revenue which the city of Philadelphia obtains from a personal property tax might be jeopardized by this program, but I did not change it. We just broadened the base of our mercantile tax and created this monstrosity which is now the subject of criticism but which monstrosity I believe will be instrumental in making it necessary to collect a personal property tax, and if Allegheny county would adopt this they would not have the monstrosity of a head tax out there.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I believe my colleague from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, said in the beginning of these remarks that he did not think all the brains or information available on boards of education, or on education as a whole here in Pennsylvania, were on the Republican side, and there has just been demonstrated in very plain language the lack of knowledge on education in Pennsylvania.

The gentleman from Philadelphia, as usual, got up here and said that the board in Allegheny county was a Democratic school board. First of all, Mr. President, the board in Allegheny county—we are speaking of Pittsburgh, Allegheny county and Pittsburgh, their school districts are altogether different. And for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, so that he will be enlightened and not be confused, I would like him to know that the Board of Education in Pittsburgh is not run by any politicians. It is one of the finest boards that was ever appointed. It was appointed by judges interested in education, and I can say without fear of contradiction from anyone that no one can point a finger at that board and say that it is either a Democratic or Republican board, because it is a board for the benefit of the schools of Pittsburgh and the only interest they have is betterment of education in Pittsburgh.

I am sorry the gentleman from Philadelphia, who is so much in love with a man by the name of Dave Harris, could not at least get away from his love for Dave Harris for a moment and not confuse that with the educational system, because I say to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier, you are the first member in the Senate who injected politics into this educational bill, by getting up on the floor and saying Sam Harris or Mike Harris or Dick Harris—I don't remember which one it was—Dave Harris from Philadelphia told the Board of Education what they should have and went to the Governor and said to the Governor, with the great help of the most able lawyer of Philadelphia, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, talked this matter over with the Governor, and the Governor said "Well, Dave, if that is what you want for the Board of Education and the schools of Philadelphia, we will give it to you."

Mr. President, I do not think, knowing Jim Duff as I do, that he would agree to that type of petty politics. I have more respect for Jim Duff and I have known him over a number of years. For your benefit, Mr. Heyburn, I have known him since I have been a kid.

If you want to interrogate me, Mr. Heyburn, I wish you would take the floor.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may we have order; the gentleman is entitled to be heard.

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will be in order; the gentleman is entitled to be heard.

Mr. HOLLAND. I would like to go into a few statements, Mr. President, made by my colleague from Schuylkill, Senator Wagner, and I wish to grant that Mr. Wagner has a lot of interest in education, but when he says other states are taking the Pennsylvania formula as an example or as a way of solving the educational problem, I say to Mr. Wagner that is not true.

First of all, Mr. President, this formula is the most damnable formula that was ever written because of what it does; it absolutely does one thing, it encourages and gives money to dishonest assessments in the state of Pennsylvania. We in Pittsburgh and in Philadelphia—for Mr. Frazier's benefit; I hope he listens, he may get some knowledge, a little bit of knowledge which I have secured through serving on education committees, not only of the state, but once in Congress.

In this Senate each session we come here and we say the next session we are going to correct the evil and each session we do the same thing; we make a lot of promises and that is the end. Each session ends in one way, dishonest assessors in the state get for their school districts dishonest money. We in Pittsburgh have an honest assessment Board. For the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Frazier, and I know this may sound something terrible to him, coming from that great political city of Philadelphia, our assessment board in Allegheny county is all non-political—six of our members were picked by the Real Estate Board of Pittsburgh—and we know that when they make an assessment is an honest assessment and Dave Harris can not reach that type of board to change those assessments.

For your information, Mr. President, I think it would be well to have a brief explanation on the record as to how this money is derived.

First of all we divide the assessed valuation by the number of teaching units. Say, for instance, if you had $1,000,000 assessment and you had twenty teaching units, you would divide one million by twenty, which would give you wealth behind each teacher of $50,000. Then you multiply the quotient that is obtained by five mills. In this case we would have $50,000 which, multiplied by five mills, equals $250.

Next you subtract this product—and I want you visitors here to know that these lawyers always makes these things complicated so that the poor taxpayer can not read it or even understand it—next you subtract this product from the basic equalization amount for the 1945-1947 biennium per teaching unit—say for instance $1,800—which would give $1,550.

Next you take the remainder obtained by the basic equalization amount to get the standard reimbursement fraction, which in this case is $1,500 over $1,800, or eighty-six per cent.

Finally, Mr. President, to get the district's appropriation on account of teachers' salaries, multiply the standard reimbursement fraction times the number of teaching units times the basic equalization amount. In this case, Mr. President, using this figure, eighty-six per cent multiplied by twenty, multiplied by $1,800, equals $31,000. If this district is paying its average teacher $1,800, it is apparent that eighty-six per cent of teachers' salaries come from the state. The average teachers' salary in Pennsylvania at this time is around $1,600.

You can see what happens where a school district uses a full assessment. What you are doing to Pittsburgh and Philadelphia by a full assessment is cheating them out of what rightfully belongs to them.

If you were fair and wanted to write a fair bill, and regardless of what is said here tonight, you of the majority party have that responsibility of writing an honest bill—I have heard member after member, including the two Republican members from Pittsburgh, Senator Geltz and Senator Walker, at teachers' meetings, I have heard these two same Senators time and time again stand before teachers in Pittsburgh and tell them if they were elected they would see that this evil was corrected. They are back here again but they have not corrected the evil and again Pittsburgh and Philadelphia are being cheated out of their fair appropriation.

Now you have left this bill go to the dying days of this session and it is one of the most important bills in the Senate, and you are going to railroad it through—you have the votes.

This bill is the most unfair bill, the most dishonest bill, as far as the counties which have full assessments are concerned, which you could write.

There is only one fair way, if you want to be fair and honest, and that is to appropriate this money by the pupil, by giving so much money for each pupil, and regardless of what district they are in they should get the same amount of money from the state, because what you are doing, you are saying to the county, go out and be dishonest in your assessments and the next session of the Legislature the General Assembly will give you more money. It is dishonest, it is encouraging dishonestly in political matters, and I do hope the gentleman from Philadelphia, the next time he gets up and compares his district to the city of Pittsburgh, knows what he is talking about. We have a good Board of Education, we are proud of it, it is non-political and if Dave Harris—and I do not think he does, he might pretend to—if Dave Harris is running the schools of Philadelphia, I am very proud to say that there is no politician in the city of Pittsburgh running our schools, because they are run by real Americans on the Board of Education who are interested only in education and the pupils in the schools.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I am terribly chagrined and I feel properly scolded and I want to deeply apologize to the distinguished Senator from Allegheny if I have in any way offended his delicate sensibilities. I am very sorry I ever thought for a minute they ever play politics in Allegheny county and I again apologize.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, sitting here reminds me of the period of debate that occurred two years ago, and I remember distinctly at that time, and it was about this time that I was finally recognized and had the last word on the matter.

As I stand here before you and recall, as Senator Holland intimated, that these same debates have occurred and reoccurred for the past five or six sessions, always during the last week of the session. I can conclude only that what we are doing, what we think we are accomplishing for the school teachers of this Commonwealth, is nothing but piecemeal efforts, a patchwork proposition, to cover the situation for the moment.

The gentleman from Schuylkill, Senator Wagner, I think touched the crux of the problem when he stated—I may not quote him too accurately—but when he stated generally that the Commonwealth is in effect forced into this position because some communities are better able to afford to take care of their teachers than others.

Unfortunately, under the formula and the set-up that we now enjoy in this Commonwealth, that is true. Basically the problem is one of money. No matter how we argue it, it is one of money and where the money is to come from. If we applied the principle as stated by the gentleman from Schuylkill, Senator Wagner, we would have no such problem because if that principle were applied to the citizens throughout this Commonwealth and the basis for taxation was upon the ability to pay, then we would have enough to take care of the school districts as they should be taken care of and there would be no problem and no recurrence of this situation every two years.

However, Mr. President, I know from past experience that is not for the present and I am able to envision, two years from now, if God spares me and my electorate supports me, that I shall be back here within forty-eight hours of the death knell of another session, having perhaps the last word again on this same issue.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BARR, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

Barr.	Holland.	Leader.	Ruth.
Dent.	Jaspan.	Margie.	Stiefel.

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, as we approach the end of the 1947 session of this General Assembly it is quite apparent that House Bill 417, as amended, represents the best that the teachers of Pennsylvania can expect. I intend to vote for House Bill 417.

However, I want to say to you, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this bill does not represent fulfillment of the promises made to the teachers of this Commonwealth nor does it give to them the fair deal to which they are entitled. Pennsylvania, the greatest state in this Nation, in my opinion, should be the leading state in the field of education.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President and members of the Senate, on the question of whether we will agree on House Bill 417 as amended, as a representative of a county which has in its two second-class school districts it seems to me we have not heard anything about second-class districts. We have heard about the first-class districts, and I sympathize with their problems. The teachers in first-class districts, under the amendments presented by the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Homsher, are to get an increase in their increments from $175 to $200 a year, but as I read the bill with all the amendments, the second-class district teachers are virtually forgotten.

There are twenty large second-class districts in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We are doing something—and I think a fine job—for the fourth-class districts, and a little bit for the third-class districts, but it seems to me that the burden, the penalty for honest and faithful service, falls on the teachers of second-class districts.

While I am not going to raise my voice in dissent on second passage of House Bill 417, I am not at all happy at the penalty that we are putting on the teachers in the twenty-second-class districts in the Commonwealth.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—33

Becker.	Farrell.	Lord.	Tyler.
Berger.	Frazier.	Mahany.	Wade.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I wonder if those who voted "no" on the passage of this bill on second reading realize that if we had all done that we would have virtually assured no additional school moneys.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, a vote "no" is a vote against the bill as it is now written; those of us who protest against the treatment of the school program that has been committed here with regard to the school teachers and their requests, reasonably presented for a raise, register our protest by a "no" vote.

I am willing to submit, Mr. President, that if the Democratic members of this Senate were not willing to subjugate their will in the matter of this legislation as it now appears before this Senate, they would have to vote "aye", but we register a protest because we feel, Mr. President, that this bill does not give to the school teachers of Pennsylvania, and to education itself, as represented by increases in salaries to the school teachers of this Commonwealth, that which they are justifiably entitled to, and so we register that vote regardless of what the implications are, because we know full well no matter what our opinion may be in the matter, it is steam-rollered by the majority vote that is taken, regardless of the merits of any of the amendments that we may offer.

RESOLUTION

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, as I understand it, the order of business before the Senate at this time is the matter of the calendar, which was interrupted in order that printing time might be saved, so that communications from the House could go across the desk, and for that reason I object at this time to presentation of a resolution by the gentleman from Westmoreland, as being not in order.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, during a session we always grant, at the right moments, privileges of the Senate for any purpose that a Senator might desire. Whether we interrupt the procedure for the reading of House messages or whether we interrupt the proceedings for the individual pleasures and purposes of a Senator, that is the privilege of the Senate as a whole.

Mr. President, I do not at this time appreciate the objection to the reading of the resolution. If we are going to strictly adhere to the rules of this Senate in all matters I fully subscribe, Mr. President, to that procedure. If, however, we are going to accord to one a privilege we do not accord to another, I do not subscribe, Mr. President.

Therefore, Mr. President, we shall allow the objection to sustain but I assure the majority that rarely do I take the position that I will now take, and every rule of the Senate will be enforced, including those of the Constitution.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I am terribly sorry that there should be any misunderstanding of the objection and I am terribly sorry at this late date during the session the relationship, the very pleasant one, which existed between the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, as minority leader, and myself as majority leader, should be strained, and I trust that it may not be so.

I think the gentleman from Westmoreland, for the men on his side, as well as myself for the men on this side, are anxious to do the work that needs to be done. We are faced with a printing problem. I certainly have no objection and do not want to be understood as trying in any wise to interfere with the right of the gentleman from Westmoreland to present his resolution.

As I understand it, the resolution which he is going to present will be one which will be the subject of some discussion by himself as well as by members on this side of the Chamber, and I feel that it will be mutually advantageous to the men on that side of the Chamber if we may be permitted to go forward with this order of business, so that we may not have to sit here all night, too many nights in a row in order to permit the printer to catch up with the work that is being done here, and that is the only reason for my objection, I assure the gentleman from Westmoreland, and when that order of business is over he certainly has the right to take as much time as he chooses to take in the presentation of that matter and I trust very earnestly we may not strain this thing by more than necessary unpleasantness.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 8, page 9, line 13, by striking out the part word "in-"; Amend Section 8, page 9, line 14, by striking out all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred forty-eight,"

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to explain my amendment. I have not altered the bill in any way shape or form, with the exception of making the effective date January 1, 1948. This is a revolution in politics and especially in taxation, and the bill provides they shall have thirty days' notice from the time the taxing body shall pass an ordinance or resolution.

Mr. President, I do not believe that our local taxing bodies are qualified sufficiently to be able to digest this bill. I know personally that we have men now serving as councilmen and school directors who have the office by default and certainly those men should not be called upon to pass judgment upon such a bill.

This bill, Mr. President, is one of the most dangerous bills ever placed before any body for a vote. Under this bill a taxing body can tax anything they see fit that is not now taxed by the Commonwealth. They may go as far as taxing pew rent in a church; they can tax your shirttail; they can tax your grandmother's teeth, there is no limit to it. I oftentimes wonder why we assemble here as members of the General Assembly and then pass on to the communities back home such broad powers.

I wonder where it is going to lead to. It takes a lot of courage to write such a bill and more courage to vote for it. If ever we are placing our properties in jeopardy it is under this bill and despite the bill as written I am only asking that we delay the effective date until the first day of January, in order to give the local authorities sufficient time to analyze the bill and determine what may be taxed, if anything.

I do not think it is a bad amendment, I think it will favor all of us, and I trust that this Senate will consider this amendment.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am having some amendments prepared to House Bill No. 800 which are not yet ready, and therefore I am going to ask the privilege of the Senate, or the courtesy of the majority, to have the knowledge that tomorrow on third reading I may have the opportunity to present those amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Amend Sec. 1 (Section 301), page 6, line 16, by striking out the figure "2.5, and inserting in lieu thereof "2.7."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire as to the effects of the amendments proposed and their purpose.

Mr. DAVID P. REESE. Mr. Speaker, the reason for the amendment is that in order to comply with the Federal situation different percentages had to be inserted in order that proper attainment of different credits be had by the employer.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this bill is drawn for the specific purpose of making a seventy-five million dollar contribution to Baldwin, Westinghouse and the General Electric. Those three concerns and several others have had labor difficulties which impaired their status of contribution to the unemployment fund. Under the Unemployment Compensation Fund Act as it now stands, under the schedules it would probably require those three companies and several others about three years to overcome the handicap occasioned by labor difficulties, and it is my understanding that this bill as drawn carries schedules and percentages that would enable those three companies and several smaller companies to regain the lost ground and get a lower unemployment compensation percentage within a much nearer period of time than is possible under the existing Act. So I am asking whether this amendment as proposed was designed to cure that defect or to continue it, or whether this bill as it stands is still a contribution of some seventy-five million dollars to our big corporations.

Mr. DAVID P. REESE. Mr. Speaker, it is not my idea that the suggested propositions of Mr. Andrew's are the purpose of the bill. In some states there is even a reduction to a rate of zero-zero. Here in Pennsylvania, however this bill has seen fit only to go to .05, which is one half of the minimum now provided for under the merit rating bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. That is true, Mr. Speaker. I am not technically qualified to discuss the percentages of this bill or the time schedules of the time limitations. I have said that the effect of these schedules is to enable several major companies or corporations to recover a favorable position so far as unemployment compensation rates are concerned, notwithstanding serious labor difficulties, and I am contending that it was because of that situation that this bill is presented. I am asking, Mr. Speaker, whether the schedule proposed by the gentleman from Dauphin is less generous or more generous, if that could possibly be, than the bill as it came from the other chamber.

Mr. DAVID P. REESE. Mr. Speaker, as to whether this would fall into any category of generosity, I would say if anything that it was less generous. However, as I said before, in order to make it comply with the Federal regulations the amendments offered by myself were to comply with the Federal regulations. That is all. As to the original intent as indicated by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, I am entirely unaware of such a fact and I did not take any part in such a proceeding. I merely offered this amendment to a new schedule of merit rating, certain amendments necessitated by the Federal regulations, this new schedule being a further reduction in the minimum of merit rating from one percent to one half of one percent.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, from a purely technical point of view, the gentleman probably does not know any thing more about the figures on the technical schedules than I do. So, I will state that if he has received any instructions or admonitions from the Federal authorities that in all probability it represents a purely security process, so far as a fundamentally bad bill is concerned. So I will not take a position against his amendments, reserving the right to suggest that we vote the bill down when it comes up on final passage.

Mr. DAVID P. REESE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Cambria, I wish to say that he first stated he did not know much about this bill and insisted that the proponent of the amendments knew just as little as he did about the rates. In the event that the contrary is so I would be delighted to be enlightened.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to move that this judges' salary bill, together with the amendments, be recommitted to the Committee on State Government, to stay there and never be brought back on the floor of the House.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield until the amendments have been read?

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments offered by Messrs. Tompkins and Greenwood for the information of the House.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend bill, page 5, by inserting between lines 10 and 11, the following: "Section 10. The salaries or compensation of the associate judges, not learned in the law, of the courts of this Commonwealth, shall be as follows Each such associate judge shall receive six dollars ($6) per day for every day he may be employed in the discharge of his official duties: Provided, That the salary of no such associate judge shall be less than seven hundred twenty dollars ($720) annually. Each of said judges shall continue to be entitled to mileage, as now provided by existing law."

Amend Sec. 12, page 7, line 11, by striking out the word "and."

Amend Sec. 12, page 8, line 2, by inserting after the word "County" the following: "and the act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, 258), entitled "An act fixing the salaries of the Associate Judges, not learned in the law, of the Courts of this Commonwealth."

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would request a copy of the amendments and at least five minutes to consult with my associates concerning the effect of the amendments.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will direct the amendments to be forwarded to the Minority Leader immediately. Without objection we will postpone for five minutes action on these amendments. The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, very well.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, on my previous motion I would now like to be recognized to move to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will please state his motion.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on State Government, to stay there and not be brought back on the floor of the House.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman withdraw his motion to permit me to make a brief statement?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to speak on my motion, but will withdraw it for the time being.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the gentleman will withdraw his motion temporarily?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT WITHDRAWN

Mr. WORLEY. Yes, I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I think we should know that he have had three amendments submitted today. The first amendment we have already heard. The second set of amendments which were introduced by me were merely technical amendments to clear up legal technicalities, and the third set of amendments are to reduce the judge's salary as proposed in this bill.

It seems to me that rather than recommit the whole bill we ought to consider these amendments first. After the amendments have been considered and acted upon, then if you wish to vote on a motion to recommit I see no reason why you shouldn't, but at least we ought to consider these amendments.

In the final amendment, the third one which I understand will be discussed and voted on, we will have an opportunity to vote if we wish to reduce the salaries of the judges in this proposed bill. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I request that the motion to recommit be defeated at this time.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman wish to withdraw his motion until the amendments are acted upon, or does he desire to make the motion now?

Mr. WORLEY. I will withdraw it temporarily, Mr. Speaker, until the amendments are acted upon.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman for withdrawing his motion until all the amendments have been considered. Is the Chair correct in that assumption?

Mr. WORLEY. And then I would make my motion to recommit, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will recognize the gentleman at that time.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Tompkins, adding a new section 10?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I think the Members of the House should have some explanation of my amendments. We have in our Commonwealth under our judicial system judicial districts comprising more than one county. In those districts we have under our constitution associate judges unlearned in the law. There are two in each county. We have the districts of Monroe-Pike, Adams-Fulton, Union-Snyder, Wyoming-Sullivan, Warren-Forest, and Cameron-Elk, as far as I can recall throughout the state.

The present salary of these judges is five dollars per diem, provided though, that they be paid not less than $600 per year. This amendment of mine will give a general twenty per cent increase, making the per diem six dollars a day and the minimum annual salary $720.

The amendment to add a new section 10 was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The amendments just agreed to were to add a new Section 10. The Chair understands there has been an agreement between those who have offered amendments as to the order in which they shall be presented to the House.

We will now consider the amendments to Section 10 offered by the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins.

The tenth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment offered by Mr. Tompkins to section 10?

It was agreed to.

They were agreed to.

The twelfth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Tompkins to section 12?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now lay before the House for consideration the amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths. The amendments will be read for the information of the House. Has the Minority Leader received a copy of the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. We have a copy of the amendments, but I think probably it will be necessary to interrogate the gentleman to obtain some information as to the import of the amendments.

The amendments offered by Mr. Griffith, were read as follows:

Amend Section 4, page 3, by striking out lines 3 and 4 and inserting in lieu thereof the following: With the exception of the judges of the courts of common pleas of Dauphin County the annual salary of each of the judges of the courts of common pleas learned in the law in judicial districts having a population of more than two hundred and fifty thousand and less than one million inhabitants shall be fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000) in judicial districts having a population of one hundred thousand and more but less than two hundred fifty thousand inhabitants shall be fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000) in judicial districts having a population of sixty-five thousand or more and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants shall be twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) in judicial districts having a population of less than sixty-five thousand inhabitants eleven thousand dollars ($11,000) The amount of the salaries to be paid under this paragraph in the several judicial districts shall be determined and fixed according to the population of such districts as ascertained by reference from time to time to the last preceding decennial United States census."

Amend Section 7, page 4, line 12, by inserting after the word "be" the following: "twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500)."

Amend Section 7, page 4, by striking out line 13 and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and the annual salary of each of the other judges of said court shall be twelve thousand dollars ($12,000)."

Amend Section 7, page 4, by striking out lines 14, 15 and 16.

Amend Section 8, page 4, line 18, by striking out the words "increased two thousand" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) and the annual salary of each of the other judges of said court shall be twelve thousand dollars ($12,000)."

Amend Section 8, page 4, by striking out line 19.

Amend Section 8, page 5, by striking out the lines one to three inclusive.

Amend Section 9, page 5, line 7, by striking out the word "forty" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "twenty."

Amend Section 9, page 5, line 8, at the beginning thereof, by striking out the following: "($40)," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "($20)."

Amend Section 11, page 5, by striking out line 14.

The fourth section was read

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 4?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman what the affect of the amendments to section 4 that has just been read will be on the present law. Specifically I would like to know whether he is increasing the salaries or decreasing them or just what the amendments do.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, these amendments do not increase or decrease the proposed salaries in the bill at all. There was a technical error committed in framing the bill, at the end of the bill having to do with the remuneration, and thereby some of the salaries the judges would receive under the bill would be the amount of the increase and not the basic salary itself. That is the first basic change, in order to correct that.

The second change is to reduce the amount received by a judge sitting outside his district from forty dollars to twenty dollars per day. In the bill there is a provision to pay forty dollars, and this amendment reduces that to twenty dollars, which is the present amount.

The third change is to make the effective date the date the bill is signed rather than June 1st, which has already expired. These changes that I have mentioned before are only technical changes in order to bring the bill properly into line.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the gentleman, and I understand that he has now explained not only the amendments which have been read to Section 4, but all the amendments that he has submitted, including Sections 7 and 8, is that correct?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to be certain that I properly understand the gentleman from Philadelphia. Does he mean to say that the bill as drafted by the State Bar Association and passed upon by the legal lights in the other chamber comes to us in a form that would have denied the sitting judges the salaries they are now receiving, and would have given them only the amount of the increases carried in the bill?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I understand that there were amendments made in the Senate which took the bill a little out of line in its form, and not the original bill proposed by the Bar Association, which was properly drawn,

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman have any support for his contention from the legal lights on the other side of this House?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I know no more about this bill than the gentleman who is asking the question.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, might I ask from what source; from his own store of legal lore or from advice received from competent legal authority as to where the amendments originated?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. I would deny on the one point, and answer the other in the affirmative, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman evolved it from his own store of legal lore, is that correct?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Well, Mr. Speaker, I looked the bill over myself and was advised by those who ought to know, who saw the same.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am astonished, I am amazed, and I have confirmation of my original theory that we should have passed this along the lines of merit rating, giving judges who were good judges and who knew the law promotions, and then when they had appeals against them, when they were reversed on appeal and they didn't know the law, then you send them back to school at public expense, and then if they came back on the bench and were continually reversed, then knock them out completely. But to be told that this bill be before us, which has the sanction of the judicial brains of this state, has come before us in this position amazes me, and I still would ask whether there is any lawyer over on the majority side other than the gentleman from Philadelphia that agrees with his contention, because if there is not I would feel impelled to vote against his amendment.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I for one agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths, in what he has aid on the floor of the House.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Will the gentleman tell me, Mr. Speaker, if he knows, what the present salary is of the President Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Just a moment, I will be glad to give you that information—fourteen thousand dollars, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Do I understand the gentleman's amendment that he has explained to Section 8 amending page 4, line 18, by striking out the words "increased two thousand" and inserting in lieu thereof the following "twelve thousand five hundred dollars,"—is the gentleman reducing the salary of that particular President Judge?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. I understand, Mr. Speaker, that this is made to conform with the basic scale, and then the increase is added.

Mr. READINGER. Can the gentleman tell me where in the bill the salary is increased from twelve thousand five hundred dollars according to the gentleman's amendment.

Mr. READINGER. At the bottom of page 2, Section 4?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. That's what I said, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Does that grant the increase?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. That's right.

Mr. READINGER. Will the gentleman tell me which district the County of Allegheny is?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. The fifth.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 4?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The seventh section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 7?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it is my original theory, that after all, notwithstanding the inconsistencies in this bill, after all the judges, the beneficiaries of this bill will ultimately decide as to what this Legislature intended to do, and I have no doubt that they will interpret the doubt in favor of the bench.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 7?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The eighth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 8?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I request again to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Griffiths.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Will the gentleman kindly explain how this bill, which in Section 4 his new amendment reads "The annual salary of each of the Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas of the first and fifth judicial districts shall be sixteen thousand five hundred dollars," and Section 8 of the proposed amendment reads: "The annual salary of the President Judge of the County Court of Allegheny County shall be increased two thousand dollars,—pardon me, he strikes out the words "increased two thousand dollars" and inserts in lieu thereof "shall be twelve thousand five hundred dollars, the annual salary of each of the other judges of said court shall be twelve thousand dollars." What will be the salary? One sixteen thousand five hundred and the other twelve thousand five hundred?

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I think it would be logical if the House would pass this bill over temporarily until we can explain these matters satisfactorily to the gentleman rather than waste the time of the House.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I think we are all a little confused. I think I have caught one of the difficulties, and if the gentleman from Philadelphia will have the time to listen I think we can clear it up. I think Section 4 applies only to the Court of Common Pleas, and Section 8 on page 4 applies to the County Court of Allegheny County. I think that is clear. The others are still somewhat confused, but if the gentleman wishes to pass it over that is all right. I think that the inquiry on the part of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, can be explained in that manner.

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, in order to further clarify the record so far as the inquiry of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, concerning this provision, I might say also that that provision applying to our County Court also takes care of our judges of the Juvenile Court, who by law receives the same salary as the judges of the County Court.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 8?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The ninth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 9?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

On the question

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Griffiths to section 11?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair now lays before the House the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 9, by striking out at the beginning of the line the words "twenty-three" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "twenty-two."

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Mazza to section 2?

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza. The judges of this Commonwealth have received no increase for eighteen years, whereas in the last five years approximately ninety-nine per cent of the state employes have received a series of increments running approximately like this: in 1942 they received a fifteen per cent increase; in 1945 they received a ten per cent increase; in 1946 they received a fifteen per cent and a five per cent increase. The present budget provides for another ten per cent increase planned this summer, and this ten per cent increase will in effect be a fourteen and a half per cent increase over the salary in 1942. In short they have been raised since 1942 on an average between forty-six and fifty-nine and a half per cent. Many of them also received a number of merit raises in addition to these overall increases.

The Judges are not county officers and should not be compared with them any more than school teachers and Legislators should be compared with county officers.

Judges are the only elected officials who must surrender their business when they assume office. If a lawyer, insurance agent, or merchant is elected to any other office he generally continues as a lawyer, insurance agent or merchant and does not go out of business. Even Cabinet officers can and oftentimes do continue in their business or profession at least to a limited degree.

Most of the Judges now on the bench gave up their law practice and assumed office when state employes were exempt from all income tax. They are the only elected or appointed officials of whom that is now true. Their salaries were set in 1929 on the theory and with the understanding that they were exempt from all income tax.

The salary schedule as proposed by the present bill before the House is a reasonable one. It operates to increase the present salaries approximately twenty per cent, which is far from being out of line with the present cost of living. In the higher brackets of our Supreme and Superior Courts it effects approximately a seventeen per cent increase. The salary of our Juvenile Court Judge, of course, is covered by the proposed increase for the County Court Judges in Allegheny County, therefore I wish to submit to you Members of the House that in this time when we have taken it upon ourselves to raise the salaries of all governmental officials and employes to the extent where we have raised salaries of state employes over forty-five per cent, that we are not out of line when we grant an increase to our Judges, who hold one of the most responsible offices in this Commonwealth, approximately a twenty per cent increase, and I therefore ask that you vote down the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I understand now that we are concerned with only the salary increases of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and that is the Section upon which we are voting, and not any other?

The SPEAKER. We are discussing Section 2 and the amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, under the present bill at the present time as I understand it, the Judges of the Supreme Court are paid nineteen thousand five hundred dollars, and the proposed bill is twenty-three thousand dollars, and the amendment would reduce the figure below twenty-three thousand dollars, is that right?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, on some of the other sections I am in agreement with the proposed increases. I am opposed to the increases in the case of the Supreme Court.

The SPEAKER. We are voting on the Supreme Court amendment, which would reduce the salary of the Supreme Court Justices from twenty-three thousand dollars as now contained in the bill to twenty-two thousand dollars. You are now about to vote on the amendment.

Mr. LAYER. The Speaker said we were voting to reduce. I understood that we were voting to increase the salaries, and this increase is ten per cent.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in error. That is the reason the Chair was trying to explain the amendment again to Section 2. As the bill now reads the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court receives twenty-three thousand five hundred dollars and the other members of the Supreme Court would receive twenty-three thousand dollars, under the present provisions of the bill. Under the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza, he would reduce that figure in the present bill to twenty-two thousand dollars for the members of the Court.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire what is the present salary that these gentlemen learned in the law are receiving.

The SPEAKER. If the Chair is correct, he believes it is nineteen thousand five hundred dollars. Is that correct?

Mr. ANDREWS. Nineteen thousand five hundred dollars.

The SPEAKER. Nineteen thousand five hundred dollars is the present salary. Under the bill now before the House it would increase the salary of the Supreme Court Judges to twenty-three thousand five hundred dollars for the President Judge and twenty-three thousand for the other members. Under the amendment offered by the gentleman from Washington he is reducing the amount now contained in the bill to twenty-two thousand dollars for the members of the Court.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to remark that the gentleman who introduced these amendments was certainly very modest, very modest indeed.

Mr. LAYER. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I understand that the bill as written increases the salaries from nineteen thousand dollars to twenty-three thousand dollars and to twenty-three thousand five hundred dollars.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. LAYER. And the amendments that the gentleman from Washington has offered also increase the salaries of the Judges, but three thousand dollars, is that correct.

The SPEAKER. That is correct. It increases it by twenty-five hundred dollars.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments by Mr. Mazza to section 2?

On a rising vote, 36 Members voted in the affirmative and 80 in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The section was agreed to.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Mazza to section 3?

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, I urge the defeat of this amendment for the same reasons as I outlined a little while ago and urge you to support the bill without the amendment.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I believe the Members are still confused as to the rates.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Weiss, has a lot of company. The Chair was trying its best to clarify the issue in the former amendment. The Chair might say that the present schedule of the Superior Court Judges is fifteen thousand dollars. Under the proposed schedule in Senate Bill No. 94 it would be twenty-one thousand dollars. The amendments of the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza, if the Chair reads correctly, would reduce this amount to twenty thousand three hundred dollars for the Chief Justice and nineteen thousand eight hundred dollars for the other members of the Superior Court.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, then an "aye" vote on this amendment would amount to a straight ten per cent increase on the present salaries. Am I correct?

The SPEAKER. You would be voting an increase over the present salaries, but a decrease from what is presently contained in the bill.

Mr. WEISS. And a "no" vote would mean eighteen to twenty per cent increase over the present salary?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I understand that an "aye" vote increases the present salaries ten per cent?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, we might say it the other way, that the amendments now pending increase the present salaries of the Superior Court at least four thousand three hundred dollars.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I certainly am confused. I have followed this fifteen per cent or four thousand dollars, and even with this amendment it seems to me quite an increase. Another thing that confuses me, being a Member of the House for a second term, fairly new yet, but we thought it was a terrible thing that we were going to increase the teachers' salaries so that those who had gone through college and had taken all the degrees that were obtainable could finally make four thousand or forty-eight hundred dollars a year. Now we think it is a terrible thing if we don't increase our Judges by six thousand dollars per annum. If we can give our Judges a six thousand dollar increase where they are already making fifteen thousand dollars a year I think this bill that we are trying to get through for our teachers is certainly inadequate. We have the teacher who is certainly as well educated as those learned in the law, and some of them in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh get four thousand eight hundred dollars for it, but unless he is able to keep up a pretty good appearance, he is not going to get that forty-eight hundred dollars. I am certainly opposed to anything but a ten per cent increase unless it is all over the board. They say that our officials have been granted increases in the past, and that is not true.

In our county our county commissioners and our other public officials have been getting the same salary for the last ten years. Our Judges are getting twelve thousand dollars, and that to me is pretty good money. Under this he would get fourteen thousand dollars, and I certainly cannot see more than ten per cent, so I would be in favor of this amendment and definitely against the bill.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I have always been impressed with the Democratic Floor Leader's statement, often repeated, "Don't pull any lawyers' tricks on me," and it seems to me that these bills—and I have lots of lawyer friends, understand, and I respect them highly, but it seems to me that this is a judicial trick instead of a lawyers' trick. I repeat what I said before, that this amendment seems to me modest, most modest, too modest.

Mr. MAZZA. Mr. Speaker, to clarify the issue that is before us we are increasing the salaries of the Superior Court Judges from their present salaries. They are getting an increase of five thousand three hundred dollars. In my opinion it is not a bad increase.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state that the schedule that has been presented to it, giving the present and proposed salaries, contained an error in typing. The Chair in reply to the question addressed to the Chair as to the present salaries mentioned fifteen thousand dollars in the Superior Court, and that is not correct. The present salary is eighteen thousand dollars, and under the bill proposed it would be twenty-one thousand dollars. Under the amendment it would be decreased to twenty thousand dollars.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know when the time comes to make my motion.

The SPEAKER. Patience is a virtue.

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, in order to clarify, I want to point out this one thing, the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza, operate to give a ten per cent increase over the present salaries. The bill as passed in the Senate and as it came over to the House provides for an increase of between seven-teen and twenty per cent.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, again I am confused. Six thousand dollars increase on fifteen thousand dollars?

The SPEAKER. The Chair just explained that he was in error in the schedule that had been presented to him; that there was a typographical error. The Chair said fifteen thousand dollars, it should have been eighteen thousand dollars.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, that's only three thousand dollars; that's only half as bad.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it now if we vote for Mr. Mazza's amendments we will vote to increase the salaries of the Superior Court Judges from eighteen thousand to nineteen thousand eight hundred dollars.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. READINGER. And if we vote against the amendments and for the bill as now drawn we will vote to increase them by three thousand dollars a year, is that correct?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Mazza to section 3?

On a rising vote 45 Members voted in the affirmative and 82 in the negative. The question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The section was agreed to.

The fourth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by Mr. Mazza to section 4?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza, please explain the amendments to Section 4?

Mr. MAZZA. Mr. Speaker, this is becoming more confusing, and I can hardly answer the question myself. What the whole amendment is, it simplifies this whole thing. It means approximately ten per cent increase over the salaries that they are getting now. This proposed increase that is proposed in the bill is approximately an eighteen per cent increase, which I honestly feel is too high. What it is doing is to cut it down to ten per cent, so if you approve these amendments, which are on a ten per cent basis, I think we will go through a lot faster.

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, again I want to urge the Members to vote down the amendments for the reasons that I outlined earlier in the afternoon.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MAZZA. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. May I ask the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Mazza, inasmuch as the cut to ten per cent did not prevail for the Judges in the higher brackets, would he not be in a better position to now withdraw the rest of his amendments?

Mr. MAZZA. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Washington now withdraws the remainder of the amendments not acted upon.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The fifth and sixth sections were read and agreed to. The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Messrs. TOMPKINS and GREENWOOD offered the following amendments:

Amend Title, page 1, line 3 from end of title, by striking out the word "and."

Amend Title, page 1, next to last line of title, by inserting after the word "and" the following: "certain associate judges not learned in the law, and."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill together with the amendments be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker.—I yield to the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to speak on my motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was unaware of that fact. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Worley.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, this judges' increase salary bill is so enormous that it amounts to an outrage on the State Treasury at this time in the light of recent taxes and recent expenditures. Too often previous Legislatures were afraid to stand up against the Judges, and too often the lawyers in the Legislature have been afraid to oppose the Judges because they have to come before the courts with their cases, or because some of them expect to be judges themselves.

Remember that after the raise is made it will never be lowered. I don't know what this House will do. The vote on this motion will tell. Do you think the Judges need this raise? I certainly say they do not. Let me give you an example: In Adams County we have a Judge who gets nine thousand dollars per year. He also gets twenty dollars per day plus mileage to sit in any other court in assisting such other court, then he gets twenty per day plus up to ten cents per mile to travel from Gettysburg to Carlisle to handle all court matters in Cumberland County since the death of the late Judge Reese, and in addition to all this he is guaranteed a retirement of four thousand five hundred dollars per year for the rest of his lifetime.

Now remember, he is one of the lowest salaried Judges in the state, since his district has less than 65,000 population. The salaries range from nine thousand dollars to twenty thousand dollars under the present law. Then we are asked by the Pennsylvania Bar Association to raise his and other Judges' salaries. Do the Members of this House think it is proper and just to come here and waste public money in this outrageous manner? I have been informed that this bill will cost the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania almost one million dollars of the taxpayers' hard earned money. I submit that I for one will try to protect the people of Pennsylvania from this attempted lavish waste.

Mr. HALLER. Mr. Speaker, as I said earlier today, I want to urge you to vote in favor of this bill and against the motion now to recommit. As I said before, in 1929 when the Judges' salaries were fixed by law it was taken into consideration that they would not have to pay any income tax, and that they would be given a salary commensurate with the work that they do, and that they had arrived at probably the highest station that a member of the Bar could achieve. Since that time I know that in my own County of Allegheny we have had competent lawyers that would have made excellent Judges, but by reason of the salaries offered them could not accept such a position of trust, in other words it was possible for them by reason of their skill and talent to secure employment as counsel in private practice which would far exceed any reimbursement or salaries they would receive as a Judge. So far as the cost is concerned to the taxpayers, we of this House have witnessed a series of bills which have resulted in increases in salaries to all of our public officials, and I urge you to vote down this motion, for the reason that we are giving to some of our highest public men of this Commonwealth only the reasonable increase which they deserve at this time.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to raise my voice in opposition to Mr. Worley's motion to recommit. He speaks about the increased cost to the Commonwealth of these increases, and there is no doubt there is an increased cost, but the increased cost in the future if we do not raise the salaries when they should be raised, through getting a lot of mediocre Judges on the bench, would be tremendous in comparison with the cost under this bill.

In the State of New York I am informed that the Judges equivalent to our Common Pleas Judges receive twenty-five thousand dollars a year. Many of our Common Pleas Judges of Pennsylvania today are receiving as low as nine thousand dollars, some twelve thousand dollars and some fourteen thousand dollars. I just want you to bear in mind the tremendous cost that we might incur if we let the judicial branch suffer by keeping their salaries at such a low figure that good men will not aspire to office in the future, but will retire to the practice of law and get a great deal more money than they are getting today.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, since the attorneys have teamed up on my colleague over there, I think it is only fair, and I think he had the only sensible motion when he made his motion to recommit this bill. My colleague, Mr. Brown, had the gentleman withdraw his other amendments due to the fact that the amendments affecting the Judges in the higher brackets were defeated. Honestly I say to you that I think the membership of this House owes it to the people of Pennsylvania to act intelligently and to recommit this bill to the Committee so that we can get a bill that we know something about. I certainly am in favor of the motion to recommit.

Mr. GRIFFITHS. Mr. Speaker, I cannot agree with the last speaker. The purpose of this bill is to increase the Judges' salaries from approximately seventeen per cent to twenty per cent. It has been pointed out that there have been no increases since 1929 in the salaries of the Judges. Since that time the Federal income tax has taken anywhere from twenty-two to thirty per cent of the salaries. You understand that the Judges were not taxed in 1929 when the present Judges' salaries were fixed. In addition, however, the state employes, probably ninety-nine per cent of them have received an increase of nearly fifty per cent. The Judges have not. I do not wish to go into those reasons, but I wish to state, Mr. Speaker that there is a fundamental reason here for us to consider, and it is the independence of the judiciary.

If we are going to underpay our Judges we are not going to have any independent judiciary. I can say to you today, and you all know that the safeguard of the rights of the people of this nation is equal justice under the law. We need the law to protect us, and if we force our Judges to go into private business and other fields of endeavor in order to maintain themselves and families on the scale in which a Judge and his family in a community must maintain themselves, I say that we are going to force our Judges to be dependent on something other than the interpretation of the law and that we are taking a step in the wrong direction. Therefore we should defeat this motion to recommit.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, not being a lawyer, far be it from me to get into this legal argument. There is just one point that I want to bring out on this particular bill. I always go on the theory that we must pay public officials a good salary if we want to get good public officials. I want to point out the inconsistency in this bill where we raise the Judges' salaries eighteen per cent, and we passed a bill the other day to raise the pay of the county commissioners and other officials ten per cent. In my county, which is a second class county, our Judge has to take care of the duties of the Court of Common Pleas and Orphan's Court and other duties whereas in these other counties they have a Judge for each court. I think it is only fair that the Judges back in the counties where they do all the business should receive the same salary as the Judges in these other counties that only take care of one court.

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like anyone in this House to tell me how many Judges have resigned because of low salaries. They say we will lose our Judges. Now, I submit to this House that from nine thousand dollars to twenty thousand dollars,—I believe I could live on it and I believe anyone else in this House could live on it. After all this confusion and uproar in this House I believe that the Members don't know what they are voting on now. I think we should send it back to the committee and give it further study, even for those Members who are for it, and for those who are opposed to it certainly we should send it back and keep it there.

Mr. WEISS. As a Democratic lawyer where we have four Democratic judges in our county, it would serve my political expediency to vote for this particular measure but I cannot see the fairness of it. I believe if we give a ten per cent increase to the Judges the same as all other officers, even though they might be deserving, the people would understand that, but to put them in a class by themselves certainly does not seem to be fair. And I say to the Members that I am one lawyer who does not expect any political favors by voting for an increase which is not merited, and I believe that due to the fact that the Members could not see fit to give the other officials any more than ten per cent of an increase, that such an increase to the Judges would be unfair, especially due to the fact that the salaries are as high as they are. The other officials were on the basis of five thousand dollar or six thousand dollar salaries, and it certainly ought to be recommitted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Section 13 In any case where a strip mining excavation after the same is abandoned is likely to result in an accumulation of water which in the opinion of the department may constitute a hazard to present or future deep mining or is likely to break out of the excavation and cause a flood the department shall order the operator before abandoning the operation to provide proper drainage for the excavation if the excavation can be drained reasonably by gravity flow

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the draining of a strip mining excavation where the accumulation of water therein will not in the opinion of the department constitute a hazard or where such water may furnish means of recreation or a supply of water for domestic or industrial uses

Section 15 Within six (6) months after the backfilling and other acts required by this act have been completed the operator shall file with the Department of Mines a completion report on a form to be prescribed and furnished by the secretary identifying the operation and stating the area of land affected by open pit mining and such other information as may be required by the Secretary before releasing the bond of the operator

Section 16 If and when the Secretary of Mines shall find that the operator has completed the backfilling and other acts as required by this act and shall receive the certificate of the Secretary of Forests and Waters that planting has been done or the payment has been made if and as required by Section 14 of this act he shall issue a release of the bond or of the cash and securities deposited. Upon the presentation of such release the State Treasurer shall immediately return to the operator the amount of cash or securities specified in its release.

Section 17 If the operator fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of the act as to any area for which liability has been provided in the bond the Secretary of Mines shall declare such portion of the bond forfeited and shall certify the same to the Department of Justice which department shall proceed to sue out and collect the amount of liability forfeited thereon and where the operator has deposited cash or securities in lieu of bond the Secretary of Mines shall declare such portion of the deposit forfeited and shall direct the State Treasurer to pay said moneys into a special fund for the use of the Department or to proceed to sell said securities to the extent forfeited and pay the proceeds thereof into the said special fund. Such moneys or securities so forfeited and collected shall be used by the Secretary of Mines to pay the cost of backfilling and other acts required by this act and the cost of planting as required by Section 14 of this act and any balance not used for these purposes shall be returned to the operator.

Section 18 In the event that an operator or owner desires to conduct deep mining upon the premises affected by strip mining the said operator or owner may make this fact known to the Secretary with the request that the backfilling of pits and the planting as may be necessary to permit deep mining be deferred during the period of such deep mining. In such case the Secretary may defer the backfilling and planting. If such request is made by the owner he shall secure by bond the backfilling of such pit and the planting after the deep mining operation has been completed if the request is made by the operator the bond filed under Section six of this act shall stand as security for such backfilling and planting.

Section 19 The right of the operator or of any other person whose property may be adversely affected to a hearing before the making of any final order or adjudication by the Secretary of Mines or by the Secretary of Forests and Waters and to appeal therefrom shall exist in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the Administrative Agency Law of June 4 1945 Pamphlet Laws 1388 and the Rules of Civil Procedure promulgated by the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth. Where an investigation is conducted at the request of the removed employee the commission within ten days after the completion of such investigation and hearing or sooner if practicable shall make its findings and conclusions which shall be forthwith certified to the appointing authority. If the commission finds that the action complained of was taken by the appointing authority for any political partisan religious or racial reason or because of labor union affiliation the employee shall be reinstated to his position without loss of pay. NAYS—0

NOT VOTING—2

Trout,

Turner,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 762, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred ninety-five, (P. L. 408), entitled "A supplement to the twenty-fourth section of an act, entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation approved the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine,' approved the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, amending the twenty-fourth section, by providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of one-half of the two percentum tax on premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities and boroughs within this Commonwealth," by providing for the payment over of the foreign fire insurance tax by municipalities to relief fund associations and pension funds covering employes in fire departments.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 762 divides the Volunteer Firemen Insurance Fund into two parts, one-half going to the Firemen's Pension, where there may be paid drivers or unpaid firemen in the same department. The other half may be divided or left with the Relief Fund. This bill seems to be very inequitable. The drivers or whoever might be in touch with the Pension Fund would derive all the benefits that accrue to all the other firemen and then derive the pension benefit as well. So that in the event of death the pensioner's estate would receive two benefits, and because of the inaccuracy, I move you sir, that this bill be recommended to the Committee from whence it came for further consideration.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Stockham.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Bucks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STOCKHAM. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, sometime ago we had in this House a bill to send back to the fire departments in the political subdivisions two per cent of the foreign fire insurance. What effect would this particular bill have on the bill already passed?

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, the bill that we passed is simply a distribution of the unpaid balance. This in effect would give to the Pension Fund one-half of the regular fund that goes to the volunteers, and the other half would remain for the funds as they are used now.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I am awfully sorry but I was out of the room and I understand there was a motion before the House to recommit Senate Bill 762.

The SPEAKER. That is correct, Printer's No. 403.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I would rise in opposition to this motion to recommit—

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, I have been asked to hold this over temporarily so that more information can be had upon the part of those who wish to object.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the bill will be passed over temporarily. Will the gentleman withdraw his motion to recommit?

Mr. STOCKHAM. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objections and the bill is passed over temporarily.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. The Chair has just been informed that at this evening's session there will be some controversial matters brought before the House prior to the festivities that have been planned. The Members are urged to be present promptly at the time which will be announced later. All the Members are urged to be present. There will be bills on the calendar and there will be communications from the Senate. It is most important. If there are any Members here who know of Members who are absent this afternoon, will they please see that those Members are present this evening.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 802, as follows:

REPORT FROM WELFARE COMMITTEE

Mr. WALTON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to make this report for the Chairman of the Welfare Committee:

The Committee of Welfare is having placed upon your desk the report of their visits to the Mental Hospitals of the State and I would like the report made part of the records of the House, rather than taking the time to read it into the records. I want to state for the information of the House that my Committee did an excellent job. They gave of their time and energy in order that they could better understand the problems confronting Pennsylvania in regards to the mental patients.

Mr. Speaker, I also want to compliment the superintendents of the Mental Institutions and their entire force for the splendid work they are doing under the great handicap of lack of personnel and equipment.

Mr. Speaker, I would also like to say that I was one of the Committee that went on that trip. I know that in many ways our mental hospitals are in bad shape. One of the arguments that I have used to my people who have objected to the emergency taxes that we have put on at this time is that the taxes on pop and the taxes on cigarettes are going to be used to better these mental hospitals. Anybody who objects to these taxes, you can tell them that the ten cents extra tax that they pay or that they might spend in extra tax goes to these mental hospitals to make conditions better for our poor unfortunate mental patients in the State of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER. The report will be noted in the Journal and printed in full in the appendix to the Legislative Journal.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. WATKINS asked and obtained permission for the Committee on State Government to meet during the session of the House.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 812 as follows:

An Act relating to milk produced in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and delivered to plants which are or may hereafter become approved by any health authority as sources of milk for New York City and the Counties of Westchester Suffolk and Nassau in the State of New York providing for a Milk Compact Commissioner designating the Chairman of the Milk Control Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as such Milk Compact Commissioner authorizing the Milk Compact Commissioner to enter into a compact or compacts with the legally constituted authorities of other states for the uniform regulation of the price to be paid producers for said milk subject to such federal consent as may be authorized or required by law providing that the Milk Compact Commissioner may become a member of an authority or a commission created by any such compact authorizing uniform regulation of prices to be paid producers as may be provided in any such compact providing that the Milk Compact Commissioner in the event of his temporary physical inability to perform any of the duties imposed upon him shall designate a deputy to act for him and in his behalf providing that any such compact agreed upon by the several states which shall become parties thereto shall expressly provide that all milk delivered by producers under the terms and conditions of said compact or the provisions of any price fixing or other order issued pursuant to the authority of such compact and distributed as milk or cream in Pennsylvania shall be priced commensurately with the prices of milk produced in Pennsylvania not covered by such compact or order and re-delivered resold or otherwise disposed of or marketed in any marketing area in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as such prices are fixed by the then existing rules regulations and prices legally established in Pennsylvania for such area providing for reports to be made upon request to the Governor of the Commonwealth and providing for methods for the transmittal of such compact by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Congress of the United States for Congressional consent as required by Article 1 Section 10 Clause 3 of the Constitution of the United States

Preamble

Whereas The production sale and distribution of milk and certain milk products in this Commonwealth are attendant with serious conditions affecting milk producers milk dealers and consumers of milk the following legislative findings of fact with respect thereto are hereby made

1 Milk is the most necessary human food vital for promotion of the public health and for development of strength and vigor in the race It is a most fertile field for the growth of bacteria and therefore its production and distribution have been surrounded by more costly sanitary requirements than those of any other commodity in this the third greatest milk producing and consuming state of the nation

2 Milk consumers are not assured of a constant and sufficient supply of pure wholesome milk unless the high cost of maintaining sanitary conditions of production and standards of purity is returned to the producers of milk If this is not done large numbers dispose of their herds or engage in milk strikes and other producers supply unhealthful milk or milk of lower quality because of financial inability to comply with sanitary requirements and to keep vigilant against contaminations Public health is menaced when milk dealers do not or cannot pay a price to producers commensurate with the cost of sanitary production or when consumers are required to pay excessive prices for this necessity of life

3 Approximately eight thousand milk producers residing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and many thousand producers resident in other northeastern states including principally Pennsylvania New York New Jersey and Vermont ship milk to the New York City Metropolitan Market Because of the interstate character of much of the milk entering this market great difficulty has been experienced in stabilizing said market and securing to the widely scattered producers prices adequate to insure a constant supply of pure and wholesome milk for the consumers The problem in these states is a common one that cannot be effectively met by legislation enacted by them severally Uniform regulation and control of all milk and cream entering the same market is essential to the production delivery and sale of adequate pure and wholesome milk and cream for the health and welfare of the consumer public residing in New York City and the Counties of Westchester Suffolk and Nassau in the State of New York and because of the interstate character of much of this milk and cream the required uniformity can be accomplished only through the joint action and agreement of the states affected in the nature of an interstate compact made effective by the consent of the Congress of the United States as contemplated in Article 1 Section 10 Clause 3 of the Constitution of the United States

Whereas public control of the milk industry especially as to prices paid to producers shipping both intrastate and interstate should remain under control of law to the end that the prices received by producers shipping in interstate commerce shall be commensurate with the prices received by producers selling their milk intrastate

Whereas it is necessary to preserve promote and protect the public health and welfare and to prevent fraud and imposition upon consumers and producers by continuing to treat the production transportation manufacture processing storage distribution and sale of milk as a business affecting the public health and affected with a public interest

Section 1 The Chairman of the Milk Control Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby designated and appointed as Milk Compact Commissioner and vested with authority to confer with legally constituted authorities of other states and of the United States with respect to uniform milk control as applying to milk delivered to plants which are or may hereafter become approved by any health authority as sources of milk for New York City and the Counties of Westchester Suffolk or Nassau in the State of New York Said Milk Compact Commissioner is hereby authorized to confer and negotiate with and to enter into an agreement or interstate compact with such authorities of New York New Jersey and Vermont and Massachusetts if it chooses to join to provide for the uniform regulation of the price to be paid producers for such milk subject to such federal consent as may be required by law The Milk Compact Commissioner may if such compact shall so provide become a member of any authority or commission created by such compact for the purpose of conducting investigations securing information holding hearings fixing prices and issuing orders rules and regulations

Section 2 Any such compact as hereinbefore provided may include or provide the method and procedure for establishing by orders of any authority or commission created thereby among other things formula prices equalization of producer prices assessment of administrative expense against handlers and compensation for services to producers Such compact shall be applicable only to that milk which constitutes the regular and the necessary reserve supply for New York City and the counties of Westchester Suffolk and Nassau in the State of New York Any such compact shall provide that in fixing prices for milk consideration shall be given to all the elements of the cost of production and other economic conditions which affect the market supply and demand for milk and its products and shall provide for the fixing of such prices as will reflect such factors insure a sufficient supply of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest. Any such compact shall provide that any order issued thereunder shall fix a price of any milk covered by such order and distributed in Pennsylvania as fluid milk or cream which shall be commensurate with the prices established by law on other milk produced in Pennsylvania and distributed in the same market in Pennsylvania as milk or cream and not covered by such compact order. Such compact shall also provide that any milk delivered by producers for re-sale or processing as milk or cream in the city of New York or the counties of Westchester Suffolk or Nassau in the State of New York and diverted from those markets to any market in Pennsylvania shall be priced at a price commensurate with the prices legally established by the authorized authorities of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the area and market to which such milk or cream is so diverted and sold.

Section 3 The Milk Compact Commissioner in the event of his temporary physical inability to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by this Act shall designate a deputy to act for him and in his behalf.

Section 4 The Milk Compact Commissioner shall make such reports to the Governor of the Commonwealth relating to the duties performed hereunder as shall from time to time be requested by the Governor.

Section 5 When and if an agreement and compact shall be agreed upon by and between the legally constituted authorities of the States of Pennsylvania New York New Jersey and Vermont and Massachusetts if it chooses to join such compact it shall be the duty of the Pennsylvania Milk Compact Commissioner hereinbefore designated to transmit such agreement or compact to the Governor of this Commonwealth and if the Governor shall determine that the same conforms to the intent purpose and requirements of this act he shall so certify and transmit or may join with legally constituted authorities of the other states that are parties to such compact in transmitting the same to the Congress of the United States requesting the consent of the Congress thereto in conformity with the provisions of Article 1 Section 10 Clause 3 of the Constitution of the United States.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GOFF asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to direct my remarks to the gentlemen from Philadelphia who yesterday conducted themselves in truly American-like manner in accepting defeat on certain legislation.

I wish to convey to them from their innumerable colleagues in this House the knowledge that if this Legislature had emerged upon this floor it would have had many friends among us here.

When the Declaration of Independence tells us that all men are created equal and that each citizen is endowed by the Creator with unalienable rights, it lays the foundation for a truly human appraisal of every social problem. That simple and evident statement bespeaks the dignity of every human individual. It implies the proper relationship between all men. It acknowledges the necessity of keeping God in the picture. It is not merely the primary principle of an American social credo. It is the expression of a universal norm.

There can be only one intelligent and honest norm for judging the correctness of our attitude in social relations. It is the norm of a human being considered completely and comprehensively. You cannot determine the proper relationship of a human being to a machine unless you first recognize the difference between the two. You cannot establish the relationship between a colored man and a white man or an Indian and a Jew unless you first acknowledge what is common to both. If there is an essential difference in their natures, there must be an essential difference in their relationships. If they enjoy a common nature, any differences must be accidental and circumstantial.

No one who accepts the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence can hold the theory of white supremacy and still be a true American. When that prejudice is carried over to deprive a man of his right to join a labor union or to job equality, the false premise participates of subversion of sound social order.

No man can accept the concept of "inalienable rights" bestowed upon every creature by his Creator and then hold a fellow-man in contempt because he is colored, Catholic, or a Jew.

"Inalienable rights" have no meaning except in the light of the spiritual nature of man. Man has no meaning, his life has no significance, unless they be predicated on a relationship to the Creator.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have listened to the very noble sentiments expressed by the gentleman who has just addressed the House. I sympathize with his creed; I accede his philosophy. I regret the fact that his cheers were not expressed in terms of a vote. It is very enlightening to learn that there was so much sentiment in favor of FEPC legislation in the event that bill appeared on the floor. I say it is very enlightening to learn that, but it is very disappointing to read the record and see that there was so little assistance in any effort made to bring the bill out upon the floor. There was always the expedient of trying to bring the bill out which the gentlemen from Philadelphia who so eloquently addressed this Assembly yesterday could have utilized. They could have at least given the gentleman who just spoke and the other gentlemen whose hearts panted for the opportunity of voting for FEPC. They could have been given the opportunity to do so had they voted to discharge the Committee. I am unable to understand why the motion to discharge the Committee from consideration of the FEPC bill introduced by myself should have been stamped as a party measure and should not have received a single vote on the other side of the House, where there were apparently so many people wishing to vote for the FEPC if they only had the chance.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING THE SPEAKER

Mr. SORG offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1947.

On the character and ability of the presiding officer of a deliberative assembly depend, not only the dignity and smooth operation of its proceedings, but also the success of the results of its deliberations.

The House of Representatives of this Commonwealth, through a long line of Speakers of notable qualifications, has attained a position of eminence among the legislative bodies of the Nation.

Outstanding among the group of men who have wielded the gavel of authority at the rostrum of this House is its present Speaker, the Honorable Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, a personable man, born to lead his fellows, not through force, overbearing and intimidation, but through a friendly and pleasing manner, an enviable sense of humor, a courage to do the right, and a firmness combined with graciousness, alike in conferring favors and in denying demands.

The Speaker of this House is a typical Pennsylvanian. He springs from the good stock of Lehigh County. He is and will always be one of them. He is a man of the community. His friends and neighbors, with one accord, love him and are proud of him. The scope of his community is ever widening. It now takes in the Commonwealth—it will soon take in the Nation. The community spirit will always go with him. He will always be, as he is now, a man among men, and enjoy an irresistible personal popularity.

A young man, with the sagacity that often comes only with years, a sincere and forceful public speaker, with a pleasing voice and ready command of language, he possesses a friendly dignity, which assures him of retaining the position which he holds in the public esteem, and which will carry him far in his chosen career of public service, to the envied goal of an outstanding statesman.

It is with a feeling of personal loss that the members of this House contemplate the fact that at the session of 1949, when he would again have been elected Speaker, Frank Lichtenwalter will not be available; but they rejoice in the greater honor that will have been conferred on him as a member of the National House of Representatives, and in the wider opportunity afforded him to serve his Commonwealth and his country.

In the rapidly changing complexions of the House of Representatives during recent years, it became necessary to find and develop new leaders. It was not by chance that the member from the country district of Lehigh County was decided upon for the important post of majority leader in 1943. His services and his reelection in 1945 bear witness that the choice was good. His elevation to the Speakership in 1947 was inevitable. As Speaker he has further distinguished himself as a capable and efficient administrator and a fair and courageous presiding officer, who has brought the dispatch of legislation to a new high; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the congratulations of the House of Representatives be tendered to the Honorable Franklin H. Lichtenwalter for the success with which he has accomplished the difficult tasks that have been his lot, for the gracious manner in which they have been performed, and for the position of leadership and personal popularity that he has attained; and be it further

Resolved, That we, as individual members of the House, thank him for his courteous and considerate treatment of every question and objection that has been raised, for his patience with, and understanding of our problems, and for having guided the proceedings of the House with such skill that we have arrived at the end of an extremely difficult session without avoidable friction; and, as we prepare to leave, we wish him happiness and continued success in his new field of activity, and the comfort and satisfaction of results attained, and in his private life, the bountiful blessings of good health, good fellowship and a happy home; and be it further

Resolved, That, in evidence of the sincerity of our felings, the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives is hereby directed to certify a copy of this resolution and to transmit it to the Honorable Franklin H. Lichtenwalter.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Chairman, I am so glad to present this resolution, because proud as I was at the beginning of the session to nominate the present Speaker of this House, I am doubly gratified at this time to offer commendation to him for the remarkable job he has done.

When this session opened we all knew that everything was going to be all right so far as our presiding officer was concerned, but no one dared to dream that our Speaker under all the circumstances could possibly perform the magnificent job that he has performed. It was his intensive work and his effective planning that made it possible to maintain a schedule during this session of the Legislature in a dignified and decorous way such as I have never seen before. Every last one of us admires him and respects him for his ability to keep things going in the right kind of way, and we are all deeply grateful to him for his tireless efforts on our behalf. His unselfishness and his loyalty to this House have been glorious to see.

It is because he has endeared himself so very much in the hearts of us all, and because we are all so very proud of him, that there is a general feeling of regret and remorse among us as we anticipate his departure from our midst, and we reflect that this is his last session in this legislative hall.

But in the knowledge that his next step forward—to another Legislative Hall, the Congress of the United States—is just another milestone in a brilliant career, our most sincere good wishes go with him. As his leadership and his accomplishments here have been of great credit to us all, so also will his future activity wherever he goes continue to reflect credit on that body where his public service first began to make itself known. We also hope that the ties he has made here will bring him back once in a while, and that we may see him occasionally.

As the work of the House goes on in the future, his absence will be felt; the contribution he has made will long be remembered; and, as a man among men, he'll be sorely missed.

It is with great personal satisfaction that I present him this gift on behalf of all the Members.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Chairman, it is with pleasure I second the resolution offered by the Majority Leader, the gentleman from Elk.

Without reservation, I endorse the tribute it pays to the Speaker of this House.

For Mr. Chairman, the gentleman from Lehigh, who has presided over the sessions of this House, has ably maintained a creditable tradition without in any way sacrificing his particular convictions and without diminishing by one iota his adherence to the program to which his party is committed. He has, as Speaker, functioned within the limits prescribed by parliamentary law. Without infringing upon the rights of the majority he has accorded the minority every proper consideration.

Upon occasion he has even leaned over backwards as a result of his evident desire to be fair.

While I have no desire to pluck any laurels from the brow of the poet laureate of the House, the gentleman from Wayne, nevertheless I claim the privilege of embodying some faint indication of the sentiments that move in lines which, while they may not scan, will at least rhyme.

And so I say:

We could wish for Lichtenwalter
A laurel wreath and not a halter
On his throne he rules in might
He hopes for peace but is prepared to fight
Before his throne we state our case
He draws no line of wealth, of race
In all his rulings he has been fair
That's why he adorns the Speaker's Chair.
We're pleased to note he has the hope
To give his talents a wider scope—
To serve the people of the Nation
With the national Congress as his station
If he should win his Congress race
It will take some doing to fill his place
Stockham says that we're closing school
If so we've been subject to a kindly rule
So where'er Lichty goes and his race we scan
We'll say—and mean it—there runs a man.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss.

Mr. FISS. Mr. Chairman, it is with pleasure, I assure you, that I rise to second this resolution. Franklin Lichtenwalter and I came up the hard way. We served during the war years of 1943 and 1945 as Speaker and Majority Floor Leader, and when you are associated with one who works so closely with you for four years you learn to love and understand him.

We disagreed at times, but after thoughtful consideration, we did our very best to carry out the plan which was set before us with courage and fidelity. Our present Speaker never failed in carrying out his part of the work.

During the two terms I was privileged to serve as Speaker I always felt safe and secure when our present Speaker served as Floor Leader.

In our many associations he was always courteous, kind, and eager to do that which was best for his fellow men.

He was honest, knowing what he had to go through as Speaker of this House, having had some of the same experiences, he was honest in his desire to rule with equity and according to the rules of justice.

He was courageous, presiding over the Sessions of the House, and administering the affairs of the House, he made decisions without fear or favor.

He was an ambassador of good will. To create a spirit of good feeling and fellowship among the membership of the House is one of the prerequisites of restoring order. "Order is Heaven's first law." He fully realized that his first job was to preserve order and decorum. Without order the business of the House could not be carried on efficiently and effectively.

The Speaker has been faithful in action. With honesty, courage, good will, and order dominating every action the Speaker has contributed his full share in the advancement of good legislation fulfilling the desires of the people of this Commonwealth.

He leaves us with an unfinished task but with honor untarnished I know he will meet the many other problems which will confront him with the same zeal and courage.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Chairman, we come to that time in the session when we pause from the trials, tribulations and vexations of legislation, and change the verbal brickbats we are accustomed to hurl across the House into verbal floral tributes to the man who preside over this House, and to all those offices and employees who contribute so much to the efficiency, the comfort and well being of the Members of this Legislature.

Our sort of government is not always efficient. It is often bungling. But I doubt whether anybody here would attempt to debate the fact that it is the best kind of government that has ever been conceived for the average man. While we are all conscious of this fact, we are forgetful of the contribution to good government that is made by the presiding officer of this parliamentary body.

Into his keeping is not only given the destinies of the particular session in which he presides, but also the kind of legislation upon the excellence and soundness of which is dependent the well being of our people and the progress of government in this Commonwealth.

We are all too apt to pass on without realizing that the man who presides over our deliberations must not only have tact, training in legislation and experience in politics, but also must have integrity. He must have mental honesty, he must have physical endurance, he must have patience and he must have a knowledge of human nature if he is to succeed in dealing with the rest of us two hundred and seven Members of this Legislature from all walks of life, holding every sort of opinion, with every sort of outlook and with every sort of mental approach to the problems that come before us.

Mr. Chairman, when at the opening of this session, I had the very deep pleasure of voting for our present Speaker to preside over this session, I had no doubt in my mind that if those specifications were laid down as qualifications requisite for the high office of Speaker of this General Assembly, he would meet the specifications in every detail. And now as we come into the closing days I would say to him that he has not only merited the tributes that are being paid to him here tonight, but also that he has fulfilled my fondest hopes. Nor do I have any hesitancy in saying to him that he has performed his duties to this House with every bit of dignity, integrity, tact, understanding, fairness and humor that is necessary to success as a Speaker.

Mr. Chairman, I join with my colleagues in wishing him Godspeed upon his new undertaking. I wish for him the best of health, and the ability to retain that sense of humor that has been so great an asset in this session. I want him to know that we appreciate his honest and sincere outlook on life; and that as he goes forth from us he may realize that there are two hundred seven Members of this House, no matter what may be their political persuasions, who are solidly behind him.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair now recognizes the Chief Clerk of the House, Mr. Habbyshaw.

The CHIEF CLERK (William E. Habbyshaw). Mr. Speaker, you have endeared yourself to all of us who have had the privilege of working with you. Few men have been so well liked by the Members and employees of this House. You have distinguished yourself, first, the Majority Leader and later as Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Members of the House of Representatives desire to present to you this gavel. May it remind you of the many happy experiences that you have had here among your friends. May I also say that we are looking forward to the day when this gavel, or one like it, shall be used by you to call to order the Congress of the United States.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair now presents the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter). Mr. Chairman, fellow Members, again I face one of those moments when I find it difficult to express in words, the true feelings of my heart. Particularly after listening to the variety of speeches just delivered by those who have preceded me.

For weeks, all of us have been discussing the closing days of this session asking "when will we get out?" And now, that the hour for adjournment of the 1947 Session of the Pennsylvania Legislature is drawing near, I stand before you with mingled emotions of both joy and sadness. Joy, because we can return to our respective communities to perform those other duties required of us as representatives of the people. Joy, also because we have discharged our duties honorably and through cooperation we have met our responsibilities and taken advantage of the opportunities to solve the problems facing the people of Pennsylvania at this time. I feel quite confident that when the entire picture of legislation passed at this session is presented to the people of this Commonwealth, they will say to all of us that we have acquitted ourselves well, and fearlessly stood and fought for the best interests of all of the people of Pennsylvania during this entire Session.

But there is a note of sadness as we approach the hour of Sine Die Adjournment because as stated in my opening address on January 7th, there are many differences of opinion as legislation to be considered is debated upon the floor of this House, but that these differences never mar the friendship which exists among the members of this body. Therefore, there is this sad note that the many old friends we have had over a period of years and the many new friends made during this session, will be absent from the weekly scene here at Harrisburg. We do hope, however, that the Members of this House will truly cherish the friendships made during the session among the membership, and that they will welcome every occasion which will bring them together either at Harrisburg or at any other place within the Commonwealth, and that these friendships may become "Truly Everlasting."

I want to thank the Membership of the House for the way you have helped me during this session. Both the Majority and Minority groups have been most cooperative and have made my task comparatively easy during this entire session, and I have diligently sought to uphold the high standards established by former occupants of this Chair.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the gentleman from Cambria, the Minority Leader, Mr. Andrews, for the cooperation he has displayed with the Chair during this Session. He has been most helpful in expediting the work of this House.

And then, my deepest feeling of gratitude to the Leader of the Majority, Herb. Sorg, who has been one of my staunchest friends and supporters; who has gained the respect and devotion of every member of this House; who has performed his duty as Majority Leader in an excellent manner and has extended to the Chair every consideration and proven himself an able leader.

To the Chairman, the Vice Chairmen of the various House Committees, the Chair expresses its thanks for the courtesies you have extended.

To the Officers of the House and all of the employees, the Chair extends its grateful appreciation for the manner in which they have performed their various duties.

Last, but not least, the Chair could not permit this occasion to go by without saying a word of praise and thanks to one who well deserves it, the Parliamentarian, S. Edward Moore, who will never let you down, never let you flounder, but who is a real guide and help to anyone who occupies the exalted position of Speaker of this House.

Again may I repeat that this is a moment of mingled emotions of both happiness and sadness as we return to our respective communities, let us rejoice in the fact that every one of us has played a part in serving in the building of a greater Pennsylvania and in preserving good government for the people of this Commonwealth and that we shall again at the hour of parting, to overcome a note of sadness, pledge to keep and continue to renew those friendships made during this Session which shall denote a greater value in our lives than any other thing I could think of at this moment. With this in mind I should like to leave with you a few words from the Great Statesman Abraham Lincoln—

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers:

None goes his way alone:

All that we send into the lives of others

Comes back into our own."

CONGRATULATING THE MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH offered a resolution which was read as follows:

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Speaker, I cannot resist making a comment as Chairman of this session this evening. To all that has been said I can add nothing in words, except that I would express in behalf of each Member of this House and as for myself Chairman of this meeting, "may God speed you in your new work."

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1947.

The principles of two party government have prevailed in the Nation and in the individual states since the time of Washington. It is a system of checks and balances, without which governments become autocratic and fail to give action to the wishes of the governed, or heed to their welfare.

Until recent years, although the existence of the system has been acknowledged and its benefits appreciated, but scant official recognition has been accorded it. Within recent Sessions of the General Assembly statutory recognition has been given to the fact that there exist in each house a majority leader and a minority leader. The General Assembly, as its first piece of legislation at the present session, enacted House Bill No. 1 into law, among other things, providing that in the event of a vacancy in the speakership, the majority leader shall perform the duties of Speaker.

It is especially fitting that this new law may first be invoked to confer the dignity of the office of Speaker upon one of the most popular majority leaders who have ever served this House.

The Honorable Herbert P. Sorg came to Harrisburg from St. Marys, in 1941, as the Representative of Elk County. His natural affability, his spirit of cooperation and his willingness to undertake tasks, however onerous or distasteful, soon gained for him a host of friends. The quiet, tactful and efficient way in which he set about performing those tasks, and his success in their accomplishment brought him universal admiration and respect.

As majority whip at the session of 1945, and again as majority leader at the present session, he brought to bear his experience as a successful attorney and business executive. He revealed unusual ability as an administrator and organizer. He possesses the insight to enable him to drive straight to the essentials of every problem, and thereby to dispose of them promptly and with finality. He knows when and to whom to delegate authority for the best accomplishment of desired results. Above all, he is straightforward and dependable. He has never been known to straddle a question; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Members of this House that we congratulate the Honorable Herbert P. Sorg upon the record he has sustained and enhanced as a leader during this session, and at its closing we wish him every success that a continuance of activity in public life can bring to him, and all the happiness and contentment that can come from it; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Honorable Herbert P. Sorg, by the Chief Clerk of this House.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Charles C. Smith.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. It is a great personal privilege to me and an honor to the Philadelphia Delegation to offer this resolution. For one who is not accustomed to making flowery speeches, I find that this one is extremely easy. I have been chosen to present the resolution for my good friend, the Majority Leader, Mr. Sorg. I had rather not be formal and call him Mister, but call him Herb, as we all know him.

He started this session with a difficult assignment—that of passing the tax measures. He has done the job well and in doing so, has been extremely fair to all and that I would like to stress because it is one of Herb's greatest assets—fairness, not only to the majority but also to the minority. In his handling of Legislation, we, on this side of the House, have faith and trust, which has grown into a deep and lasting affection.

Members of the House, let me say that no man can ask for more than the faith, trust and love of his fellowmen. We know this has been another step up the ladder of success for our good friend, Herb Sorg.

Mr. Chairman, it was with great pleasure that I presented this small token of esteem to our Majority Leader.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Bane.

Mr. BANE. Mr. Chairman, it is with a sense of humility, yet with pardonable pride that I rise to second the resolution presented by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith.

To me, in the closing hours of this session has come the firm conviction that it was no accident that caused the Members of the majority party to select as their leader the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

As a member of a militant, though most times ineffectual, minority we have come to appreciate his sterling qualities of sincerity, courtesy and leadership. As respects his leadership, I have had numerous occasions to observe and sit in awe and wonder at the promptness and effectiveness with which his commands were executed. I can say, in all sincerity, that no Commanding General under whom I served in World War II, ever had more complete and adequate control of every tactical situation than that displayed by the Majority Leader during this session.

Most of all, we of the minority, have come to respect him for his high qualities of courtesy. To each of us, and particularly to our Minority Leader, he has accorded every consideration possible.

In the days which lie ahead we wish and hope for him the continued success which his efforts during this session so justly earned for him.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Majority Leader, Mr. Sorg.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Chairman, need I say that I am grateful, particularly because I so deeply feel the lack of deserving such recognition as this. I too want to acknowledge the valuable assistance and help of the Parliamentarian of this House, our very capable Speaker, and the cooperative, effective and heart-warming Minority Leader—always fair. I am more than grateful to the Majority Whip because he has been most kind. I am grateful also to the members of the Press who always are asking questions we never know how to answer. I am also grateful, Mr. Chairman, to the secretary who came to me when I was so badly in need of a secretary,

Mrs. Halaiko. I want to acknowledge the valuable assistance of Marty as all of the Members have learned to know her.

Mr. Speaker, I don't know how I can express also the very effective help of the Majority Whip, Charley Brunner, and when all these expressions of appreciation are being passed around I wish that the Members only knew how effective he was, how he was always right there when we needed him most.

Mr. Chairman, thank you and all the Members of the House so very, very much for this gift and for your courtesy.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING THE MINORITY LEADER

Mr. BROWN offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1947.

The office of Minority Leader is often a thankless one, and sometimes seemingly futile. Upon the individual who hold the office depends in large measure whether the powers and privileges of the office become merely obstructionary, or whether they contribute materially, as they were intended, to bring about more equitable and just legislation.

The House of Representatives is fortunate indeed to have as its Minority Leader, during the past two sessions, a man with wide and varied legislative experience, not only as a Member, but also as a legislative correspondent, a man who has a keen appreciation of the problems of each day and their effect on the lives of the people of the Commonwealth, whose mind is always on the alert and quick to sense the possibilities of every situation, a man with a sharp wit and the wisdom and tact to use it well to gain a point, but never to unnecessarily hurt or embarrass those with whom he deals.

The Honorable Hiram G. Andrews holds the respect and confidence of Republican and Democratic Members alike. He has used the prestige and authority of his office to the end that the minority, though small, has been effective. Through his wise guidance and counsel much good has been attained, errors have been corrected, and unwise provisions have been modified; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extends its congratulations and admiration to its ageless statesman and Minority Leader, the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews, and its thanks for his sincere and effective services during the present session, with its best wishes for a long life of service, and the joy that comes from continued achievements; and be it further

Resolved, That, in token of its esteem and appreciation of his worth, a copy of this resolution be delivered to the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews, by the Chief Clerk of the House.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Chairman, when this delightful assignment was given to me not so very long ago I tried the best I could to place my remarks aright, but I became frightened, not knowing what would come after these remarks. Whoever drew the resolution said that we congratulate our "ageless," instead of "ablest" statesman. I didn't have time to change that and I am apologizing now, Mr. Chairman.

I am apologizing also Mr. Floor Leader, to my very, very good friend, for this part in the Resolution which says, "The House of Representatives is fortunate indeed to have as its Minority Leader during the past two sessions a man who has wide and varied legislative experience, not only as a Member but also a legislative correspondent, a man who has the keenest appreciation of the problems of each day and their effect on the lives of the people of this Commonwealth, whose mind is always on the alert and quick to sense the possibilities of every situation, a man with a sharp tongue,—I beg your pardon, Mr. Speaker, that is a man with a sharp wit,—I am a little confused,—and the wisdom and the tact to use it well to gain a point." Mr. Chairman, I hope the gentleman from Cambria, my very good friend, will not hear this part, "but never to unnecessarily hurt or embarrass those with whom he deals." For the record, Mr. Chairman, I apologize that I did not have the time to even read this resolution.

Seriously speaking, however, my friends, if I were to say anything about Hi Andrews I would have to call upon ancient history to portray Hi Andrews to the people of this Commonwealth. Nothing gives the point more emphasis than the story told of the ancient Greeks who on certain days of their festivities would gather at the temple in Athens, and after having been conditioned for the task before them, they would light their torches and run a race through the city of Athens. The running sometimes was hard, the weather conditions, road conditions bad, but they always got through, and carried their torches for those who were to take them and carry on from the point where the first one stopped.

Hi Andrews the torchbearer, a torchbearer in this new social order; day and night he would gather his pamphlets together in his little office upstairs and light his torch from the flame of our constitutional government, bring his torch down here, and against all adversity throw that light so that it permeated every part of this assembly hall. So, to the torchbearer of the General Assembly, we salute you.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Chairman, it is with a great deal of pleasure that I rise to second the resolution offered by my colleague, Mr. Brown.

I am confident that we have all in this session enjoyed our associations with each other. The many highly controversial and serious measures that have been before the House may well have created a bitterness which fortunately has not occurred. In all my experience in this House I have never seen a greater spirit of friendship and true tolerance displayed by the Members on the opposite sides of the House towards each other. Members with directly opposite philosophies of government, in my opinion have displayed towards each other the greatest tolerance I have ever seen in my experience down here, and I believe one of the greatest contributions to that has been the conduct of the Minority Floor Leader, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews. His leadership of the minority party has been of the finest that has been seen in these halls, and I know on many occasions his masterful delivery and his scathing opposition has had us on this side of the House squirming in our seats. His satire and his sarcasm have been masterpieces of art, but yet with all that I am confident that I express the opinion of every Member of this House, whether he be on this side or on the other side, that he is a grand fellow, a real leader, and above all a perfect gentleman, and our wish for him is that he will serve in this capacity or in some leadership capacity for so long as he so desires. That will be a real contribution to the future of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Minority Leader, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Gentlemen, I am not the man in that casket. Mr. Chairman, there once was a fireman who had not been any too godly in his life and who unfortunately passed away. At the funeral the clergyman was very much disturbed in his mind as to what he would say about him, and thought he would look around among the floral gifts and see if he could not get an inspiration. So he came to one floral offering that had this inscription, "He has gone, this loyal fireman, to his last fire."

Now, I don't know whether I have gone to my last fire or not, but on behalf of the minority group, and not in my own right or name, I accept the kindly words that have been said. I have been fortunate, much more fortunate than the Majority Leader. We have had a small group that comprises a committee in fact. We never had to function in caucus. We were generally in thorough agreement. We could talk things over, and with the able assistance that has developed during this session, my somewhat critical friend, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, whom I would not scare or would not frighten or would not affront for anything; and Mr. Bane, and Mr. Readinger and Mr. O'Connor have furnished me with the law. Other members of our group, representative of the labor constituency, have furnished me information about that, so that I have lived an easy life and have put on weight, while my friend the Majority Leader, has had to wonder sometimes whether he could not trade me about 30 Republicans for about 4 Democrats.

Now, Mr. Chairman, I appreciate what the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming, has said because at this session, with the cooperation of the minority group and the consideration of the majority group, we have placed parliamentary deliberations upon as high a plane, I believe, as this House has witnessed in its career. I have never known a session where the majority group and the minority group stood more steadfast in defense of their positions, where there was less useless bickering, less obstruction, less animosity than there has been at this session. It would have been so easy, Mr. Chairman, for the majority group to have played that we were not even in the House. We might have had our recourse in certain parliamentary expedients, but we have been given every defense and every consideration inherent in the highest parliamentary tradition which parliamentary government has devised.

I want to express to the Speaker my appreciation for his invariable adherence to the tenets of Parliamentary Law. I want to express to the Majority Leader and to the Chairman of Committees my appreciation for their constant regard for the parliamentary properties.

Mr. Speaker, our minority group is still here. We are looking forward to happier days. Heaven help the Majority leader had we had ninety-nine at this session. As I said in the beginning, not in my own right and not in my own name but in behalf of the minority group that has cooperated with me, that has been of assistance all the way, without whose help or support we would not have been able to make the record that we have made this session, I accept the expressions that have been made.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING THE MAJORITY WHIP

Mr. O'CONNOR offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1947.

A legislative whip has a real job to do, a job that takes endless time and patience, and constant checking and re-checking with the utmost care and consideration for every minute detail. For such an assignment no better choice could be made than the gentleman who is now the Majority Whip of the House, the Honorable Charles H. Brunner, Jr. He is energetic and hard-working, with a bulldog tenacity for keeping at each task that comes before him until he is thoroughly satisfied, not only that it is done, but also that it is done right.

During the 1945 session of the General Assembly, one of the most important subjects of legislation was pure streams and the abatement and future prevention of pollution. This program was fathered and nurtured through to successful final passage by the present Majority Whip. It took and received great perseverance. It took and received careful study and constant vigilance to prevent crippling amendments. That effective legislation resulted was entirely because of the efforts of the sponsor of the bills, therefore be it

Resolved, That we the Members of the House of Representatives, congratulate the Honorable Charles H. Brunner, Jr., as an outstandingly successful legislator and an unusually effective and efficient whip; we hail him as our friend and an all around good fellow, and wish him the continued success that he well deserves, and all the enjoyment and comfort that life can give, and be it further

Resolved, That as a token of our esteem, we direct that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to him by the Chief Clerk of the House.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. O'Connor.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Chairman, no session of the House of Representatives can be a success unless its business is carried on in an orderly and parliamentary manner.

No one man, no matter how willing he may be, is capable of doing all the work required of a party leader of the House. For this reason there is one chosen to assist the party leader who is affectionately called the "Party Whip."

The majority party showed great wisdom in at least one of its decisions at this session—when it chose for its "Whip" the affable gentleman from Montgomery, the Honorable Charles H. Brunner, Jr.

Mr. Brunner, due to his years of experience in this House exemplified his ability to cooperate not only with the members of his own party, but also with all the Members of the House. He has been ever ready to aid his leader.

At times, we, on this side of the House, were startled by the way he kept his party in line. He never was idle a moment when important matters were before the House. He was all over the House lending a helping hand and encouragement to the young Members, yes, Mr. Chairman, there were times, too, when he was able to cross party lines and procure a Democratic vote.

Mr. Brunner is an intelligent man. He is honest, truthful, courteous and courageous. At no time did he try to mislead anyone. He took his work seriously, and when the Floor Leader was absent, no one knew it for the "Whip" stepped right into his place and the work of the House continued without interruption. He is in every sense a gentleman.

Mr. Chairman, the Members of the House have directed me to present this gift to Mr. Brunner as a token of sincere admiration and every good wish.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously accepted by a rising vote.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman. Members of the House, it has been my proud privilege during this session to serve under a splendid Speaker, a fine Floor Leader, and at times and when necessary I obtained the cooperation of those on the other side of the House. I have been here for a few terms, that is true.

May I state to the newer Members of the House that one of the things that you obtain by serving the people of Pennsylvania as a Member of this House is a lasting friendship with the Members on both sides, which is cemented by that service. No office of this House can function properly without the whole hearted cooperation of the membership, and may I at this time express my gratitude for the cooperation of the members of the majority and for the courtesy by the members of the minority party.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING THE MINORITY WHIP

Mr. WATKINS offered a resolution which read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1947.

The Democratic Party elected the Minority Whip at this session of the General Assembly with the full knowledge that it had a man who knew what had to be done and would do it well.

The Honorable James E. Lovett was the selection of the Minority Party and rightly so for he had rendered faithful service to his Party in the same capacity during the sessions of 1943 and 1945.

In carrying out the duties of his office this session, he has implemented his experience with an increasing wisdom, the same capacity for hard work, and his mellow personality. The Members of the Minority Party have been well satisfied with their choice which Mr. Lovett has completely justified therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House extends to the Honorable James E. Lovett, the Minority Whip, its congratulations upon the success with which his work has met and the capable way in which he has maintained the organization of the Minority Party; and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Honorable James E. Lovett as evidence of its appreciation for a job well done.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Watkins.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. Chairman, many kind, true and well warranted statements have been made by the former speakers who have made the previous presentations to the officers of the House, and rightfully so, up to this time.

I through my association with these officer Members, most certainly concur in all these expressions, showing our sincere appreciation of their services and the high esteem in which we hold them.

Now, I have the honor and privilege to refer to another fellow officer Member, the Minority Whip of our House, who has had a long term of service here, the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. James E. Lovett, who is plain "Jim" to all of us. This gentleman, your friend and mine has outstanding personal qualities, a well-cultivated gift for oratory, a keen mind, personal charm and tireless energy, all qualities that have won for him a place in state Government. It seems to me the name "Whip" need not apply to this gentleman, for in the genial and kind manner in which he uses his personality to persuade his fellow members of the minority to follow his wishes, certainly no whip need be used. And again, in his same forceful manner during this session and all other sessions in which he has been with us we in the majority always appreciated the kind salesmanship manner in which he, in his sincerity, tries to sell us on his ideas which he believes in, with his ever "Let's Be Fair" attitude of approach to the issues before us.

I might take his statement, "For the life of me," which I have often heard him use on the floor of the House, in his ever convincing way and say—"for the life of me" and for the lives of all of us here assembled, why are there not more Lovett's in our daily lives with whom to associate.

In the presentation of this gift to my dear friend, the gentleman from Westmoreland Mr. Lovett, believe me it is but a mere token of our appreciation for his association. We have a deep feeling of gratitude in our hearts, hoping always that we can have in public life more men like Jim.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Chairman, I am somewhat confused as usual, but I want to thank the gentleman who said those very nice things about me. One of my colleagues, Mr. Petrosky, looked into the coffin.

I do want to say to the Members of the House in the closing days, and in the closing hours of this session—in a few hours I suppose the men and women assembled here will return to every section of the state of Pennsylvania. There they will deal with the people, they will be leaders among those people. They can be kind to those people or they can not be kind to those people. I want to say to the men and women of this House that after my long years of service here, in the many sessions I have served, as the other speakers said, in this session of the Legislature there has been closer cooperation and feeling between the members of the majority and the minority than in any session that I have ever served. To me that is something, because I think as the years go on we as Democrats and Republicans agree with one another and get closer to one another and we do not take issues to heart. There are things that happen at the session of Legislature which, whether for the good or bad, will all go by the way-side if you people here will go back to your section of the state and only be fair with the people that you come in contact with.

I want to say to the Speaker of this House that as he goes on through life I hope he will remember that one little saying that I at least get credit for introducing in this House, "let's be fair." If he does I know that he will reach the peak.

I want to say again to the membership of this House and to my friend Mr. Watkins, that I thank you gentlemen for this gift and those kind words, and I wish you all health, success and happiness.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chairman requests the Majority Leader, and the Minority Leader, the Majority Whip and the Minority Whip to approach the rostrum.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Speaker of the House.

The SPEAKER. Mr. Chairman, I have a very pleasant duty to perform at this moment. I very briefly spoke in my remarks of the fine cooperation of the Majority and Minority Leaders, with whom the Chair must deal more frequently than with the Majority and Minority Whip. Certainly these four men as the leaders selected by the majority and minority of this House, have performed their tasks well, and I would like to present to them as a gift from the Speaker these certificates designating their official positions in this session of the Legislature for a job well done.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING CHIEF CLERK AND SECRETARY

Mr. McMILLEN offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1947

As part of every session of the General Assembly there are two important although unrelated tasks which command the time and energy of a large number of men and women. Essential to the House is a staff of officers and assistants to handle the vast number of details and problems incidental to the functioning of a legislative body. Essential to the public is a staff of newspaper and other press representatives to fairly and accurately report the matters before the General Assembly.

The Chief Clerk of this House, the Honorable William E. Habbyschaw and his assistants have willingly and ably performed the multitude of details assigned to them and have devoted many long hours in the performance of their duties.

The Secretary of this House, the Honorable William P. Roan, and his assistants, have done no less and have proven reliable sources of aid and assistance to the Members in the prompt performance of every request.

The newsmen have reported the activities of this session fairly and impartially to the public and have maintained the high principles that must necessarily attach to such an important profession, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Members of the House of Representatives extend their sincere thanks and appreciation for a job well done to the Chief Clerk of the House, the Honorable William E. Habbyschaw and his assistants, to the Secretary of the House, the Honorable William P. Roan and his assistants and to all the gentlemen of the press who have been associated with the House of Representatives during this session.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. McMillen.

Mr. McMILLEN. Mr. Speaker, it is a happy occasion for me this evening to be asked to present this resolution.

I stop here to pay my respects to a great Speaker, a hard hitting and fair Majority Leader, and his assistant, the Whip; to a courageous opposition Leader and his assistant. With these men leading this House, with all the Members of the House sitting on the floor to vote on bills, it would be impossible to carry on a successful session of the Legislature without the assistance of the various employees that extend from the Speaker's rostrum down through the offices, on down into the basement mailing rooms, where all this material finds its way out into the mails of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Chairman, at this time we sort of look around, we become philosophical. It is a poor day in life, my friends, when we cannot say that we have learned something, a lesson that can be useful to us, and as I thought back over this session and looked around to the people who have served us as we labored here, I tried to think of something that I could take home with me, and perhaps a thought to leave with you that would be useful. As I observed their labors, their help, their willingness to serve, their sincerity and efforts being brought to the close of a successful session of the Legislature, I thought to myself that here we have before us in this display the one great lesson of life that all of us must learn sooner or later if we are to be a successful neighbor. That is the lesson of the dignity of labor, the dignity of a job well done. As long as the American people can bring to their youngsters and to each other a feeling of dignity and well-being in the work they have to do, America need not fear. So I say to you, Mr. Chairman, let us pause here to pay our regards and to take due note of this job well done.

At this time, Mr. Speaker, in order to show our appreciation for this job well done, I would like to have the two "Bills," the Honorable William E. Habbyschaw, Chief Clerk of this House, and the Honorable William P. Roan, Secretary of this House, present themselves to this microphone.

To you may I extend our appreciation and to all of your employees. In this bundle are small gifts, which I hope will bear to you and to all of the employees our sincere appreciation.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Chief Clerk of the House, Mr. Habbyschaw.

The CHIEF CLERK. Mr. Chairman, I am sure that Bill Roan and I, on behalf of all the employees, want to thank the Chairman and each one of you for these contributions.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Secretary of the House, Mr. Roan.

The SECRETARY. Mr. Chairman, it has been a pleasure to have worked for you. As the Chief Clerk told you we are very thankful for these gifts. I want to say that during the interim it will be a pleasure for the Chief Clerk and I to be of service to you.

PRINTING OF SPEAKER'S BOOK

Mr. WOOD offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1947.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House be directed to have printed the resolution of congratulation to the Speaker of the House, introduced by the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, on June 12, 1947, together with the remarks of the Members of the House relating thereto; and be it further Resolved, That a copy thereof be sent to each Member of the House.

The CHAIRMAN. This program tonight draws to a close.

To the compliments addressed to the officers of the House by the presenters and seconders of the various resolutions permit me to add mine.

To the Speaker my hearty congratulation upon the masterful performance of his duties as a presiding officer and to his tact and patience.

To the party leaders on both sides of the House my thanks for your courtesies and my appreciation of your sportsmanship and ability.

It would be remiss of me if I should not recognize those who made the program such a success.

Needless to say there is one who has appeared and guided us in making this session very successful, and that is our Parliamentarian. So I want to extend my thanks to Eddie Moore.

Then I also want to thank this special committee that has made all of these arrangements which made possible this program and this very good time. You know the committee which has been named by the Speaker and I shall not take time in going over this list again. May I express to each one of you my very deep appreciation and to the Members of the House our thanks for these substantial expressions to those whom we have honored tonight.

In a very few hours this session of the Legislature will have adjourned. As these festivities close, and the program is finished, I feel that it is appropriate in behalf of your committee, that I express to you, our very best wishes for the remainder of this year.

As we all return to our homes, the various roads that we shall take, to catch up on our respective occupations and professions, I am reminded of what has been said,

"To every man there cometh
A way and ways and a way,
The high soul takes the high way
The low soul gropes the low
And in between on the musty flats,
The rest drift to and fro.
But to every man there cometh
A high way and a low
And every one must choose
The way his soul shall go."

THE SPEAKER (Franklin H. Lichtenwalter) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Stockham, for his very able leadership of the Select Committee as Chairman. We would also like to mention the fine cooperation of the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Tittle, and all the other members of the Committee who have worked this evening in bringing about this very fine program.

We will now proceed with the business of the House. The Chair would like to inform the Members that there is very important business that must be conducted on this legislative day, and asks the cooperation of the Members to please remain in their seats and we will try to perform our duties as quickly as possible.

Will the Minority Leader please send his report to the desk on concurrence and non-concurrence bills.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thought I had cleared all that was sent to me.

The SPEAKER. The Parliamentarian informs the Chair that we do not have the Minority Leader's report. Will the Minority Leader please come to the desk?

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, simply because the hour is late we should not permit fatigue to submerge the legislative functions or dim our faculties in passing judiciously upon measures that are now pending. House Bill 146, the quota of liquor distributors, gives a quota by population, so many distributors per unit of population.

Now, we have gone on record in this House as taking the quota off of clubs. There is pending before this House a liquor bill which if passed would permit the sale of beer in grocery stores. Then we have a bill which says that a county having 80,000, I think it is, can have four distributors. Now, that process establishes a property right; it is a move in the direction of a monopoly. If you have only a limited number of distributors in the county, you confer on someone a very valuable property right. I cannot see any reason why it is necessary to limit distributors, and I call your attention to the fact that I rise in defense of private enterprise. I appeal to the private enterprise party and against the idea of creating monopoly of distribution which this bill does. Both the principle of creating a monopoly and going against the principle of competition is obnoxious and abhorrent to all the doctrines of your party. You say private enterprise, you say competition, and then here is a bill which says no private enterprise, government regulation, and do away with competition, and give a very valuable right to certain favored distributors. Mr. Speaker, I say that that is wrong in principle.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I have a lot of respect for the gentleman from Cambria, also a lot of respect for his talents and his learning and his excellent judgment, but on this particular bill I believe the intent is a little different than he has construed it.

We have a condition in the larger cities, of which my county has one, whereby distributors have gotten so numerous that it is just impossible to police the operation. They have resorted to a distribution of alcoholic beverages by truck to the doorstep of homes at all times of the day and night. We have laws which limit the number of retail outlets, and they have only certain hours in which they can sell under your quota,—not quota, but your distributors can sell to anyone in any amount of a case or more. I myself am against restriction on free trade or competition, but I am not where I believe it is not in the interest of the people. I believe if we do not have an equitable distribution of our alcoholic beverages that we are definitely going to have a lot of trouble with our youngsters, and not only that, but with the problems of keeping our Country so that we can have beer or liquor if we want it. So the object of this bill is not to restrict anyone. We want enough every place but we do not want an over-supply, so that in order to stay in business they have to resort to selling to everyone and every place, with no restriction whatever. I have no interest in the bill other than I believe that under the terms of this bill you could properly police your malt beverage distribution. For that reason I would certainly like to see the bill supported.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, not so long ago I assisted an ex-service man who came from World War II in securing a distributor's license. Now, the gentleman says that we will be better able to regulate drinking with distributor's licenses. He complained of the fact that it is taken to the homes in cases. I would suggest that if we are going to have beer, in the homes is where it should be, and that is where you should drink it. We would have less trouble if they drank it in the homes and did not drink it in these other places. So for that reason I don't know why we should pass this bill.

A lot of the boys are still in the service, and they may want to go into this business. I heard a lot around here about the ex-service men getting into business. I don't think we should close the door to any of this business today. This bill will definitely close the door. For that reason I think we should defeat this bill.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to make any speeches on the floor on this bill, but due to the remarks of the gentleman from Erie, I would like to ask him a couple of questions.

He made the remark in substance that there was such a flood of distributors in the cities that it was causing great difficulty. I would like to ask how many distributors there are in Erie county?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I could not answer that exactly, Mr. Speaker, but I would say that it has gone up from approximately 1400 to over 1900 in the last year.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, is that in the county of Erie, alone?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, how many in the county of Erie?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I couldn't answer that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Does the gentleman know, Mr. Speaker, how many counties in the state—first of all may I ask him upon what basis was the figure of 20 thousand population selected?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, it was on the basis that one distributor could well serve that number of people in the more populous areas.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, why was the figure of 80 thousand selected?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, that was selected, not as a figure, but having less than 80 thousand. The reason for that was,—the only objection that I had heard by any of the distributors,—not distributors, but your malt beverage manufacturers, was that in a small county they felt that unless you allowed more than one for each 20 thousand you might possibly get to the point where one distributor might possibly own both outlets and then we would shut out competition entirely.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many counties in the State there are with 80 thousand population?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. No I do not, Mr. Speaker. I might say that according to the 1940 census there were 35 counties in the State with a population of 80 thousand.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many of those 35 counties have more than two distributors, and more than four foreign distributors?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, a good average in the smaller counties would be six.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I am not talking about the average, I am talking of the particular counties.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I don't believe, Mr. Speaker, I get that clearly.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many of the thirty-five counties under eighty thousand have less than six of a total of distributor licenses?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a guess that there are—

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I am not guessing at the present time, I am seeking accurate information.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry that I cannot answer that question correctly.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many counties there are in the State of Pennsylvania with less than twenty thousand population?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I could not answer that Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many distributors licenses and foreign distributor licenses there are in each of those counties?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. No, Mr. Speaker, I don't have it from a county standpoint. I have it from a larger one, which I gave some time ago.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many distributor licenses there are in the county of Fulton.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, my colleague from Allegheny says there aren't any.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many distributors and foreign distributors there are in the county of Cameron?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I wouldn't know that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I will answer for the gentleman. There are two. I don't know how many other counties might be in the same situation. Can the gentleman from Erie tell me whether there is any restriction on the sale of malt beverage by a distributor.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I think not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me whether there is any restriction on the distributor, once he has a license, from selling his product any place within the confines of Pennsylvania?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. No, Mr. Speaker, I don't believe there is, although I doubt that he would sell it all over the map.

Mr. TOMPKINS. That is all.

Mr. Speaker, I cannot let this bill go without saying something on behalf of those counties, particularly the small counties, of which I represent one in connection with this bill. How many counties there are with less than the quota set forth in this bill, I do not know. How they picked out of thin air the figure of twenty thousand and the figure of eighty thousand, I cannot figure out. They seem to have no justifiable basis for that. They could have made it ten thousand or one hundred thousand. There seems to be no basis for it at all. Further than that if the quotas in the larger centers of population become filled and they have more competition than ordinary, we run into the very property right question which has been raised by the Minority Leader of this House, that is, if the men can go into these small communities and pick up those property rights to the extent provided under this bill, they can force the men out of business who are in those smaller counties who have been making their living there legitimately and who would have to compete with the larger distributors who have picked up those property rights in those counties and put the squeeze on. So for that reason I cannot see any justification for creating such property rights as created under this bill unless substantial information is presented to this House upon which we may pass judgment.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to prolong the debate on this bill, but I do not think it is fair to pass legislation in this House affecting one county, when that same legislation is going to affect the entire State. In my county the population is around fifty thousand, and we have three distributors. They are all making a good living and there is room for a couple more.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, some weeks ago I had the opportunity to read this bill, House Bill 146, and at that time, due to a misunderstanding I suggested and made a motion that the bill be referred back to the Liquor Control Committee for further study. Since that time I have also had the opportunity not only of talking to the sponsor of the bill and to the Chairman of the Liquor Control Committee, but I also had the opportunity of talking to many individuals who are engaged in the distribution of malt beverages, and not only in my county but in several surrounding counties, and the importing distributors, the very large importing distributors throughout the State. I find that I must reverse the position that I took before that it was really unAmerican in the first place to restrict or to limit the number of licenses. I think in passing this bill we are doing the proper thing in permitting any one who engages in the malt distributing business to make a good, easy living. I have found that the average gross profit on a case of beer varies from as low as ten cents a case to approximately fifty to seventy-five cents a case. The cost of the distributor's license you know, is four hundred dollars a year, and with your bond and filing fee it would amount to four hundred and twenty-five dollars. And then you have the Federal permit that you must have under the Federal Law, at a cost of approximately seventy-seven dollars or a total of five hundred dollars for your license fee. You have your rent, your telephone, you have your overhead and in two or three counties that I am told of, I know it does apply to Philadelphia County, that you as an individual licensee cannot run that business yourself. You must have a union employee who is a member of the Teamsters' union, who is the only person that can pick up the beer at a brewery platform or at the platform of an importing distributor. So immediately you are faced with one hundred or one hundred twenty-five dollars, depending on the amount of rent that you ordinarily pay before you make a cent of profit for yourself.

I think we are doing the veterans a favor because the veterans in the last few years have heard of the enormous profit made in the sale of beer. It is true that large profits were made in the last four or five years. That was due to the rationing and the quota and the restrictions on the production of beer. Today there is perhaps an over abundance or over supply of beer, and the profit to the distributor has dropped. I therefore think that we are giving the average applicant for a license a warning by letting him know the cost of the license.

There has been much talk about the population in Bedford County, and that is one reason why we should not have rationing based upon population. I think we are all overlooking one important factor in the law and that is that a beer distributor in any county can go into any of the other sixty-six counties and distribute his beer. I do not think by this legislation we are benefitting one county as against another county. Perhaps the setting of 20,000 as a population unit is arbitrary, but since the licensee can serve in any of the sixty-seven counties I think there is no harm there. We have also talked about property rights naturally. It is not a property right as I see it; it is merely a license right. It is true that the value of a license is increased as the quota is filled and you can get a high sales price for a beer distributor's license. We have in Philadelphia at the present time sixteen or eighteen hundred beer distributors and perhaps two hundred of them are importing distributors. If you will communicate with them I think you will find that approximately ninety per cent of them are for sale and you will find that there is no premium on a beer distributor's license today, and perhaps it will be thirty or forty years before there will be a premium. We will be in session in future years and I think we can take care of that license problem at that time. I urge you in all fairness as a sponsor of this bill, that this bill should have your hearty support, not only as being a proper piece of legislation for the veterans but for all counties.

Mr. BANE. Mr. Speaker, like my colleague, the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, I have become a little confused as to what the basic principles here are. You perhaps have realized that I am a rugged individualist. The number of licenses issued to beer distributors, or the number of distributors is not going to increase the quantity of beer flowing through the retail outlets. I do think this is a deprivation of the rights that an individual ought to have. If he wants to go into that business he should have that privilege. He ought to be able to meet competition from the opposition in that community. If I can understand the argument intelligently which has been advanced on the floor of this House, we already have such a flood of existing beer licenses that it is too late to attempt to restrict them by this bill, because I can assure you that this act will not repudiate the already existing wholesale and retail licenses. Therefore this bill ought to fail.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. O'Donnell.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. O'DONNELL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. O'Donnell, where he received his information that a one man distributor cannot go to the brewery and pick up his own merchandise without the intervention of a union employee.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I might say that I obtained that information from talking to beer distributors in Philadelphia and also talking to union representatives. I have also had the experience in connection with witnessing on behalf of others whom I represented in my practice in Philadelphia, where beer trucks operated by the licensees themselves went to the various brewery platforms in Philadelphia, and the workers at the brewery said, "We are sorry, we cannot load you unless you have a union man in good standing operating that truck." They said that to the licensees themselves. At that time I witnessed where the union representative then came to the licensee and explained to him what could be done in order to obtain the beer, with the net result that the licensee, even though he did not need that helper or assistant and had no need for him, had to engage and hire the union employee.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the explanation of the gentleman from Philadelphia but I am informed that in Pittsburgh that is not the case. I also personally know of several distributors in my territory who do not have to go through that formality to pick up the merchandise delivered at the platform of the brewery.

I would like to make an additional remark at this time. It seems to me we are following a rather cross pattern, like a pair of mules pulling in opposite directions. Here we are apparently going to throw the door wide open for the small package sales and anybody can get a license without restriction. Then we turn around and say, "We will give you so many distributors to the county." That does not make sense to me, and for that reason this bill should be recommitted.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Liquor Control.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I object and oppose this motion to recommit. I think we have had plenty of discussion on the bill. It would be just as well to vote on the bill, and if it fails, it fails. If it does not fail, it does not. I would ask Mr. Tompkins if he would withdraw his motion and let a roll call decide as to whether or not the Members want or do not want this bill.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I prefer to have the motion to recommit stand or fall.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair is unable to decide. Whereupon, a division was called for, 94 Members voting in the affirmative, and 52 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. COOK asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Counties to meet during the session of the House.
